Introduction

The present work is an attempt to arrange in a plausible historical order the events reported in the gospels according to Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. The events these gospels report may be grouped into eight periods: (1) birth and youth, (2) ministry before John imprisoned, (3) ministry while John in prison, (4) ministry after John put to death, (5) final tour, (6) week of triumph, (7) passion, and (8) resurrection and events following.

- (1) The key to placing the accounts of the birth of Jesus into a plausible historical sequence is to recognize that Matthew does not say, nor does he imply, that Joseph and Mary ever lived in Bethlehem. As for the difference in lineages, I find it plausible that one lineage is that of Joseph and the other of Mary.
- (2) Most of the information about the early ministry of Jesus is in the gospel of John, and ordering the material for this period presents no notable difficulties.
- (3) Reconciling the accounts of the period while John the Baptist was in prison has proved less than completely satisfactory. For this period I adopted a rule which gives first ordering priority to Mark, then to Luke, and last to Matthew. Upon ordering the several events of this period by this rule, I found that while the several gospels agree on the order of many events and event sequences in this period, there are five events or event sequences where they differ in order. For each of these five differences the statements which connect them to their surrounding text was considered, as were dependencies among events. Among the connecting statements and dependencies there is a clue to probable historical order which I considered significant in four cases. In one of these four cases the clue argues for an order different from that specified by the rule, and I considered this clue of sufficient weight to override the rule. This is the case of the healing of the daughter of Jairus and the woman on the way. The remaining events of this period are presented in the order prescribed by the rule. The result is that in this period the proposed historical order differs from Matthew in four events or event sequences, and differs from Mark and Luke in one event sequence.

In this same period the evangelists agree in presenting the event of Lk 6:1ff p103 followed immediately by that of Lk 6:6ff p105, and it is easy to suspect that this arrangement is topical rather than historical. But since this arrangement could be historical—the first-presented event may even have spawned the second—and since I have discerned in the several accounts no sufficient clue to a more likely order, I have retained the evangelists' order. Indeed, in all cases where the evangelists agree on order I follow their order.

The only portion of the gospel of John which I place in this period is Jn 5. I find no adequate clue to its proper placement, so I simply assign it what I consider a plausible position.

(4, 5) Ordering the material for the ministry of Jesus after the death of John and the final tour presents no problems since the several accounts agree as to order. But it is well to state my opinion that the events of Lk 10:1 p253 through 18:14 p311 occurred at a different time than similar event reported elsewhere in the four gospels. Jesus did and said many similar things.

A portion of John's gospel parallels a portion of the synoptic gospels in the first of these two periods, and is placed accordingly. The remainder of John's gospel which I place in these periods is simply placed, like Jn 5 in the prior period, in a plausible position.

- (6, 7) Ordering the events of the week of triumph and of the passion requires paying attention to when each day started and ended. It is also helpful to note that Jesus and his disciples prepared and ate the Passover meal on the days prescribed by the Law of Moses, and essentially everyone else prepared and ate this meal one day later than the Law prescribed.
- (8) The key to ordering the events of the resurrection is to realize that Mary separated from the other women, leaving them near the tomb while she ran to the disciples.

There are numerous instances where I have interleaved similar things rather than place them in parallel. Some of the resulting sequences are worthy of complete confidence, such as that formed from Mt 27:49 and Mk 15:36b p469. Others are doubtful, such as the sequence I form from Mt 12:25-37 and Mk 3:23-29p129ff. The degree of confidence appropriate to most sequences of this sort falls somewhere between what is appropriate for these two examples.

Sequential order usually indicates a proposed historical order. At Mk 4:40 p153, for instance, the reader is intended to understand that the several statements were each spoken, and in the sequence shown. So in this instance, and including Lk 8:25 and Mt 8:26, Jesus asked about fear twice and faith twice.

But there are exceptions. Concurrent activities provide one class of exceptions. And Mt 22:16 p<sup>357</sup> provides an example of a more common class of exceptions. Mt 22:16 has three clauses which I have lettered a-b-c. Mk 12:14 presents three equivalent clauses in a different order: b-c-a. And Lk 20:21 presents equivalents for two of the three clauses in the order c-a. In such cases as this, unless one of the clauses was a repetition, clause 'a' in this instance, at least one of the sequences cannot be historical. In all such cases, order in the text does not necessarily represent a proposed historical order. Not all such clauses are lettered.

In some of the cases where the King James Version reflects a minority reading I provide the Greek from Scrivener, as at Lk 7:31 p122, or provide a translation of the majority text as at Lk 8:3 p127. I attach no special significance to these cases.

Typography conventions:

Text blocks in this size and typeface are in proposed historical order and in biblical order.

Text blocks in this size and typeface are in proposed historical order but not in biblical order; these text blocks are further distinguished by their verse numbers being set in Italic type.

Text blocks in ony smaller type face are not in proposed historical order.

Underlined text marks a geographic location or other detail of special interest. {Curly braces} delimit comments inserted into the text.

Dot • may start statements which are probably separate, or both different and essentially concurrent.

Bent arrows (かなかめ) indicate biblical order when the continuing passage is close by.

1 2 3 4 are used to suggest a sequence where text position is not adequate to this purpose.

Harmony of the Gospels

birth

Harmony of the Gospels Order of events surrounding the birth of Jesus

What follows is one possible sequence of events that is consistent with, and could give rise to, the two canonical gospel accounts of the birth and youth of Jesus.

Within two years of his birth...

- Caesar Augustus orders a tax or enrollment throughout the empire, Lk 2:1-3.
- betrothal of Mary to Joseph, Mt 1:18, Lk 1:34, 2:5.
- announcement to Zechariah, Lk 1:5...

Within a year of his birth...

- announcement to Mary, Lk 1:26...
- announcement to Joseph. Mt 1:18...
- Joseph takes Mary into his home, Mt 1:24-25, Lk 2:5.

Within days of his birth...

The day of his birth...

- birth of Jesus, Lk 2:6-7; note v7, "inn", Greek kataluma.
- announcement to shepherds, Lk 2:8-14.
- shepherds go to Bethlehem, see Jesus, Lk 2:15...
- wise men, being in the east, see star in west, Mt 2:2,7,16. Note v16 "two years"

Days following his birth...

- 8th day, circumcision of Jesus, Lk 2:21.
- 41st (or 40th or 33rd) day or after, visit to Jerusalem, Lk 2:22..., Leviticus 12 Note v22 "brought him to Jerusalem" which tells us they were not then staying in Jerusalem.
- return to Nazareth, Lk 2:39. Note "law", and cf. items above; recall that they had already been living in the same house in Nazareth before the trip to Bethlehem.

Years following his birth...

2 years or so later...

- Magi arrive in Jerusalem, Mt 2:1...
- ((Magi go to Bethlehem, fail to find Jesus.))
- Magi see star again, ((first time in two years)), this time to the north of them, Mt 2:9...
- star leads them to Jesus ((who was in Nazareth)), Mt 2:9.... Note that the star was low enough in the sky to enable them to find not merely the town where Jesus was, but the very house in which he was (v9, 11), so the star was no higher than a few thousand feet at most, and probably only a few hundred, and maybe less, when over the house, and we may surmise that the star was a light that was unique enough to recognize no matter in what position of the sky it was seen, whether from quality of light or mere movement (v2 "saw"; v9-10 "saw" "went before" "stood over"), and that it was perhaps a lamp borne by an angel. Note v11 house (Greek oikia), not stable (mandra or epaulos), not inn (kataluma).
- God warns Magi; they go home without returning to Jerusalem, Mt 2:12.
- God warns Joseph; they flee to Egypt (and remain there until Herod's death), Mt 2:13-15.
- Herod searches for the child; murders the children in and around Bethlehem, Mt 2:16...
- Herod dies, Mt 2:19...
- God tells Joseph to go to the land of Israel; he returns, Mt 2:19-21.
- Joseph returns to Israel, but is afraid to live in Judea because of Archelaus; and being warned by God. he returns to his former town, Nazareth, Mt 2:22...
- Jesus raised in Nazareth, Mt 2:23, Lk 2:39-40,51, et al.

12th year...

• Jesus taken to Jerusalem, Lk 2:41...

Supplementary considerations

Accounts mostly different.

Matthew and Luke present two very different accounts of events surrounding the birth and youth of Jesus. Essentially the only facts that these two writers both present are that Joseph is of the house of

birth and youth

David, Mary was espoused to Joseph, God is the father of Jesus, Jesus was born of Mary in Bethlehem of Judea, and Jesus lived in Nazareth. Beyond this, they each selected such related facts as fit, in each case, the gospel they were writing. And it is to our benefit that they included almost entirely different facts, for we have thereby a fuller picture of the event. Their accounts are not contradictory, they are supplementary.

Place of residence.

There is no evidence within Matthew's account of the birth and youth of Jesus that suggests, much less compels the conclusion, that Joseph and Mary ever lived in Bethlehem. The only connection between Mary and Bethlehem in Matthew's account is the one statement that Jesus was born there, Mt 2:1. And Matthew does not connect Joseph with Bethlehem at all. We only know that he was there once, at the birth of Jesus, because Luke tells us. Bethlehem figures prominently in most of the remainder of Matthew's account of the birth and youth of Jesus. The scholars told Herod of the significance of Bethlehem. Perhaps—Matthew does not actually say—the Magi visited Bethlehem as Herod directed. And Herod murdered children at Bethlehem. But in none of these three does Matthew say that Joseph, Mary, or Jesus were then in Bethlehem. So where were Joseph, Mary, and Jesus while these three things were transpiring? Luke can be reasonably construed as informing us that they were in Nazareth, Lk 2:39, from whence, we may likewise infer, they fled to Egypt.

Regarding the return from Egypt, Mt 2:19-23, Joseph seems to have considered living in Judea rather than returning to Nazareth. And such a consideration on his part was entirely reasonable. Joseph knew that Jesus was special to God; raising such a child near the temple would seem appropriate. But doing so also presented reason to fear. And after God warned him away, Joseph went to Nazareth, which, as we know from Luke, was his former home town.

Finally, Mt 2:19-23 does not say that Joseph was afraid to return to Betblehem. Rather, it says that he came to the land of Israel, and hearing that Archelaus ruled in Judea, he was afraid to live there, that is, anywhere in Judea. And being warned in a dream, he went into Galilee and settled in Nazareth.

Place of registration.

Luke (at  $\tilde{2}$ :1-5) does not say, nor does he imply, that the Romans compelled people to register in any specific city. The stated explanation of why Joseph and Mary registered for the census in Bethlehem ("because they were of the house and lineage of David," Lk 2:4b), is a case where the reason stated does not fully explain the action taken, and no further explanation is given. The "because" of Lk 2:4b might mean that Joseph and Mary simply preferred to register in Bethlehem on account of the stated reason. Or it might mean that there was social pressure from within the Jewish community at large to register in the city of one's patrimony. It might mean that the Jewish leaders insisted on this. It might have been the "in" thing for descendants of David to do, a family reunion of sorts. It might even have been a means of resistance to Rome: by registering where one did not live, one might make it a bit harder for the Romans to keep track of the population. In short, there are possible religious, nationalistic, and personal reasons that motivated Joseph and Mary to choose registration in Bethlehem rather than Nazareth. Whatever the truth may be, there is nothing in Luke's account to indicate that the Romans compelled Joseph and Mary to register in Bethlehem.

Furthermore, "his own city" in Lk. 2:3 seems capable of more than one meaning: (a) the city one currently resides in, (b) the city one considers his permanent residence, (c) the city one considers his legal residence, or (d) the city one considers his cultural or religious residence. The fact that Joseph and Mary, who resided in Nazareth (their own city, cf. v39), registered in Bethlehem (their own city) is evidence that the Romans permitted one to register in a city other than that in which one resided. It is not evidence that the Romans compelled people to do so.

Quirinius and the census.1

J.R.Dummelow's The One Volume Bible Commentary and Charles M. Laymon's The Interpreter's One Volume Commentary on the Bible say that Quirinius was civil governor of Syria during a census of A.D. 6 (in response to which there was a revolt, perhaps that mentioned by Luke in Acts 5:37). At this time Herod the Great was dead. But Luke (at 2:2) can be understood to refer to another, a first census when Quirinius was governor of Syria, which was ongoing when Jesus was born. And from Matthew we know, and from Lk 1:5ff we may be allowed to surmise, that Herod the Great was still alive when Iesus was born. We may safely conclude then that Lk 2:2 refers to a census prior to A.D. 6, a census when Quirinius was governor of Syria and Herod was still alive.

Now it should come as no surprise if we find Luke a reliable reporter of this matter seeing that the Roman officials in the trial court at Rome, for whom I believe Luke first wrote his gospel and Acts (to assist in Paul's defense there) would have known the truth of what Luke wrote regarding Quirinius and the census.

And indeed, according to Laymon's commentary, Quirinius, though not civil governor of Syria while Herod was alive, was, while Herod still lived, "viceroy" in Syria after 12 B.C. And from Dummelow's

birth and youth

Mt 1:1-3 — Mk 0 — Lk 0; 3:23-28 — Jn 1:1-5, 14

commentary one learns of the possibility that Quirinius was military governor of Syria for a period which encompassed part or all of the period 8 - 6 B.C. Dummelow also informs us that Caesar Augustus carried out a census of Roman citizens throughout the empire in 8 B.C., a census perhaps not completed during 8 B.C. in Palestine. This census, it seems to me, is suspiciously close to the time when Jesus was born. Perhaps this is the census of Lk 2. Caesar's 8 B.C. census would have applied to Joseph and Mary if they were Roman citizens or the census was extended to non-Romans in Palestine.<sup>2</sup>

Zacharias and Elisabeth.

- 5 There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.
- 6 And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.
- 7 And they had no child, because that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years.

Announcement to Zacharias: Elisabeth shall bear you a son; name him John.

- 8 And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's office
- before God in the order of his course,
- 9 According to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.

- 10 And the whole multitude of the people were praying without at the time of incense.
- 11 And there appeared unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense.

- 12 And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.
- 13 But the angel said unto him, Fear not, Zacharias:

for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

- 14 And thou shalt have joy and gladness;
- and many shall rejoice at his birth.
- 15 For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink;

and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb.

- 16 And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.
- 17 And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.

18 And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this?

for I am an old man, and my wife well stricken in years.

19 And the angel answering said unto him,

I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season.

21 And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long in the temple.

22 And when he came out, he could not speak unto them:

and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple:

for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless.

23 And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.

24 And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying,

25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

Announcement to Mary: you shall bear God a son; name him Jesus.

26 And in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, 27 To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.

28 And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.

29 And when she saw bim, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.

30 And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with God.

31 And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.

32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest:

and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

33 And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever;

and of his kingdom there shall be no end.

34 Then said Mary unto the angel,

How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?

35 And the angel answered and said unto her,

The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee:

therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.

36 And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren.

37 For with God nothing {I said} shall be impossible.

38 And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.<sup>3</sup>

In the months before the birth of Jesus: announcement to Joseph.

Mt 1:

18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise:

When as his mother Mary was espoused to Joseph.

before they came together, she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

19 Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, was minded to put her away privily.

20 But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying,

Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife:

for that which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.

21 And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call his name JESUS:

for he shall save his people from their sins.

22 Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying,

23 Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Emmanuel, which being interpreted is, God with us.

24 Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden him, and took unto him his wife:

25 And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

Roman citizens to be enrolled throughout the empire. 4

4 And Joseph also {or: But Joseph indeed [did otherwise—cf. v39—be]} 5 went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:) 5 To be taxed {or: enrolled} with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

On the day of the birth of Jesus.

6 And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And, lo, the  $\{an\}$  angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid.

10 And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold,

I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11 For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

12 And this shall be a sign unto you;

Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14 Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

15 And it came to pass, as the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

16 And they came with haste, and found Mary, and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.

17 And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.

18 And all they that heard it wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.

19 But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

- 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said,
- Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found bim, bring me word again, that I may come and worship him also.<sup>7</sup>

NOTES:

- 1. bottom of p3. The discussion of Quirinius and the census makes reference to commentaries by Dummelow and Laymon. A discussion of the evidence which underlies their comments is beyond the scope of this book. Readers interested in the underlying evidence may care to start their investigation with the Res Gestae of Caesar Augustus.
- 2. top of p5. Conceivably, Herod, ever watchful for potential rivals, extended the census to descendants of David (and if to the royal lineage, then perhaps to the priestly as well).

If Joseph and Mary were Roman citizens, Mary probably became, like Paul, a citizen by birth. Joseph, his father. Mary's father or their grandfathers might have obtained citizenship by completing service in the Roman auxiliary army (Rome, William G. Sinnigen, editor, The Free Press, New York, 1965, p15). And it is not incredible that some descendants of Israel's most revered warrior and king would think it honorable and profitable to join the Roman auxiliaries. All the more is this conceivable seeing we are informed by Josephus that some Israelites accepted Alexander's invitation to join his army (Ant. 11.8.5), and in the time of David some of his most respected soldiers were foreign (1Ch 11:39, 41, 46), and, returning to the time of the Caesars, it is well known that some in Israel held Rome in favor, Herod being a chief example. And considering that some in Israel willingly undertook the work of collecting taxes for Rome (Lk 3:13), can we really say that all of the soldiers without exception who responded to John (Lk 3:14) were either not Israelite or not Roman auxiliaries? Finally on military service, the exemption Jews enjoyed from compulsory service in Rome's auxiliary army was no bar to voluntary participation. Citizenship could also be purchased (Acts 22:28). Joseph and Mary appear too poor to have done this themselves, but the modesty of their means does not rule out the possibility of rich parents or grandparents. One might also become a citizen through a capture-enslavementmanumission sequence (New Testament Story, David L. Barr, Wadsworth Publishing Co., New York, 1995, p31).

As for Quirinius being governor of Syria at the time of this census, Luke applies a form of the word "governor" not only to Quirinius, but also, in Lk 3:1 p27, to both Pilate and Tiberius Caesar. (Luke uses a verbal form of the word in reference to Quirinius and Pilate, a noun form of the word in reference to Tiberius Caesar.) So it seems possible that the verbal form of "governor" applied to Quirinius may allow a variety of degrees of authority. If so, it is not necessary that Quirinius have been the regular legate to Syria in 8 B.C. for him to have been "governor of Syria" at that time.

51 And he went down with them, ar but his mother kept all these saying	d came to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: in her heart.
and {John} was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.	52 And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favour with God and man.

NOTES:

- 3. p11. Lk 1:38. Did Mary tell Joseph all these things at this time? If she did so and he believed her, did he expect to be the father of the child? Cf. Judges 13.
- 4. bottom of p15. Here I follow the conjecture suggested at the top of p5 that the Lk 2 census is the same as Caesar's 8 B.C. census of Roman citizens.
- 5. p17. Lk 2:4. Judging by v39, the action of v4 is an exception to the rule of v3.
- 6. p17. Lk 2:22. Leviticus 12 directs that after childbirth a woman was to observe a period of purification, after which she was to present a sacrifice (the sacrifice reported in Lk 2:24). The need for Joseph to observe a period of purification is found in Leviticus 15—contact with Mary's blood during delivery of Jesus, contact with her bed throughout the time of her impurity, etc.—but no sacrifice was required after this period (and no sacrifice for Joseph is reported in Lk).
- 7. p19. Mt 2:8. Herod probably had the Magi followed. And probably during the night while the followers slept the star appeared to the Magi, the first time in two years, and led them north to Jesus.
- 8. p21. Mt 2:13. Through his spy network Herod probably soon learned that the Magi visited Nazareth. But by the time search was made there, Joseph, Mary, and Jesus were gone.
- 9. p20. Mt 2:23. Compare the parallel construction in  $4:13^{p53}$  where Matthew reports an instance of Jesus taking up residence in Capernaum. In neither 2:23 nor 4:13 does Matthew report the first instance of residence. Jn 2:12 reports a move to Capernaum by Jesus that is prior to the instance reported in Mt 4:13. And Lk 2 reports residence by Joseph and Mary in Nazareth prior to that of Mt 2:23. But Matthew's usage in both 2:23 and 4:13 is appropriate since in neither case has he mentioned a prior residence in the respective destination cities.

23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness,

Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Esaias.

24 And they which were sent were of the Pharisees.

25 And they asked him, and said unto him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet?

26 John answered them, saying,

I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

27 He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I am not worthy to unloose.

28 These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.

29 The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.

30 This is he of whom I said,

After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me.

31 And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. 32 And John bare record, saying,

I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.

33 And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost.

34 And I saw, and bare record that this is the Son of God.

And they filled them up to the brim.  8 And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast. And they bare it.  9 When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,  10 And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.  11 This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.

18 Then answered the Jews and said unto him,

What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing that thou doest these things?

19 Jesus answered and said unto them.

Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

20 Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?

21 But he spake of the temple of his body.

22 When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.

23 Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did.

24 But Jesus did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men.

25 And needed not that any should testify of man:

for he knew what was in man.

- 1 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:
- 2 The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
- 3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee,

Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.

- 4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old?
- can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
- 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee,

Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh:

and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.

- 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.
- 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth:

- so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
- 9 Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be?
- 10 Jesus answered and said unto him,

Art thou a master of Israel, and knowest not these things?

- 11 Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak that we do know,
- and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness.
- 12 If I have told you<sup>pl</sup> earthly things, and ye believe not, how shall ye believe, if I tell you<sup>pl</sup> of heavenly things?

M M L Jn 3: 13 And no man hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. 14 And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: 15 That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. 16 For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. 17 For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world: but that the world through him might be saved. 18 He that believeth on him is not condemned: but he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. 19 And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. 20 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. 21 But he that doeth truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

M	M	L	Jn 4:
			2 (Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)
			3 He left Judaea, and departed again into Galilee.
			4 And he must needs go through Samaria.
			5 Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.
			6 Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with bis journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.
			7 There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water:
			Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink.
			8 (For his disciples were gone away unto the city to buy meat.)
			9 Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.
			10 Jesus answered and said unto her,
			If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink;
			thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would have given thee living water.
			11 The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep:
			from whence then hast thou that living water?
			12 Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and his children, and his cattle?
			13 Jesus answered and said unto her, Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again:
			14 But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.
			15 The woman saith unto him,
			Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.
			16 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.
			17 The woman answered and said, I have no husband.
			Jesus said unto her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:
			18 For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband:
		in that saidst thou truly.
			19 The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.
			20 Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
			21 Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.
			22 Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship:
			for salvation is of the Jews.
			23 But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth:
			for the Father seeketh such to worship him.
			24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth.
			25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ:
			when he is come, he will tell us all things.
			26 Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.
			27 And upon this came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman:
			yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?
			28 The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into the city, and saith to the men, 29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
			30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

31 In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.

33 Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat?

32 But he said unto them, I have meat to eat that we know not of.

to 5:1 p160

- 1. p31. Lk 3:16. Cf. Acts 13:25. John explained numerous times, both by preaching and in conversation, that someone mightier than he would soon come. Sometimes he said, as Matthew reports, I am not worthy to carry his shoes. Sometimes he said, as Mark, Luke, and John report, I am not worthy to unlatch his shoes.
- 2. p31. Lk 3:23. The KJV says, And Jesus himself began to be about thirty years of age,....

ministry before John imprisoned Mt $4:11^{\circ}$ — Mk $1:13^{\circ}$ — Lk $4:13^{\circ}$ — Jn 4:34-54

Notes:

3. p39 after Jn 2:11. The suggestion that Joseph died at this time is a conjecture motivated by the thought that his death influenced the timing of the move to Capernaum reported in Jn 2:12. If Joseph did die about this time, and saw his death coming, this adds the factor of urgency on his part when considering another conjecture: that Joseph, when he heard that Jesus turned water into wine at Cana, then felt it appropriate to divulge to some of the disciples details surrounding the birth of Jesus.

The ministry of this period in summary

The accounts of the ministry of Jesus from the time Herod put John in prison to the time he put John to death do not agree on the order of all reported events. The proposed historical order presented here was decided upon according to a rule explained in the Introduction. The proposed historical order postulates that we have reports of the healing of two lepers, and that the mother and brothers of Jesus attempted to see him twice on the same day.

Why a noted position is not preferred: a. "day after" in Lk 7:11; b. "same day" in Mk 4:35; c. apostles chosen later, in Mk 3:13; d. ordering rule only; e. "while he spake these things" in Mt 9:18. Reasons a, b, and c agree with the ordering rule; reason e is contrary to the ordering rule.

- 22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment:

and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother. and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly. whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

11:25<sup>347</sup> And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ve have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. 26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

ye have need of, before ye ask him.		John also taught his disciples.
9 After this manner therefore pray ye:		2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say,
Our Father which art in heaven,		Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.		Hallowed be thy name.
10 Thy kingdom come.		Thy kingdom come.
Thy will be done		Thy will be done,
in earth, as it is in heaven.		as in heaven, so in earth.
11 Give us this day		3 Give us day by day
our daily bread.		our daily bread.
12 And forgive us our debts,		4 And forgive us our sins;
as we forgive our debtors.		for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us.
13 And lead us not into temptation,		And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil:		but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and	the	glory, for ever. Amen.
11:5 <sup>261</sup> And he said unto them, Which of you	shall h	nave a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say	unto hir	n, Friend, lend me three loaves;
6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come		• •
7 And he from within shall answer and say,		•
and my children are with me in bed; I canno	t rise ar	nd give thee.

yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. 9 And I say unto you. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ve shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. 10 For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. 11 If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?

12 Or if he shall ask an eaa, will he offer him a scorpion?

13 If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children:

how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

14 For if ve forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you: 15 But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.

11:25<sup>347</sup> And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have ouaht against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. 26 But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

16 Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

17 But thou, when thou fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face;

18 That thou appear not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly.

Mt 8: M Lk 7: 9 For I am a man under authority. 8 For I also am a man set under authority, having soldiers under me: having under me soldiers, and I say to this man. Go. and he goeth: and I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant. Do this, and he doeth it. and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. 9 When lesus heard these things, 10 When Jesus heard it. he marvelled. he marvelled at him, and and turned him about, and said unto the people that followed him, said to them that followed. Verily I say unto you. I have not found I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. so great faith, no, not in Israel. 11 And I say unto you. That many shall come from the east and west. and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. 12 But the children of the kingdom shall be cast out into outer darkness: there {in that place} shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. cf. 13:42 p149 13 And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour. 10 And they that were sent, returning to p81 to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick.

To Nain.

M	M	Lk 7:	J
		11 And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people.  12 Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her.  13 And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not.  14 And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise.  15 And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak.  And he delivered him to his mother.  16 And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people.  17 And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about.

How can Satan cast out Satan? 24 And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: 26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? 27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils. by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges.

28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house. and spoil his goods, except he first bind the strong man?

he will spoil his house. 30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

and then

31 Wherefore I say unto you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men.

32 And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come.

28 Verily I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme:

29 But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:

good, and his fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by bis fruit. 34 O generation of vipers, how can ve, being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh.

33 Either make the tree

7: 15<sup>77</sup> Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. 16 Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men aather grapes of thorns. or fias of thistles?

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. 18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kinadom stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils.

by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges. 20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.

21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace.

his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him. and overcome him. he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth 12:10<sup>277</sup> And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blasphemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven.

6: 44<sup>115</sup> For every tree is known by his own fruit. For of thorns men do not gather fias. nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes.

Parable of growing seed.

M	Mk 4:	L	J
	26 And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground; 27 And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.		3	İ
	28 For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear. 29 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.

Parable of wheat and tares.

Mt 13:	M	L	J
24 Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field:
25 But while men slept, his enemy came and sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way.
26 But when the blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also.
27 So the servants of the householder came and said unto him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares?
28 He said unto them, An enemy hath done this.
The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather them up?
29 But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye root up also the wheat with them.
30 Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest
I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn.

Jesus takes another break; while on break he explains the parable of wheat and	tar	es.
Mt 13:	M	L	J
36 Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house:
and his disciples came unto him, saying,
Declare unto us the parable of the tares of the field.
37 He answered and said unto them,		1
He that soweth the good seed is the Son of man; 38 The field is the world;
the good seed are the children of the kingdom;
but the tares are the children of the wicked one ; 39 The enemy that sowed them is the devil;
the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are the angels.
40 As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the fire;
so shall it be in the end of this world.
41 The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all things that offend, and them which do iniquity; 42 And shall cast them into a furnace of fire:
there {in that place} shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.
43 Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father.
Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.

Parable of hidden treasure.

that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: 48 Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away.
49 So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, 50 And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth.

M	M	L	Jn 5:
			He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. 24 Verily, verily, I say unto you,
			He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.
			25 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. 26 For as the Father hath life in himself;
			so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself; 27 And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. 28 Marvel not at this:
			for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, 29 And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation {or: of judgment}.
			30 I can of mine own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me.
			four bear witness to Jesus: John, works, the Father, and scripture.
			31 If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true.
			32 There is another that beareth witness of me;
			and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true.
			33 Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth.
			34 But I receive not testimony from man:
			but these things I say, that ye might be saved.
			35 He was a burning and a shining light:
			and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.
			36 But I have greater witness than that of John:
			for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.
			37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me.
			Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.
			38 And ye have not his word abiding in you:
			for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.
			39 Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life:
			and they are they which testify of me.
			40 And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life.
			41 I receive not honour from men.
			42 But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.
			43 I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not:
			if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.
			44 How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only?
			45 Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father:
			there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.
			46 For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me.
			47 But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

24 The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his lord. 25 It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and the servant as his lord.

13:16<sup>413</sup> Verily, verily, I say unto you. The servant is not greater than his lord: neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.

- 30 But the very hairs of your head are all numbered.
- 31 Fear ve not therefore. ve are of more value than many sparrows.

8-38<sup>219</sup> Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation: of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the alory of his Father with the holy angels.

34 Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. 35 For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in law. 36 And a man's foes shall be they of his own household.

37 He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me. 38 And he that taketh not his cross. and followeth after me, is not worthy of me. 39 He that findeth his life shall lose it; and he that loseth his life for my sake shall find it. 40 He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. 41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

4 And I say unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. 5 But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell: vea. I say unto you. Fear him. 6 Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? 7 But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. #### NOTES:

- 1. p75. Mt 7:7. Cf. Lk 6:30 p113 along with the note to the English.
- 2. p77. Mt 7:14. "Because" translates  $\delta\tau$ i. The majority reading is  $\tau$ i. According to the majority text, the passage reads (the exclamation point is part of the translation): How strait the gate and narrow the way that leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it!
- 3. p81. Mk 1:21. The word "Sabbath" is a Hebrew loan word in both English and Greek. The word apparently arrived in Greek via transliterated Aramaic. Unfortunately, the Aramaic singular form of Sabbath transliterates into a Greek plural form. The result is that the several plural forms of this Greek word sometimes have a singular meaning. Other times these same plural forms have a plural meaning. For this reason, when translating the plural forms one must in every instance make a context-guided guess at which number, singular or plural, the writer intended. And in the present instance, the translators producing the KJV concluded that the same plural form of this word indicated a single Sabbath day in Mk 1:21 and two or more Sabbath days in Lk 4:31. But they may be wrong. Both passages may refer to a single Sabbath or to more than one. Cf. Abbott-Smith, Manual Greek Lexicon of the New Testament, T. & T. Clark, 1968, p399.
- 4. p83. above Mk 1:35ff and Lk 4:42ff. Peter, James, and John declining to accompany Jesus on this tour is but one plausible scenario. Another possibility is that these three disciples accompanied Jesus on part of this tour, then left to attend to their fishing business. Another is that they accompanied Jesus on the whole tour, and that after they all returned, these three gave their attention to fishing.
- 5. p89. Mk 2:8. As is often the case, there are credible alternatives to the order presented here. Consider "What reason ye..."(Lk), {pause} "Why reason ye these things..."(Mk), {pause} "Wherefore think ye evil..."(Mt) {no pause}. Less likely I think, but no less credible, is the view that the three evangelists present the gist of one statement by Jesus.
- 6. p89. Mt 9:6 and Lk 5:24. Regarding the historical likelihood of the composite sequence, "Arise, and after you arise, take up thy bed, and after you take up...," cf. Mk  $9:31^{p229}$  which says, "...and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed...."
- 7. p95. Mk 5:23. This verse can be translated as: And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter has (?just?) finally (died): I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be saved/preserved/rescued; and she shall live. This sense of the passage agrees with Mt 9:18 that Jairus was asking Jesus to bring his daughter back to life, not heal her lest she die. What Jairus said may not have accorded perfectly with the situation. Lk 8:42 can be understood as saying that the girl was dying but perhaps not yet dead. And Mk 5:35-36 and Lk 8:49-50 seem to indicate that when Jairus left his daughter to entreat Jesus, his daughter had not yet died. So perhaps when Jairus left his house his daughter was still alive. If so, Jairus in his anguish expressed his fears, not his most recent observations.

- 8. p113. Lk 6:30. It is well to compare this passage with another: Mt 7:7ff  $^{p75}$ . God does not commit himself in Mt 7:7ff to grant all requests made of him. Such a commitment would make God the slave of us all, something he is not. So also, in Lk 6:30, Jesus does not require us to grant every request that comes our way. But Lk 6:30 is not an empty directive. Jesus does expect us to sometimes give what is asked: when it is appropriate as he counts appropriate.
- 9. p117. Mt 8:5. Arrival in Capernaum is a predicate both to Mt 8:5-13 p117 and Mt 8:14-17 p81. According to the proposed historical order, there was a separate arrival immediately prior to each of these two events, and for this reason Mt 8:5a is shown in both places as being in historical order.
- $10.\,\,$  p123. Lk 7:35. "And wisdom is justified of all her children" may be part of the slur uttered against Jesus.
- 11. p139. Mk 4:12. It seems to me that Mark and Luke give the gist of what Jesus said here, while Matthew gives more of the actual words.
- 12. p151. above Mt 8:19. Such things as Mt 8:19-22  $^{p151}$  and Lk 9:57-62  $^{p251}$  report may have been somewhat frequent, and both Matthew and Luke may have for convenience grouped as many as they cared to report where one such event occurred.
- 13. p151. Mk 4:36. Perhaps this and the related passages inform us that some of the disciples made such minimal preparations for the voyage as short notice allowed; then Jesus and the remaining disciples boarded the ship.

M	M	L	Jn 6:
			25 And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?
			26 Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled.
			27 Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you:
			for him hath God the Father sealed.
			28 Then said they unto him, What shall we do, that we might work the works of God?
			29 Jesus answered and said unto them,
			This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.
			30 They said therefore unto him,
			What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work 31 Our fathers did eat manna in the desert;
			as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.
			32 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven;
			but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.
			33 For the bread of God is he which cometh down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world.

	M	M	L	Jn 6:
				35 And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst 36 But I said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. 37 All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh to me I will in no wise cast out. 38 For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. 39 And this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day. 40 And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.  41 The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven. 42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven? 43 Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. 44 No man can come to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. 45 It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me 46 Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father.  47 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.  48 I am that bread of life.  49 Your fathers did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead.  50 This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and not die.  51 I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.
				52 The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this man give us bis flesh to eat? 53 Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. 54 Whoso eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. 55 For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is drink indeed. 56 He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him. 57 As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. 58 This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.
				59 These things said he in the synagogue , as he taught in Capernaum .
				60 Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this , said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?

			2 Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.
			3 His brethren therefore said unto him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.
			4 For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh but your time is alway ready.

			7 The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that the works thereof are evil.
			8 Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come.
			9 When he had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee .
			10 But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.
			11 Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?
			12 And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him:
			for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.
			13 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews.

Ghost was not yet given ; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)

M	M	L	Jn 7:
			40 Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said,
			Of a truth this is the Prophet.
			41 Others said, This is the Christ.
			But some said, Shall Christ come out of Galilee?
			42 Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?
			43 So there was a division among the people because of him.
			44 And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.
			45 Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him?
			46 The officers answered, Never man spake like this man.
			47 Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived?
			48 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him?
			49 But this people who knoweth not the law are cursed.
			50 Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) 51 Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what he doeth?
			52 They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee?
			Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.
			52 And 53 And every man went unto his own house.

M	M.		Jn 8:
IVI	IVI	L	Jii o.
			1 Jesus went unto the mount of Olives.
			2 And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him; and he sat down, and taught them.
			2 And the combes and Dhanisees brought unto him a woman
			3 And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had set her in the midst, 4 They say unto him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.
			5 Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned:
			but what sayest thou?
			6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with bis finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not .
			7 So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them,
			He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
			8 And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.
			9 And they which heard it , being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last:
			and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
			10 When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee?
			11 She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.
			10.77
			12 Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world:
			he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

ĺ	M	L	Jn 8:
			thy record is not true.  14 Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself,  yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.  15 Ye judge <sup>at present</sup> after the flesh; I judge <sup>at present</sup> no man.  16 And yet if I judge <sup>at present</sup> , my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.  17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.  18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. 19 Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also.  20 These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple:
			and no man laid hands on him; for his hour was not yet come.  21 Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.  22 Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.  23 And he said unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.  24 I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins.  25 Then said they unto him, Who art thou?  And Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning.  26 I have many things to say and to judge of you: but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him.  27 They understood not that he spake to them of the Father.  28 Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.  29 And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.
			30 As he spake these words, many believed on him. 31 Then said Jesus to those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; 32 And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.  33 They {wbo did not believe?} answered him, We be Abraham's seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? 34 Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. 35 And the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. 36 If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed. 37 I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you. 38 I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.

1	M	L	Jn 8:  39 They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham 40 But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham.  41 Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.  42 Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.  43 Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.  44 Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.  45 And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.  46 Which of you convinceth me of sin? And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me?  47 He that is of God heareth God's words:
			ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.  48 Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil?  49 Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do dishonour me. 50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth. 51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.
			52 Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death. 53 Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself? 54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: 55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, and keep his saying. 56 Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad. 57 Then said the Jews unto him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? 58 Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, I am.
			59 Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself , and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

Sight. A man born blind.

N	M	L	Jn 9:
			1 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his birth. 2 And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

M	L	Jn 9:
		3 Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents:
		but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.
		4 I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day:
		the night cometh, when no man can work.
		5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
		6 When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay, 7 And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.)
		He went his way therefore, and washed, and came seeing.
		8 The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?
		9 Some said, This is he: others said , He is like him:
		but he said. I am be.
		10 Therefore said they unto him, How were thine eyes opened?
		11 He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.
		12 Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, I know not.
		12 Then said they dillo lilli, where is he. He said, I know hot.
		13 They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime was blind.
		14 And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
		15 Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight.
		He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see.
		16 Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.
		17 They say unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet.
		18 But the Jews did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.
		19 And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?
		20 His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
		21 But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself.
		22 These words spake his parents, because they feared the Jews: <sup>2</sup> for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.
		23 Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.
		24 Then again called they the man that was blind, and said unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.
		25 He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no , I know not:
		one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see.
		26 Then said they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?
		27 He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear:
		wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

M	M	L	Jn 9:
			28 Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are Moses' disciples. 29 We know that God spake unto Moses: as for this fellow, we know not from whence he is. 30 The man answered and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes. 31 Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. 32 Since the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind. 33 If this man were not of God, he could do nothing. 34 They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him out.
			35 Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God? 36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on him?
			37 And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee. 38 And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshipped him.
			39 And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which see might be made blind. 40 And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words,

41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin:

but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

and said unto him. Are we blind also?

M	M	L	Jn 10:  1 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.  2 But he that entereth in by the door is the sheepherd of the sheep.  3 To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.  4 And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.  5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.  6 This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which he spake unto them.  7 Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep.  8 All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.  9 I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.  10 The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
			11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. 12 But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.

and of the leaven of Herod.  7 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread. 8 Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread?  9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?  16 And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.  17 And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread?  9 Do ye not yet understand, neither remember the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up?
perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet <sup>4</sup> hardened?  18 Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?  19 When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve.  20 And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.  21 And he said unto them, 11 How is it that ye do not understand that I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees?  12 Then understood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees.

Jesus comes to Bethsaida.

M	Mk 8:	L	J
	22 And he cometh to Bethsaida ; and they bring a blind man unto him, and besought him to touch him.
	23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.
	24 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking.
	25 After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him

31 Who appeared in glo	ory, and spake of his decease	1

31 Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

32 But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.

, as they departed from him, 5 And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here:
and let us make three tabernacles;
one for thee,
and one for Moses,
and one for Elias.
6 For he wist not what to say;
for they were sore afraid.

Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said.

10 Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven.

11 For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost.

12 How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray?

13 And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, than of the ninety and nine which went not astray.

14 Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish.

 $15.3^{297}$  And he spake this parable unto them, saying,

4 What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?

5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.

6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost. 7 I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance.

15: 25<sup>299</sup> Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing. 26 And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. 27 And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. 28 And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father out, and intreated him. 29 And he answering said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: 30 But as soon as this thy son was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. 31 And he said unto him, Son, thou art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. 32 It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again: and was lost, and is found.

			22 And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
			23 And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.
			24 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him,
			How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly.
			25 Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not:
			the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.
			26 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto you.
			27 My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
			28 And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
			29 My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all;
			and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
			30 I and my Father are one.
			31 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
			32 Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?
			33 The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.
			34 Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law,
			I said, Ye are gods?
			35 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;
			36 Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?
			37 If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
			38 But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works:

			1 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany , the town of Mary and her sister Martha.  2 (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.) cf. 12:3 p337  3 Therefore his sisters sent unto him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.
			4 When Jesus heard that , he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.
			5 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.
			6 When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.
			7 Then after that saith he to bis disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.
			8 His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?
			9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
			10 But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him. 11 These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth;
			but I go, that I may awake him out of sleep.
			12 Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleep, he shall do well.
			13 Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep.
			14 Then said Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead.
			15 And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless let us go unto him.
			16 Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellow disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
			17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already. 18 Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem , about fifteen furlongs off : 19 And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.
			20 Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him:
			but Mary sat still in the house. 21 Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
			22 But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.
			23 Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again.
			24 Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day.

M	M	L	Jn 11:
			25 Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life:
			he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
			26 And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
			Believest thou this?
			27 She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world.
			28 And when she had so said, she went her way, and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.
			29 As soon as she heard that , she arose quickly, and came unto him.
			30 Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.
			31 The Jews then which were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying,
			She goeth unto the grave to weep there.
			32 Then when Mary was come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.
			33 When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her,
			he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, 34 And said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see.
			35 Jesus wept.
			36 Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!
			37 And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?
			38 Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to the grave.
			It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.
			39 Jesus said, Take ye away the stone.
			Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him,
			Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days.
			40 Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? 41 Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me.
			42 And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people which stand by I said it , that they may believe that thou hast sent me.
			43 And when he thus had spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.
			44 And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes:
			and his face was bound about with a napkin.
			Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go.
			, , , 8
			45 Then many of the Jews which came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.
			46 But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.
			47 Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said,
			What do we? for this man doeth many miracles.
			48 If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him:
			and the Romans shall come and take away both our place and nation.
			49 And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all,

M	M	L	Jn 11:
			50 Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not. 51 And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation; 52 And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of God that were scattered abroad. 53 Then from that day forth they took counsel together for to put him to death.  54 Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.  55 And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves. 56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast? 57 Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.  10 12:1 p337

NOTES:

- 1. p183. Jn 6:17. Cf. Mk 6:45. Jesus seems to have instructed his disciples as follows: Sail to Bethsaida and wait for me there until sunset; if I have not come by then, sail to Capernaum without me. The discussion of the meaning of "dark" in the note p498 to Jn 20:1 p481 is applicable here also.
- 2. p201. Jn 9:22. This is one of many instances where "the Jews" does not refer to all or even most of the Jewish people, but to those who, for want of better terminology, belonged to the ruling class.
- 3. p211. Mk7:31. A minority reading—both the majority and minority readings may be from the pen of Mark—says that Jesus went from the region of Tyre north to Sidon before going to the region of Decapolis that touches on the southeast shores of the Sea of Galilee. A circuitous route, perhaps avoiding Galilee entirely, is consistent with the purpose stated in v24.

NOTES:

- 4. p215. Mk 8:17. A hard heart is a heart resistant to change. A hard heart can be both a blessing and a curse. It is a blessing when a heart resists change God does not favor. It is a curse when it resists change that God wants. The disciples of Jesus came to him with a good deal of respect for Jewish teaching, and respect not merely for Moses and the prophets, but also respect for the teachings of the Pharisees and Sadducees. Unfortunately, enough of what the Pharisees and Sadducees taught was contrary to God's will that Jesus found it necessary to oppose them, and to convince his disciples to be wary of them as guides to God's will.
- 5. p217. Mt 16:18. Cf. Eph 2:20 p237.
- 6. p217. Mt 16:19. Cf. Mt 18:18 and Jn  $20:23^{p237}$ .

final tour Mt 18:35^ — Mk 9:50^ — Lk 9:51-62 — Jn 11:57^ Itinerary

It appears from Jn 11:54ff p245 that Jesus began the final tour a few weeks before Passover from a town about ten miles north of Jerusalem called Ephraim. From Ephraim he went through parts of Judea and Samaria, then, see Lk 17:11 p305, north to Galilee. After this followed Perea, then Jerico, then Jerusalem. Jesus did not make a simple circuit of these regions, as may be concluded from the order of mention of the few places identified by name or identifiable by inference: Samaria, Lk 9:52 p251, then Bethany, Lk 10:38 p261 (cf. Jn 11:1 p241), then Galilee, Lk 13:31 p291 (cf. Lk 23:6-7 p455), then Samaria and Galilee, Lk 17:11 p305. An unpredictable itinerary suited his situation: the Jewish leaders wanted to arrest him, Jn 11:57 p245.

Jesus, sending messengers before him to prepare people for his coming, begins the tour.

M	Lk 9: from p233	J
	51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up.
	and consume them, even as Elias did?
	55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said,
	And they went to another village.
	II M	51 And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem, 52 And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him. 53 And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. 54 And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elias did? 55 But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. 56 For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them.

Iesus sends out thirty five additional advance parties to prepare the way before him. Lk 10: M 10:5165 These twelve Jesus sent forth, and 1 After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, them two and two before his face and into any city of the Samaritans enter ve not: 6 But ao rather to into every city and place. the lost sheep of the house of Israel. whither he himself would come. 9:37<sup>103</sup> Then sgith he 2 Therefore said he 4:35<sup>47</sup> Say not ye, There are yet four months, unto his disciples. unto them. and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up The harvest truly is plenteous, The harvest truly is great. your eyes, and look on the fields; for but the labourers are few: but the labourers are few; they are white already to harvest. pray ve therefore 38 Pray ve therefore 36 And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth the Lord of the harvest, fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth that he would send forth and he that reapeth may rejoice together. labourers labourers 37 And herein is that saying true, into his harvest. into his harvest. One soweth, and another reapeth. 38 I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men laboured, and 3 Go your ways: ye are entered into their labours. 10:16<sup>167</sup> Behold, I send you forth behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves. as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. 10:7<sup>165</sup> And as ve go, preach, saving. Martha, thou art careful and troubled about many things: very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, 42 But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen and wiped his feet with her hair: and that good part, which shall not be taken away from her. I the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

Various teachings.

M Lk 11:

 $6.5^{67}$  And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward.

6 But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly.

7 But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking.

8 Be not ve therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ve ask him. 9 After this manner therefore pray ye:

Our Father which art in heaven

Hallowed be thy name.

10 Thy kinadom come.

Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven.

11 Give us this day

our daily bread.

12 And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

13 And lead us not into temptation. but deliver us from evil:

For thine is the kinadom, and the power, and the alory. for ever. Amen.

1 And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased. one of his {new?} disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said unto them, When ye pray, say,

Our Father which art in heaven,

Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come.

Thy will be done.

as in heaven, so in earth.

3 Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation:

but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves;

6 For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

- 7 And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.
- 8 I say unto you. Though { or: If indeed} he will not rise and give him, because he is his

50 And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.

51 Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep my saying, he shall never see death.

52 Then said the Jews unto him. Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never taste of death.

10:19<sup>205</sup> There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.

20 And many of them said, He hath a devil, and is mad; why hear ye him?

21 Others said. These are not the words of him that hath a devil.

Can a devil open the eves of the blind?

12-25129 And Jesus knew their thoughts.

and said unto them

3:23<sup>129</sup> And he called them unto him. and said unto them in parables.

How can Satan cast out Satan?

24 And if a kinadom be divided against itself. that kingdom cannot stand.

25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand

26 And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: 26 And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand?

27 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils. by whom do your children cast them out?

therefore they shall be your judges. 28 But if I cast out devils by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

29 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house.

and spoil his goods. except he first bind the strong man?

> 27 No man can enter into a strong man's house. and spoil his goods, except he will first bind the strong man:

and then and then he will spoil his house. he will spoil his house.

30 He that is not with me is against me; and he that gathereth not with me scattereth abroad.

All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven

31 Wherefore I say unto you, 12:43<sup>135</sup> When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places. seeking rest, and findeth none. 44 Then he saith. I will return into my house from whence I came out:

16 And others, tempting bim, sought of him a sign from heaven. cf. v29 below; also Mk 8:11, p213. 17 But he, knowing their thoughts.

said unto them.

Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.

18 If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ve say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub.

19 And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

20 But if I with the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon vou. 21 When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:

22 But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him. he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils.

23 He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.

24 When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith. I will return unto my house whence I came out.

On the lawyers.

The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' sent-3 All therefore whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do: but do not ve after their works: 46 And he said, Woe unto you also, ye for they say, and do not. lawyers! for ve lade men with burdens 4 For they bind heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch them with one of their fingers. not the burdens with one of your fingers. 5 But all their works they do for to be seen of men: ... 23:29<sup>367</sup> Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! 47 Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, and your fathers killed them. 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our 48 Truly ve bear witness that ve allow the deeds of your fathers: fathers, we would not have been partakers with them for they indeed killed them. in the blood of the prophets. 31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, and ve build their sepulchres. that ve are the children of them which killed the prophets. 32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers. 33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ve escape the damnation of hell? 34 Wherefore, behold, Therefore also said the wisdom of God. I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: I will send them prophets and and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; apostles, and some of them they shall slay and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, and persecute them from city to city: and persecute: 35 That upon you may come 50 That the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation all the righteous blood shed upon the earth. of the world, may be required of this generation; from the blood of righteous Abel unto the 51 From the blood of Abel unto the blood of Zacharias, which perished between blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom ve slew between the temple and the altar. the altar and the temple: 36 Verily I say unto you, verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation. 13 And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

14 And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge or a divider over you?

15 And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness:

for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.

16 And he spake a parable unto them, saying,

The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:

17 And he thought within himself, saving, What shall I do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits?

18 And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods.

19 And I will say to my soul. Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years: take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

6:25<sup>71</sup> Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat. and the body than raiment? 26 Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor aather into barns: yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? 27 Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

28 And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

29 And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

30 Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you. O ve of little faith?

1 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?

3 I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ve that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Ierusalem?

2 The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, on generosity.

3 And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come.

4 Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage.

5 But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise:

6 And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them.

7 But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city.
8 Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy.
9 Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage.
10 So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests.

on accepting God's invitation to his kingdom.

15 And when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.

16 Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great supper, and bade many:

17 And sent his servant at supper time to say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.

18 And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said unto him.

I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.

19 And another said,

I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.

20 And another said, I have married a wife, and therefore I cannot come.

21 So that servant came, and shewed his lord these things.

Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.

22 And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

23 And the lord said unto the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.

		and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods.
		2 And he called him, and said unto him, How is it that I hear this of thee?
		give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward.
		3 Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed.
		4 I am resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
		5 So he called every one of his lord's debtors unto him , and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord?
		6 And he said, An hundred measures of oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.
		7 Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore.
		8 And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely:
		for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

17 And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? 18 There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger. 19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made thee whole.

whatever else it may be, the kingdom of God is states of minds, attitudes of hearts. 20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:

And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed.

15 And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back,

16 And fell down on bis face at his feet, giving him thanks:

M M Lk 18: the need for endurance in prayer. 1 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint: 2 Saying, There was in a city a judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: 3 And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. 4 And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; 5 Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me. 6 And the Lord said. Hear what the unjust judge saith. 7 And shall not God avenge his own elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? 8 I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? the need for humility in prayer. 9 And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 Two men went up into the temple to pray: the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. 12 I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess. 13 And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as bis eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.

The kingdom of heaven is like...

Mt 20:	M	L	J
1 For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard.
2 And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard.
3 And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the marketplace, 4 And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way.
5 Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise.
6 And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle?
7 They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive.
8 So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first.
9 And when they came that were bired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny.
10 But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more;
and they likewise received every man a penny.
11 And when they had received it , they murmured against the goodman of the house, 12 Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day.
13 But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong:
didst not thou agree with me for a penny?
14 Take that thine is , and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee.
15 Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own?
Is thine eye evil, because I am good?
16 So the last shall be first, and the first last: cf. 19:30 &c p319; Lk 13:30 p289.
for many be called, but few chosen.

25:14<sup>383</sup> For the kinadom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants. and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two. he also gained other two.

18 But he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money.

19 After a long time

the lord of those servants cometh and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saving. Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold. I have gained beside them five talents more. 21 His lord said unto him. Well done. thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things:

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore. A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants. and delivered them ten pounds. and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saving, We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. 16 Then came the first.

NOTES:

- 1. p251. above Lk 9:57. Lk 9:57-62 reports three events. At least one of these probably happened at this time, and one at least at the time of Mt 8:18ff<sup>p151</sup>. Similar events probably happened from time to time throughout the ministry of Jesus.
- 2. p305. Lk 17:3. Rebuke need not be harsh or express anger; it can be gentle. The goal is repentance as defined in the note below. Kind words of rebuke may produce better results than harsh words. An explanation may produce better results than castigation.
- 3. p305. Lk 17:3. Repentance is a change of mind about the way things ought to be, about how one ought to behave, and the like. Repentance may be accompanied by sorrow, but sorrow is not repentance, and repentance need not be accompanied by sorrow.

NOTES:

- 4. p319. Mk 10:27. "All" does not necessarily mean all without exception. Many passages illustrate this. Here are three selected from Mark's gospel:  $4:11^{p139}$ ,  $4:34^{p147}$ ,  $13:23^{p377}$ .
- 5. p 327. Mt 20:30. Matthew probably reports together the separate but quite similar healings of Mk 10:46ff and Lk 18:35ff. These healings are presented above as separate incidents because the one reported in Lk occurred as Jesus "was coming nigh unto Jericho," while the one reported in Mk occurred as Jesus "went out of Jericho." Similarities in the incidents can be ascribed to similarities in situation and the supposition that details of the first healing soon reached Bartimaeus, and that he was a quick study. (A similar suggestion is made in the heading to Mk 1:40-41<sup>p85</sup>.) Alternatively, many commentators state that Jericho had an old city and a new city, and suggest that "departed from Jericho" in Mt describes Jesus going between these, thus going out and coming nigh at the same time.

31 Whether of them twain did the will of bis father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the harlots go into the kingdom of God before you.

32 For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him.

33 Hear another parable:

Mt 21:

There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard. and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower. and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country:

34 And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen. that they might receive the fruits of it.

35 And the husbandmen took his servants. and beat one. and killed another, and stoned another.

36 Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and beating some, they did unto them likewise. 37 But last of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my son.

38 But when the husbandmen 7 But those husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, and let us seize on his inheritance.

39 And they caught him, and cast bim out of the vineyard, and slew bim.

A certain man planted a vinevard. and set an hedge about it. and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower. and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.

him, and sent him away empty. and sent him away empty. 4 And again he sent unto them 11 And again he sent another another servant; and at him they servant: and they beat him also, cast stones, and wounded him in and entreated him shamefully. the head, and sent bim away shamefully handled. 5 And again he sent another: and him they killed, and many others; and killing some.

6 Having yet therefore one son, 13 Then said the lord of the his wellbeloved, he sent him also last unto them, saying, will send my beloved son: it said among themselves. This is the heir: come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours.

8 And they took him.

and killed him, and cast bim out of the vineyard.

40 When the lord therefore of the vineyard cometh.

7:29121 And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God. being baptized with the baptism of John. 30 But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized of him.

A certain man planted a vineyard.

and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.

10 And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him vinevard:

the altar that sanctifieth the gift?

Mt 23:

- 16 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor!
- 17 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold?
- 18 And, Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. 19 Ye fools and blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or
- 20 Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, and by all things thereon.
- 21 And whoso shall swear by the temple, sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein.
- 22 And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by him that sitteth thereon.
- 23 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ve pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law. judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ve to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
- 24 Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a camel.
- 25 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, 7:8<sup>207</sup> For laying gside hypocrites! for ve make clean the outside of the commandment of the cup and of the platter, but within they are full of extortion and excess.
- 26 Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter. that the outside of them may be clean also. like things ye do.
- 27 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ve are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, and of all uncleanness.
- 28 Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. 29 Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites!
- because ve build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous,
- 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
- 31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ve are the children of them which killed the prophets.
- 32 Fill ye up then the measure of your fathers.
- 33 Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ve escape the damnation of hell?
- 34 Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets. and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ve scourge in vour synagogues, and persecute them from city to city:

6:39<sup>113</sup> And he spake a parable unto them. Can the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

Mt 14:14<sup>207</sup> Let them glone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

- 11:42271 But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ve tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other undone.
- 11:39271 And the Lord said unto him. Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter: but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.
- 40 Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without make that which is within also?
- 41 But rather give alms of such things as ve have: and, behold, all things are clean unto you.
- 11:44<sup>271</sup> Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ve are as arayes which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them
- 11:47<sup>273</sup> Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. 48 Truly ye bear witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres.
- 11:49<sup>273</sup> Therefore also said the wisdom of God. I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute:

		7 And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall { or: are about to } come to pass? 8 And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. 9 But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by.
		10 Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: 11 And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven.
		12 But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you , delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.
		13 And it shall turn to you for a testimony. 14 Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: 15 For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.  16 And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death.  17 And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake.
		18 But there shall not an hair of your head perish. 19 In your patience possess ye your souls. 20 And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. 21 Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in the countries enter thereinto.  22 For these be the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.  23 But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days!
		for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.  24 And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
		25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; 26 Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming	5 on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. 27 And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
		28 And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. 29 And he spake to them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees;
		30 When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer is now nigh at hand. 31 So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand. 32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled. 33 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. 34 And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.

Mt 25:	M	L	J
the parable of the ten virgins.
1 Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.
2 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish.
3 They that were foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them:
4 But the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps.
5 While the bridegroom tarried, they all slumbered and slept.
6 And at midnight there was a cry made,
Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.

Mt 25:

7 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps.
8 And the foolish said unto the wise,
Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out.
9 But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be not enough for us and you:
but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves.
10 And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came;
and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut.
11 Afterward came also the other virgins, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us.
12 But he answered and said, Verily I say unto you, I know you not.
13 Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour the parable of the talents.

wherein the Son of man cometh.

14 For the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.

15 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey.

16 Then he that had received the five talents went and traded with the same, and made them other five talents.

17 And likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two.

19 After a long time the lord of those servants cometh, and reckoneth with them.

20 And so he that had received five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more.

21 His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

22 He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained two other talents beside them.

23 His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of thy lord.

19:11 <sup>329</sup> And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

12 He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.

13 And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come.

14 But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying,
We will not have this man to reign over us.

15 And it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.

16 Then came the first.

16 Then came the first,

saying,

Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.

17 And he said unto him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

18 And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.

19 And he said likewise to him

Be thou also over five cities.

24 Then he which had received the one talent came

Mt 25:

Lord. I knew thee that thou art an hard man. reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: 25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo. there thou hast that is thine.

26 His lord answered and said unto him. Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap where I sowed not. and gather where I have not strawed:

27 Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.

Take therefore the talent from him. and give it unto him which hath ten talents.

29 For unto every one that hath shall be given. and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath. 30 And cast ve the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

20 And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: 21 For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow.

22 And he saith unto him. Out of thine own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down. and reaping that I did not sow:

23 Wherefore then gayest not thou my money into the bank, that at my comina

I might have required mine own with usury?

24 And he said unto them that stood by. Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.

25 (And they said unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) 26 For I say unto you,

That unto every one which hath shall be given:

and from him that hath not. even that he hath shall be taken away from him. 27 But those mine enemies which would not that I should reign over them,

32 And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth bis sheep from the goats:

33 And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left.

34 Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand. Come, ye blessed of my Father. inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world:

35 For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ve took me in:

36 Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me:

I was in prison, and ye came unto me.

37 Then shall the righteous answer him, saying,

Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?

38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee?

39 Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee?

40 And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me.

41 Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ve cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels:

what she could: she is come this woman since the time I came in 45 Thou gavest me no kiss: but hath not ceased to kiss my feet.

anoint: but this woman for she loved much:

the same loveth little.

Thy sins are forgiven.

46 My head with oil thou didst not hath anointed my feet with ointment.

47 Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven;

49 And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves,

Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, but to whom little is forgiven,

48 And he said unto her.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there:

and they came not for that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised

10 But the chief priests

Lazarus also to death;

consulted that they might put 11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

Jesus' sake only, but from the dead.

NOTES:

1. p334. Mt 21:1-11 in the Summary. The "thereon" of v7 can either mean that the disciples set Jesus upon the clothes or upon the two animals. Regardless of which Matthew meant, he knew that the relevant Hebrew scripture passage, Zechariah 9:9, which he translates in v5, he does not quote the Septuagint, does not require two animals to be ridden. The passage can be and would normally be understood, in both Hebrew and Greek, as the second-mentioned animal being a more particular description of (the same animal as) the first. Matthew reports to his readers that there were two animals because he saw two animals because there were two animals. How a man might be said to ride both these animals at the same time is simple enough. Colts tend to keep very close to their mother's side at times, and would naturally attempt to do so in the commotion described. Considering the wording of the prophecy and all the reports, it appears that the colt was the animal Jesus primarily rode, and if so, he would only need to lean on the mare, and only occasionally, to satisfy all reports. But if it was the mare Jesus primarily rode, then whether Jesus rode astraddle the mare, or side-saddle, he would only need to place one foot on her colt, and only occasionally, to satisfy the description Matthew gives, and that of the other evangelists also.

- 2. p335. Jn 12:20-22 in Summary. "Greeks" does not necessarily mean people from the region that is now Greece. Cf. Mk  $7:26^{p209}$ , Rom 1:16; 10:12, et al.
- 3. p345. Mk 11:14 and Mt 12:19. Arranging the curses in sequence is also plausible.

4. p359. Lk 20:34. An alternative sequence, one which does not rely on textual emendation:

Mt 22:	Mk 12:	Lk 20:	J
29 Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. 30 For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.	24 And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?  25 For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels which are in heaven.	34 And Jesus answering said unto them,
35 But they which sha and {or: even} the re- neither marry, nor are 36 Neither can they di	orld marry, and are given in marriage all be accounted worthy to obtain that surrection from the dead, given in marriage: e any more: for they are equal unto the f God, being the children of the resurr	world, he angels;

5. p363. Mk 12:35 and Lk 20:41. "Answered" does not necessarily mean that Jesus was responding to something reported in the text; cf. Mt  $22:1^{p355}$ . The antecedent to "them" of Lk 20:41 is most probably "the people" of v1, 6, 9, and 19 (and mentioned again in v45). Less likely are the scribes of v39, Sadducees of v27, the spies or their senders of v20, or the chief priests of v19.

passion

The passion of Jesus in summary

What follows is one possible sequence of events that is consistent with, and could give rise to, all four canonical gospel accounts.

DURING NISAN 14, THE 1ST DAY OF UNLEAVENED BREAD
Disciples make ready for Passover meal.	26:17-19	14:12-16	22:7-13
SUNSET - STARTS NISAN 15 & 2ND DAY OF UNLEAVENED BREAD & DAY OF PREPARATION (1)
Jesus comes with apostles to eat the meal.	26:20	14:17	22:14
Jesus makes some opening remarks, and passes a cup of wine			22:14-18
During meal, Jesus washes the disciples feet.				13:1-20
Jesus says someone will betray him.	26:21-25	14:18-21		13:21-22
At meal end, Jesus blesses and passes bread and wine.	26:26-29	14:22-25	22:19-20
Jesus again: someone will betray him.			22:21-23	13:21-30
Judas leaves.				13:30
Greatness, Jesus.				13:31-32
Greatness, Disciples.			22:24-30
Jesus leaving; new commandment; Peter would follow, protests loyalty.				13:33-38
Jesus forewarns Peter.			22:31-33
Jesus: Peter will deny him.			22:34	13:38
Purse, bag, sword.			22:35-38
Discourse and prayer of Jesus.				14:117:
				26
They sing hymn, start for Mt. of Olives.	26:30	14:26	22:39	18:1
Desertion forewarning; meet in Galilee; forewarns Peter again.	26:31-35	14:27-31

<sup>(1)</sup> All three synoptic gospels identify the day the last supper was prepared as the first day of Unleavened Bread (Mt 26:17, Mk 14:12, Lk 22:7)<sup>p409</sup> and John is silent on this point. All four evangelists report that Jesus was crucified on the day of preparation (Mt 27:62<sup>p473</sup> *, Mk 15:42<sup>p471</sup>, Lk 23:54<sup>p473</sup>, and Jn 19:14<sup>p461</sup>,31<sup>p471</sup>,42<sup>p473</sup>). Note that the day of preparation was the second day of Unleavened Bread according to the synoptics, and John is silent on this point, too. We also know from Mk 14:12 and Lk 22:7 that the first day of Unleavened Bread was the normal day of preparation.** So, then, we are told that Jesus and his disciples ate a Passover meal on the 15th which was prepared on the 14th of the month, the days specified in the Law, and that this same year essentially all others prepared the Passover meal on the 15th and ate it on the 16th. Why the day of preparation and Passover were moved to the second and third day of Unleavened Bread in this particular year is a curiosity not explained in the gospels, so far as I can see, unless there is a clue in Mk 15:42 and Jn 19:31.

Judas arrives leading arresting party.	26:46-50	14:42-45	22:47-48
Jesus seized the first time.	26:50	14:46
Jesus asks crowd who they have come for; they say Jesus.				18:4-5
Jesus: I am he. All in crowd fall back (Jesus now released, and crowd now afraid).				18:5-6
Jesus again asks who they have come fortells them: let disciples go.				18:7-9
Peter uses sword. Jesus says don't use; heals; explains. (2)	26:51-54	14:47	22:49-51	18:10-11
Jesus in that same hour castigates crowd for their cowardice, etc.	26:55-56	14:48-49	22:52-53
Disciples flee (Jesus won't fight, and provokes crowd!).	26:56	14:50

<sup>(2)</sup> If we only had Mark's account of the arrest of Jesus, we might wonder why Peter was not killed—no, not even arrested!—after he drew the sword. Indeed, some might wonder that Peter drew the sword at all in the face of so many well-armed opponents: Peter was bold, but Peter was no fool; he did, after all, flee when he thought the cause was lost. If we only had Matthew's account, we might also wonder why Matthew seems to suggest that there was something of a delay between the time Jesus restrained Peter and the time Iesus was taken: Iesus seems to speak at will, and at some length. If we add the fruit of Luke's research to the testimony of Matthew and Mark, we might also wonder, in addition to all the foregoing, how it was that after Jesus was seized he was free enough to touch and heal the man Peter wounded. In contemplating these wonders, it is possible we might guess that after the crowd's initial boldness in seizing Jesus, something happened which both intimidated the crowd and set Jesus loose. Now the only action reported by Matthew, Mark, and Luke that might set Jesus loose is Peter's drawing the sword and attacking. And, indeed, it is not beyond reason that those who held Jesus would release him as they moved to defend themselves in the torch-lit gloom of night against an as-yet undetermined number of foes. But by our accounts, there were few with Jesus and many in the arresting party. And Iesus quickly restrained Peter. And in three accounts, no one but Peter took hostile action against the crowd. If it were not for John's testimony, we would be left to suppose that the combination of one man's brief ferocity in the company of a few others taking no hostile action coupled with the gloom of night was sufficient to intimidate for more than just a moment an armed crowd that included armed soldiers. Not impossible, but a bit of a reach. But because of John, we know that it was Jesus the wonder-worker the crowd feared, someone they realized had just put them all on their backside by a power they could not see! They did not touch Peter because they were afraid of Jesus. And Jesus was not seized the second time until after he had explained in the hearing of all that it must be so to fulfill scripture and until he had shamed some courage back into the crowd.

<sup>**</sup> Cf. Ex 12, Lev 23, Num 28, and Deut 16. The lamb is to be killed in the last hours of the 14th and eaten in the first hours of the 15th. From sundown ending the 14th to sundown ending the 21st are seven whole days in which no leavened bread may be eaten. Unleavened Bread thus involves eight days, on the first of which, the normal day of preparation, eating leavened bread is allowed.

<sup>(3)</sup> John (18:17<sup>p441</sup>) mentions the maid's accusation and Peter's denial before explaining (in v18) where Peter was at the time she did so. The oun of v17 (translated "then" by some, "therefore" by others, and not at all by yet others) suggests that John's requesting Peter's admission (v16) was the reason this maid noticed Peter: John was known in the house, known as a friend, and certainly after years of following Jesus, as one of his disciples (and was safe due both to his friendship and his youth); the maid would naturally suspect John's friend was also a follower of Jesus.

While waiting for an answer, Pilate's wife warns him about Jesus	27:19
and Jewish leaders persuade crowd to ask release of Barabbas. <sup>(6)</sup>	27:20	15:11
Pilate questions crowd again; they want Barabbas released and Jesus crucified. Pilate says he will chastise and release Jesus.	27:21-23	15:12-14	23:13-23

- Judas returns 30 pieces of silver, buys a field (Gr. chorion) with ill-gotten gains stolen from the common purse (cf. John 12:6), hangs himself, falls headlong, bursts open, guts pour out; this field becomes known in Aramaic as akeldamach which is translated into Greek (or known in Greek) as chorion haimatos ("field [or place] of blood.")
- Meanwhile, priests buy potter†s field (Gr. agros) with the 30 pieces of silver; this field becomes known (in Greek) as agros haimatos ("field of blood.")

Now it is quite likely that someone will fall headlong after hanging himself, either because the rope breaks, becomes untied, or is cut. Somewhat surprising is that upon falling headlong Judas burst open and his guts poured out. But while this is unusual, it is not hard to imagine how it might have happened. One possibility is that the place Judas bought included a rocky hill side, that Judas hanged himself on a tree on that hillside, and that when his body fell headlong, it fell down the hill a considerable distance into a rock outcrop, producing the reported results.

There are a few manuscripts which in Matthew 27:16 give the name of the person named Barabbas, that name being Jesus. Furthermore, the word Barabbas means "son of the father," and may have been generally considered to mean "son of [God] the Father." Now supposing that the person called Barabbas was indeed named Jesus, perhaps this crowd was composed of people who had more affection for Jesus of Nazareth than Jesus Barabbas, but were duped by the Jewish leaders into petitioning for the release of Barabbas under the false supposition that they were seeking the release of Jesus of Nazareth, and into calling for the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth supposing they were seeking the execution of Jesus Barabbas.

 $<sup>^{(5)}</sup>$  In addition to the Matthew 27:5-10  $^{p451}$  report of the demise of Judas, we have the report in Acts 1:18-19  $^{p451}$ . The following is a sequence of events (two-field hypothesis) which is consistent with and could give rise to the two reports:

&lt;sup>(6)</sup> Probably, I suppose, the enemies of Jesus persuaded this crowd to ask for the release of Barabbas on the grounds of his patriotism, and to ask for the death of Jesus on the allegation of blasphemy. Less probable, I think, but still possible, is the following.

<sup>(7)</sup> It is entirely possible that Pilate had Jesus flogged twice: the first time as an attempt to satisfy the crowd's blood thirst, and the second time as part of normal procedure before crucifixion. It is equally possible that Jesus was twice tormented by the soldiers, and in the same manner: the first time by a relative few, the second time by the whole garrison. Matthew and Mark have dealt with these events in an abbreviated way, and somewhat topically, by telescoping Pilate's approaches to the crowd regarding the customary prisoner release, and by placing the one flogging and mocking (if indeed there was only one) afterward, or by ignoring the first (if there were two).

Twenty-four times in the Bible, always in the New Testament, the word "hour" is used with a number to specify the time of day. The middle line in the table below includes all these uses. In the bottom line, references to the same hour of the same day are combined. (passion + other = total)

<sup>(8)</sup> Jn 19:14 p461 informs us that "about the sixth hour" Jesus had not yet been crucified, while Mk 15:25 p465 says that "it was the third hour, and they crucified him." An explanation of this seeming discrepancy may derive from the table below. Note that 9:00 AM (third hour), noon (sixth hour), and 3:00 PM (ninth hour) taken together comprise 83% of all biblical uses. Since there is little reason to suspect that New Testament events clustered about these three times of day, it seems probable that these three times were sometimes used with special meaning. One possibility is that they sometimes designate the second, third, and fourth quarters of the daytime. According to this hypothesis, Mark reports, not the hour of the day Jesus was crucified, but the quarter of the daytime, and Mk 15:25 would mean "And it was at least the third but not yet the sixth hour, and they crucified him." If this hypothesis is correct, we may conclude that "about the sixth hour" in Jn 19:14 means approaching the sixth hour and that Jesus was crucified between 11:00 AM and noon.

&lt;sup>(9)</sup> First, Jesus cries out, "Eli, Eli, etc.," and some think he is calling Elijah. Then Jesus knowing, etc., says, "I thirst." Hearing this gives someone an idea. He runs, fills a sponge with sour wine (a common beverage), and offers it to Jesus. His companions say to him (Matthew), "Stop, thou. We want to see whether Elijah is coming to save [sustain] him." He replies to them (Mark), saying, "Stop, ye. [What] we [really] want to see [is] whether Elijah is coming to take him down."

			1 Now before the feast of the passover {was celebrated by most—see footnote on p402}, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved them unto the end. 2 And supper being ended {or: being in progress}, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him; cf 1k 22:3 p391 3 Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; 4 He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. 5 After that he poureth water into a bason, and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. 6 Then cometh he to Simon Peter: and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? 7 Jesus answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. 8 Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. 9 Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head. 10 Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash bis feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. 11 For he knew who should betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. 12 So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? 13 Ye call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. 14 If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. 15 For I have given you an example, that we should do as I have done to you.

Jesus again says someone will betray him; Judas leaves; greatness; a new commandment.

M M Lk 22:

In 13:

- 21 But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.
- 22 And truly the Son of man goeth, as it was determined:
- but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed!
- 23 And they began to enquire among themselves,
- which of them it was that should do this thing.
  - 23 Now there was leaning on Iesus' bosom one of his disciples. whom Jesus loved.
  - 24 Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, cf. 6:70 p191, Mt 16:23 & Mk 8:33 p219
  - that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. 25 He then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it?
  - 26 Jesus answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it.
  - And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
  - 27 And after the sop Satan entered into him.

cf. 13:2 p411, Lk 22:3 p391

Then said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly.

- 28 Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him.
- 29 For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.

- 30 He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.
- 31 Therefore, when he was gone out. Iesus said. Now is the Son of man glorified. and God is glorified in him.
- 32 If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway glorify him.

24 And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

cf. 9:46ff p229

- 25 And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors.
- 26 But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.
- 27 For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that serveth?
- is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth.
- 28 Ye are they which have continued with me in my temptations. cf. Mt 19:27ff p319
- 29 And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed unto me;

M	M	L	Jn 14:
			10 Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works. 11 Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.
			12 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father.  13 And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.  14 If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.  15 If ye love me, keep my commandments.
			16 And I will pray the Father, and he shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;
			17 Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you.  18 I will not leave you comfortless: I will come to you.
			19 Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.
			20 At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.
			21 He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.  22 Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world?
			23 Jesus answered and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him.  24 He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings:
			and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me.  25 These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you.
			26 But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you.  27 Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your beart be troubled, paithor let it be afraid.
			give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.  28 Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than I.
			29 And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it is come to pass, ye might believe.
			30 Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.
			31 But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

M	M	L	Jn 15:
			1 I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. 2 Every branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth more fruit. 3 Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you. 4 Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

M	M	L	Jn 15:
			5 Lam the vine we are the branches. He that abideth in me and I in him
			5 I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.
			6 If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
			7 If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you.
			8 Herein is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit;
			so shall ye be my disciples.
			9 As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
			10 If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.
			11 These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full.
			12 This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.
			13 Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
			14 Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.
			15 Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth:
			but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my Father
			I have made known unto you.
			16 Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain:
			that whatsoever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.
			17 These things I command you, that ye love one another.
			18 If the world hate you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.
			19 If ye were of the world, the world would love his own:
			but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
			20 Remember the word that I said unto you,
			The servant is not greater than his lord.
			If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you;
			if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
			21 But all these things will they do unto you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.
			22 If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin:
			but now they have no cloke for their sin.
			23 He that hateth me hateth my Father also.
			24 If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father.
			25 But this cometh to pass , that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law,
			They hated me without a cause.
			26 But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:
			27 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

M	M	L	Jn 16:
			3 And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
			4 But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them.
			And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you.
			5 But now I go my way to him that sent me;
			and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
			6 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
			7 Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. 8 And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
			9 Of sin, because they believe not on me;
			10 Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;
			11 Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.
			12 I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.
			13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come.
			14 He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
			15 All things that the Father hath are mine:
		therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you.
		16 A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.
			17 Then said some of his disciples among themselves,
			What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me:
			and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
			18 They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while?
			we cannot tell what he saith.
			19 Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me:
			and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?
			20 Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
			21 A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come:
			but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.
			22 And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
			23 And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
			24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name:
			ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.
			25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.
			26 At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I will pray the Father for you:
			27 For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from God.
			28 I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world:
i			20 I came form from the rather, and an come find the world.

			I Jn 16:  again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. 29 His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb. 30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth from God. 31 Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? 32 Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with the same things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.

	2 As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.
	3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent.
			4 I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.
			5 And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.
			6 I have manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world:
			thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word.
			7 Now they have known that all things whatsoever thou hast given me are of thee.
			8 For I have given unto them the words which thou gavest me;
			and they have received them , and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.
9 I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them which thou hast give for they are thine.
			10 And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.
			11 And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are .
			12 While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name:
			those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
13 And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves.
			14 I have given them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
			15 I pray not that thou shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil.
			16 They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
			17 Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.
			18 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.
			19 And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also might be sanctified through the truth.
			20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

- 1. p443. Mk 14:69. Almost any order of accusation and denial is plausible here.
- 2. p443. Mk 14:70. Here, too, almost any order of accusation and denial is plausible.
- 3. p451. Acts 1:18. The translation "of iniquity" (without an English definite article) is a translation consistent with Luke's other uses of  $\tau \eta \zeta$  dolkí  $\alpha \zeta$ . Consider Lk  $13:27^{p288}$ ,  $16:8^{p298}$ , and  $18:6^{p310}$ , where in each case it is not a specific instance of wickedness that is referred to, but rather, a wicked character or nature that is referred to. So it is not particularly likely that  $\tau \eta \zeta$  dolkí  $\alpha \zeta$  in Acts 1:18 refers to one specific action, betrayal, and it is therefore not particularly likely that the money referred to in Acts 1:18 is the thirty pieces of silver Judas received for betraying Jesus.

On a related matter, neither account of the demise of Judas explicitly reports his death. The result of this silence is that we do not know which was the proximate cause of death: hanging, or falling headlong.

On yet another related matter, while I think the two-field hypothesis better fits the evidence, the one-field hypothesis may be palatable if one posits that Judas first hanged himself in the Potters Field, and then the priests, after learning that he died there, bought that field in his name.

4. p461. Jn 19:16. The word "therefore" has been moved here so as to indicate the reason for Pilate's action stated by John in parallel with the reason stated by the other evangelists. The reordered text has the good fortune of according with the Greek word order. The KJV says, Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified.

NOTES:

- 5. p461. Mt 27:25. "all the people" was at most all the people present. While the crowd was large enough to frighten Pilate, it did not include all the Jewish people. Nor is it likely that all in the crowd agreed with what was said and done.
- 6. p463. Lk 23:33. "Calvary" transliterates Latin Calvariae.
- 7. p465. Mk 15:26, with Mt 27:37, Lk 23:38, and Jn 19:19. Perhaps the entire text of the accusation posted on the cross read, THIS IS JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS. Here is this inscription in Greek (compounded from the Greek NT with accents and breathings removed), Latin (compounded from the Vulgate), and Hebrew (my guess).

Ουτος εστιν Ιησους ο Ναζωραιος ο βασιλευς των Ιουδαιων hic est Iesus Nazarenus rex Iudaeorum יהושע מנזרת זה מלך יהודה

There are a number of problems with the Hebrew. First of all, it is not clear that Hebrew is meant by "Hebrew" in Jn 19:19 and Lk 23:38; perhaps it means Aramaic. There is also the question of whether Hebrew "the king of Judah" is the equivalent of Greek "the king of the Jews." And the meaning of o  $N\alpha\zeta\omega\rho\alpha\iota\sigma\zeta$  (here translated OF NAZARETH) is a subject of debate. The Hebrew reads, right to left: Joshua | from Nazareth | (is) this, | (he is the) king | (of) Judah.

This note addresses only the text of the sign, not the arrangement of the text on the sign. Since many arrangements are possible, it is doubtful the sign appeared as shown above.

Resurrection morning in summary

What follows is one possible sequence of events that is consistent with, and could give rise to, all four canonical gospel accounts of resurrection morning.

	Mt	Mk	Lk	Jn
SUNDAY MORNING BEFORE SUNRISE	1110		LII	JII
Going by way of the market, where they buy more burial spices, (1)		16:1
Mary Magdalene and other women are on the way to the tomb. (2)	28:1	16:1		20:1,2
Meanwhile, angel descends, rolls away stone; earthquake. (3)	28:2-3
Guards pretend to be dead.	28:4
SUNRISE
Women arrive, discussing who will remove the stone. (4)		16:2-3	24:1
Looking up, they find the tomb open.		16:4	24:2	20:1
Mary then runs and tells Peter and John (while the other women wait at some distance away, afraid to approach the tomb.)				20:2
Peter, John, and Mary run to tomb. (Mary now much closer to the tomb than the other women.)				20:3-4
Peter and John enter the tomb, find no one, then leave. (Mary right outside the tomb, still, and the other women still at a distance.)				20:5-10

Some of the women did not think the spices prepared before the Sabbath (Luke  $23:56^{\ p473}$ ) were sufficient. The text of Mk  $16:1^{\ p481}$  allows that this purchase may have been made the previous evening immediately after the sunset which ended the Sabbath.

Resurrection morning in summary

	Mt	Mk	Lk	Jn
Mary looks into the tomb, sees two angels, and talks with them. (The other women, their fears overcome, now approach the tomb.)				20:11-13
Mary turns back from the tomb.				20:14
Meanwhile, the other women reach and enter the tomb.		16:5	24:3
Mary sees Jesus, supposes him the caretaker, talks with him.				20:14-15
Meanwhile, the other women see and talk with the angels.	28:5-7	16:5-7	24:4-8
The other women leave the tomb to tell the disciples.	28:8	16:8	24:9
Meanwhile, Mary recognizes Jesus, becoming the first to see him after his resurrection.		16:9		20:16-17
The other women meet Jesus on the way (Mary still being with him, perhaps).	28:9-10
Mary and other women bring news of Jesus to disciples.	28:11	16:10-11	24:9-11	20:18
Meanwhile, the guards leave the tomb area.	28:11-15
Peter, hearing women's report, goes to the tomb again, finds no one, goes away.			24:12 them gained faith in Jesus afterward. The stone may have been rolled away before the women even began going to the tomb.

 $<sup>^{(2)}</sup>$  Note Mary's use of "we" in Jn  $20:2^{p481}$ ; Mary had not gone to the tomb (v1) alone.

Mt 28:	M	L	Jn 20:
{The other women wait at a distance from the tomb.}			2 Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.  3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.  4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.  5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.  6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie,  7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.  8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.  9 For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.  10 Then the disciples went away again unto their own home.

While in Galilee, Peter returns to his former occupation. Jesus calls Peter the 4th time.

M	M	L	Jn 21:
			1 After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he bimself.
			2 There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his disciples.
			3 Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him,
			We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing.
			4 But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore:
			but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.
			5 Then Jesus saith unto them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No.
			6 And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find.
			They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
			7 Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord.
			Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him ,
			(for he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea.
			8 And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.
			9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid thereon, and bread.
			10 Jesus saith unto them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.
			11 Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net broken.
			12 Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
			13 Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.
			14 This is now the $\{a\}$ third <sup>5</sup> time that Jesus shewed himself to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead.
			on love and service.
			15 So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee.

NOTES:

1. p481. Jn 20:1. In this passage, John qualifies πρωὶ ("early") with σκοτίας ἔτι οὕσης ("when it was yet dark"). Now there are degrees of darkness. If by σκοτίας ("darkness") John means either the full darkness of night or the gloom of dawn before the sun's disk is visible on the horizon, then by ἔρχεται ("cometh") he means "is on the way," and eventual arrival at the tomb is implied. In this case, Jn 20:1 means: The first day of the week, Mary Magdalene is on the way early, darkness yet being, to the sepulcher; and [upon arrival] she sees [that] the stone had been taken away from the sepulcher. I take this view on page 478.

But if by  $\sigma \kappa \sigma \tau (\alpha \varsigma$  ("darkness") John means the somewhat dim condition very early in the day when the sun is so low in the sky that direct sunlight reaches only the tops of the hills, providing an amount of ambient light noticeably less than that which obtains when the sun has risen high enough that the valleys are in full sunshine, then Jn 20:1 means: The first day of the week, Mary Magdalene is arriving early, darkness yet being, at the sepulcher, and she sees [that] the stone had been taken away from the sepulcher. I take this view on pages 480 - 481.

John uses ἔρχεται ... εἰς to mean "arrives ... at" in Jn  $11:38^{p243}$  and to mean "is on the way ... to" in Jn  $12:12^{p339}$ , so the presence of this construction in Jn 20:1 does not reveal which meaning of σκοτίας ("darkness") John intended.

For uses of  $\pi\rho\omega$ t ("early") that explicitly indicate less than full darkness, consider Mt  $16:3^{p213}$  (the sky is red) and Mk  $16:2^{p481}$  ( $\lambda\iota\alpha\nu$   $\pi\rho\omega$ t, "very early in the morning" is at sunrise.) For a use of  $\pi\rho\omega$ t ("early") in a phrase that might indicate a time during the full darkness of night, consider Mk  $1:35.^{p83}$

6. p499. Rev 1:15. It is God the Father who is the alpha and omega, the beginning and the ending, he who is, who was, and who is to come, the Almighty. The Father's voice is as of a trumpet. The Son's voice is as the sound of many waters. John first heard the Father, v10, turned to see who spoke, and saw the Son.

It is God the Father whose voice is as a trumpet in Rev 1:10 and 4:1. It is God the Father who is referred to as the alpha and omega in Rev 1:8,11, 21:6, and 22:13. God the Father is the one who is, who was, and who is to come in Rev 1:4, 1:8, and 4:8. It is God the Father who is referred to as the Almighty (or as omnipotent) in Rev 1:8, 4:8, 11:17, 15:3, 16:7,14, 19:6,15, and 21:22. And all uses of the word "God" (i.e., uses of  $\theta \epsilon \acute{o} \acute{o}$  in its several cases) in Revelation refer to God the Father.

Acts

- 6:7 And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.
- 8 And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders and miracles among the people.
- 9 Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.
- 10 And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spake.
- 11 Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.
- 12 And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,
- 7:54 When they heard these things {Stephen's defense}, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.
- 55 But he, being full of the Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,
- 56 And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened,
- and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.
- 57 Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, 58 And cast him out of the city, and stoned him:
- and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.
- 59 And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saving. Lord Iesus, receive my spirit.
- 60 And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

8:1 And Saul was consenting unto his death.

And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles.

3 I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, vet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the

Gal 1:

- 11 But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man.
- 12 For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Iesus Christ.
- 13 For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it:
- 14 And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, 19 Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only. 20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus. 21 And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. 22 Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. 23 Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. 24 For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord. 25 Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul: 26 And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch.

NOTES:

1. p505. Acts 9:5. Note that this instance of "it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks." is not in the majority reading.

2. p507. Acts 9:7. In Acts 9:7 Saul's companions heard a voice but did not see the speaker. In Acts 22:9 his companions saw the light that shone around them all, but did not hear the voice of the person speaking to Saul. If both these reports are accurate, and there is no compelling reason to doubt that they are both accurate, then perhaps Saul heard Jesus and the others heard someone else. Or perhaps Saul's companions heard the sound of the voice (9:7) but did not understand what it said (22:9).

Acts 13:	Acts 22:	Acts 26:	Gal 2:
			6 But of these who seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me:  7 But contrariwise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter;  8 (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)  9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision.  10 Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

NOTES:

3. p513. above Gal 1:20. Gal 1:21-24 may be a separate period of service in Syria and Cilicia, separate that is from Saul's preaching in Tarsus and Antioch described in Acts  $9:30^{p511}$  and Acts  $11:25-29^{p513}$ . Or, since Tarsus and Antioch are both in "Syria and Cilicia," these passages may describe one and the same ministry. Because of Acts  $11:30^{p515}$  it seems unlikely that Gal 1:21-24 includes the first missionary journey (which was also conducted in Syria and Cilicia according to Acts 15:36, 41.)

 $4.\,$  p513. Gal 1:22. "Unknown by face" means merely that after going to Tarsus, Saul did not visit Judea during the time he was preaching in Syria and Cilicia, but, v23, they only heard about his activities during this period.
