

FACULTY FINISHES SEASON UNDEFEATED

The game of the season! The game to end the season! The two finest teams were pitted against each other. The Seniors were trying to prove they could beat the Faculty. The Faculty was attempting an UNDEFEATED season! Could the Seniors do it? This was the question everyone was asking! Could their fine teamwork match up with Faculty finesse?

It looked that way from the first of the game. The opening tip-off was controlled by the Faculty, but it didn't do them any good. They missed their first chance but not their second try down. 2 to 0 Faculty! The Seniors soon pulled out in front though. Ray Pyle was all over the court, driving up the middle, popping them in from the outside and passing in to Scott Royer for some easy inside shots. But the Faculty wasn't to be stopped. They came back and tied the score at 12 to 12! Time out Seniors! Ray Pyle out, John Strain in. This was to be the pattern for both teams. Rest every one of the starters for a few minutes on a rotating basis.

So went the first half. The Seniors would pull out ahead but then it was Petty assist, Norman or Williams under for 2 more and the score would be tied. Mr. Ted Armstrong was hotter than he had been in a long time. At the half, the score was 38 to 38! TIED! Neither team was playing better than the other!

Sophomores Take Juniors in 78-76 Thriller

Speed, hustle, determination, dexterity and enthusiasm were personified in the A.C. gym in a wholehearted — and sometimes faint-hearted — capoff of the season for the Juniors, who found themselves on the short end of 78-76 thriller.

After a brief tie at 2-2, the Sophomores charged out in front to stay, with Tim Burton, Gary Koerner, and Steve Vollmer leading the way. The Juniors were slow and couldn't seem to contain the ball-hawking Sophomores.

Meanwhile the hapless Juniors fought desperately to keep pace, but without Ray Kosanke, they faltered badly, and found themselves 16 points down at half time, 51-35. To top it all off, Dave Pack had 3 fouls and Bernie Schnippert was out of the game with a badly sprained ankle.

Victory for the Juniors was about as likely as a snowball's chance of succeeding on the Fourth of July, but believe it or not, they fought back in the second half to take a 3-point lead. The galvanic presence of 6'9" Ray Kosanke, despite a painfully blistered foot, made the difference.

The first half had belonged to the Sophs, but this one was all for the Juniors as Kosanke and Co. went to work. Suddenly the Juniors began to hit, with Kosanke doing most of the scoring. He shot from the top of the key, hooked from the baseline, and drove for lay-ins, as he amassed 24 points with amazing accuracy — all in just 20 minutes of play.

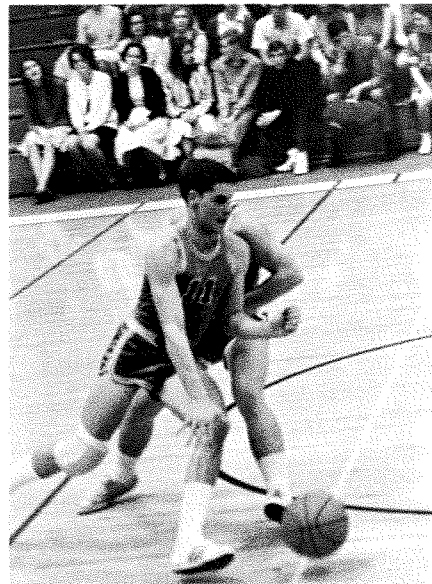

With 2 minutes to go the Juniors had a 3-point lead, and the fans were nearly uncontrollable. Then there was a steal and the Sophomores went to work. They spread their forces wide until Steve Vollmer was left open for a lay-up. It was good, and the Sophs were down by one, then before the Juniors could get set to counter the basket, the ball was stolen again, and again Vollmer was open for an easy two. Now the Juniors were behind, but they couldn't muster 2 points.

Gary Koerner swiped another pass and dribbled to the opposite end. Immediately, with only 6 seconds to go,

Greg Kloster fouled Koerner. Koerner calmly stepped to the line for a 1-and-1 situation. His shot was up and good, and that made it a 2-point advantage; then a time out. The game resumed and Koerner put another free throw up, but it bounced hard off the back rim and Everett Leisure of the Juniors grabbed it and dribbled the length of the floor. With 3 seconds showing, Leisure started to carry in the tying shot, but he slipped near the free-throw line, and the ball bounced out of bounds.

That cinched it, and the Sophs went away, victorious over the Juniors for the second time this year.

Faculty Finishes Season Undefeated

The second half went very much like the first. Seniors out in front, then the Faculty tied the score. Then the Faculty went on a wild spree and passed the Seniors — a 9-point lead! 5 minutes to play. Each team scored another basket in the next two minutes and then time started running out for the Senior team. Three minutes to play and the Faculty ahead by 9 points.

With one last valiant effort, the Seniors cut the score to 89 to 84. THEN, with only 50 seconds remaining, the Seniors made another basket to cut the score to only a three-point lead. 89 to 86. Could they do it?

John Strain intercepted a Faculty pass and the Seniors had the ball, but they couldn't make it pay and the Faculty made an easy shot to win the game 91 to 86.

Another Faculty win and they had a perfect season. UNDEFEATED!

FROSH COME FROM BEHIND, BEAT IMPERIAL 60 TO 55

The Imperial rooters had plenty to cheer and scream about. In fact, the scene was one of complete bedlam and pandemonium. Twice this reporter was hit by green Imperial banners waved by the frantic crowd!

But the Imperial Varsity, looking for their first victory in the last game of the year, couldn't quite take advantage of the Frosh team's cold shooting. They finally succumbed, losing narrowly 60-55.

Although the first half featured a relatively low-scoring performance for both teams, the game got off to a fast start with 3 baskets being scored in the first 40 seconds of play. Imperial got the opening tip and scored first on Rich Glasgow's 10-foot set shot. "Mr. Petty, Jr.," Dave Ogwyn followed with a jumper for the Freshmen to tie the score. Rich Glasgow came right back to score on a carbon copy of his first shot.

The pace of the game then slowed down as the offense took its time setting for a good shot. Vigorous defense, missed shots and turnovers kept the score down. The score was 15-15 when the Freshmen set up a full-court press. This forced two Imperial turnovers and resulted in two consecutive 3-point plays by Jack Kost and Dave Ogwyn. Inglima hit a twisting shot and suddenly the Frosh were ahead by 8 points 23-15!

Thanks to 3 baskets by Derek Hanway in the closing minutes, Imperial narrowed the score at half time to 29-25. Much too close for Freshman comfort!

With less than 2 minutes gone in the second half Dave Ogwyn fouled out! This was a big break for Imperial and they promptly narrowed the Frosh lead to only one point.

After a lengthy turnovers parade, the Frosh hit on three consecutive baskets by Paul Dennison, Mel Inglima and Jack Kost to pull ahead 37-30.

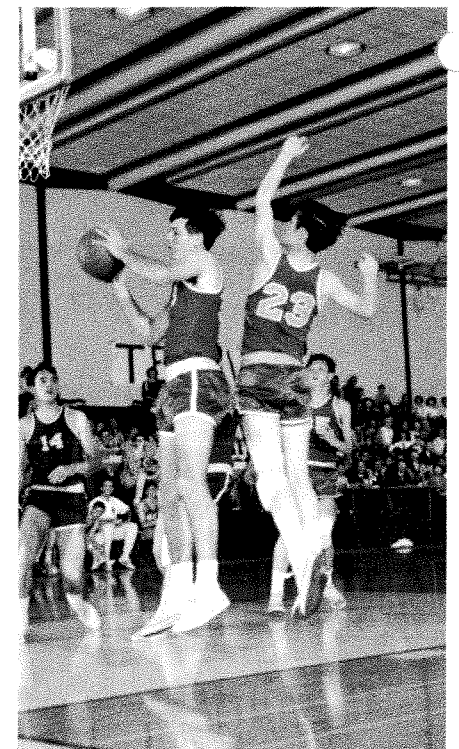

Just as the Freshmen looked as if they were finally going to run away and hide, Imperial had their big moment of glory for the year! In the next minutes, they actually outscored their opponents 13-1! No one, but no one, could believe it. Imperial was leading 43-38 with only 9 minutes left in the game! And almost everyone in the gym seemed to be screaming their lungs out for the underdogs!

With things looking about as bleak for the Freshmen cause as the rainy weather outside, the Frosh finally steadied and spurted for the next 10 points — 8 scored by Mel Inglima!

Mike James and Mark Ashland narrowed the Frosh lead to 1 point with five minutes left, as they each scored a basket. But Jack Kost, Paul Dennison and Craig Bacheller caught fire in the remaining time to give the Freshmen a hard-fought, 5-point victory.
