New Churches To Be Started

There is good news for the brethren in Alabama. Two new churches will soon be established there to allow them instruction and fellowship every Sabbath.

Both Mr. Gerald Waterhouse and Mr. Carn Catherwood are now making the necessary preparations — renting halls, finding a home, etc.—in the areas of Birmingham and Montgomery. The Southeast has been an area not served by local churches long enough. We can look forward to two good-sized congregations there, now that the way has been opened.

Let's thank God for making this possible and pray for Mr. Waterhouse and Mr. Catherwood's safety and success in their new responsibility.

Mr. McCullough Ordained During Minister's Conference

During the Ministerial Conference, on January 15, Mr. Leslie McCullough was ordained to the rank of Preaching Elder. Mr. McCullough, who graduated from Ambassador in 1961, has been acting pastor of the Temple City Church since school started last fall.

Mr. McCullough has also been assisting Mr. Portune for over two years, and has been used on the Visiting Program since Passover, 1959. Prior to that, he worked in News Gathering and the Press Building. Before coming to

Conference Closes With Vital Decisions For Future of God's Work

God's ministers returned to their pastorates last week filled with renewed zeal and purpose as the most important meetings on earth came to a close.

Vitally important decisions affecting the whole future course of God's final work on this earth were reached! Future plans for expansion, the establishment of new Churches, future big-space advertisements in magazines of the largest circulation, foreign broadcasting plans, the overall organization of God's Church and two colleges—

Welcome To The Visiting Minister

Mr. and Mrs. Mantuefel, with their two wee ones, are once again to be campus personalities. Arriving here from the Garden City-Wichita area in time for the ministerial conference, the Mantuefels will stay on for a while as Mr. Mantuefel assumes local duties and resumes studies in preparation for further assignment. Welcome aboard, Mantuefels, it's fine to have you with us once again.

G. T. Armstrong Flies To England

Mr. Garner Ted Armstrong will be leaving for a short, busy stay in England.

Keeping up with his many jobs, Mr. Armstrong is now making extra broadcasts to be used in his absence.

While Mr. Armstrong is in England he will be able to relieve Dr. Rea of his responsibilities. This will allow Dr. Rea to go to Spain, visit with some of our interested listeners there, and take a much-needed rest.

Our hope is that everything connected with this trip will be a success—and our prayers are for your safe return, Mr. Ted Armstrong.

Bricket Wood Ceremony Unites Jones-Englebart

Miss Shirley Engelbart became Mrs. Robin Jones on December 27. The ceremony took place in the music hall—not the library where Shirley has been working for the past four years. The setting, we hear via Dr. Rea, was fabulous! Shirley was a radiant bride in the traditional long white wedding gown, and carried red roses. Jeanne Haley, in a mint-green dress, was bridesmaid. Mr. Jones' best man was David Wainwright.

The joyful newlyweds honeymooned in southern England. Many happy days ahead to the Jones family!

Junior Jamboree Delights Large Campus Crowd

Exams were over! Test week worries were dispelled! It was time to UNCORK those pent-up emotions! What to do?

The students in the "know" joined the happy couples in the jubilant Junior Jamboree at Ambassador Hall!

There was a treasure hunt, exotic (?) British dances, water polo, and picture puzzles! Fine entertainment, dancing and (ah!) refreshments were added. Dave Albert capped the evening off with group singing.

ORDAINED

Ambassador College in 1957, Mr. McCullough was training for a managerial position with Kress variety stores—before that he did upholstery work for seven years. Mr. McCullough had his future planned—or so he thought! At the time he had no idea whatsoever that God would change those plans and alter his entire future!

Originally from Nebraska, Mr. McCullough spent most of his life around Portland, Oregon, living in a nearby town of Hillsboro. His wife was the first one God called into His truth! Mr. McCullough became interested by reading her PLAIN TRUTHS and Correspondence Course. The McCulloughs began attending the Portland Church in 1956, and Mr. McCullough was baptized at the Feast of Tabernacles that year.

Mr. McCullough loves the outdoors. He enjoys hunting and fishing and was a member of the Colorado Expedition which was blessed with such amazing hunting!

The McCulloughs have three children (two of them born since he entered college), Kimberly, Lynn, and Michael.

Our congratulations, best wishes, and prayers go with you in your new challenging responsibility, Mr. McCullough.

Spanish Work Shows World-Wide Growth

Dr. Rea reports the Spanish department received ONE THOUSAND THREE HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOUR letters during 1961 in response to the Spanish broadcast, El Mundo de Manana. These letters came from South America, Central America, and even a few from the United States and Europe.

The department has translated all, and printed all but four of the booklets. Many articles and seven of the nine translated Correspondence Course lessons have been mailed to the THREE HUNDRED AND SIXTEEN students of the course.

Dr. Rea, with the help of his staff, has thirty-nine more articles and four more booklets translated to be published—Mr. Leon Walker, Dennis Peabworth and Jan Barnett have been of great help in this. A new "Vari-Typer" with an automatic right margin verifier produces fine-looking literature.

The voice of Dr. Rea, in the Spanish language, is being heard from radio stations located in Lima, Peru; Swan Island; Asuncion, Paraguay; Montevideo, Uruguay; Panama City, Panama; and Los Angeles, California.

LIBRARY LOOKOUT

What do you know about the Turkish people—modern Esau?

In her book, "The New Turks," Eleanor Bisbee relates her experiences in teaching, traveling and analyzing these people.

She details the incredible transformation of a whole nation from their dress to their spoken word and written language. They were even required to adopt a last name for government records, since they were accustomed to only one name. Her views are decidedly sympathetic. She justifies their suspicious, treacherous nature and rightly admires their watchful care over their young, and their formal respect to the elderly.

You'll absorb a bit of history along with the collation to future events.

Handball Courts Will Be Built On A. C. Campus

Ambassador's happy handball lovers have struck the jackpot!

New handball courts are to be built right here on campus! Construction will begin as soon as a site is selected.

Two courts, side by side or back to back, will furnish the much-needed exercise for the time-pressed men in God's work.

The English campus will also be provided with a court—rumor has it that Mr. Hunting has already challenged all comers.

This is one more example of how we are provided with the most excellent tools to give us an abundantly full and well-rounded life at Ambassador.

Annual Ministerial Ball Highlights Conference Social Activities

The evening of January 11 saw busy ministers and students alike set aside a few hours from their schedules to enjoy a short time of fun and relaxation at the annual Ministerial Ball held at the old favorite—Moose Lodge, Glendale.

The whole affair was an immense, smashing success from start to finish. Well handled and smoothly run all the way, this year's dance was a good example for coming social affairs.

Tom Blackwell's committee was right on top with good decorations appropriate to the theme showing thought, initiative, and originality in the use of available materials. Chuck Marlowe's band provided the sweetest, most danceable music we've had around here for some time.

Excellent, tasty refreshments were provided by an efficient refreshment committee headed by Dave Albert. All worked hard to provide the best a limited budget would allow and proved head-work plus hard-work bring success every time. A "vote of thanks" also goes to C. "Ted" Gould, the intrepid entrepreneur of fine shows, who put in a lot of time and sweat, not to mention ten years off his life expectancy, in bringing some of Ambassador's finest talent together for an excellent mid-dance show emceed by that inimitable Mr. Clark.

All in all, everyone agreed, "Best dance ever," and when the last dance was announced, expressions of dismay and regret were heard at the shortness of the evening. All wondered how time had flown by so rapidly—the answer: everyone had a terrifically enjoyable time!

Murphy House Hosts Winter Party

Exams were over! Murphy House was buzzing with excitement! Everyone un-wound to the tune of "Winter Wonderland"—the theme of an entertaining evening.

Refreshments were served throughout the evening as the group enjoyed dancing, games, singing and listening to the program presented by the Murphy House gals.

One would think it was winter judging by the icicles on the windows. A cheery snowman greeted all with a big smile (thanks to Mrs. Lochner and five boxes of soap).

Reluctantly at midnight, all the men went home—hopefully looking forward to "the next time!"

CONFERENCE

these were just a few of the momentous topics discussed.

Some of the immediate plans will be revealed in other articles in this issue of the PORTFOLIO, and others, involving important questions of doctrine and Christian living, will be coming in future issues of the GOOD NEWS magazine!

Jesus Christ was certainly guiding and controlling these meetings! Every minister once again felt the spirit of real TOGETHERNESS, of UNITY and SINGLENESSE of purpose that pervaded each session! Let's all continue to pray that the long-range and lasting results of these conferences will keep bearing fruit in the months and years to come!

Preparation of New Song Books Planned For '62

Another big step in the right direction was accomplished in the recent ministerial conferences to begin immediate preparation of new song books for the Radio Church of God.

Mr. Dwight Armstrong has a large number of songs already written which will be incorporated into the newer, enlarged hymnals. A host of the real "old favorites" will be included, with words changed where necessary to make each really speak the truth!

The new books will be published with the co-operation of the Ambassador College Music Department, with professional arrangers Mr. Wilbur Berg and Mr. Anthony Buzzard lending their talents. It is presently anticipated the newer, finer, thicker books of about ONE HUNDRED SONGS will be ready in time for the Feast of Tabernacles for 1962!

Mayfair Maidens Treat Guests Southern Style

Dec. 31, 1961—The girls at Mayfair got a longing for the South, and in less than an hour the Dining Hall took on the appearance of a Southern plantation. The ivy-covered staircase and the decorated rooms, complete with a love seat, were sights to behold! The girls dressed in full-length formals, like Southern belles, to add to the beauty of the candle-lit rooms. Naturally they invited some men over to help them enjoy everything.

The Mayfair maidens furnished a floor show and refreshments, including champagne punch, to add to the evening of dancing.

NEWS BRIEFS

Due to a serious heart condition, Mr. Dart is having to remain here in Pasadena. While he is recuperating, Mr. and Mrs. Carl McNair will be taking over his duties in Little Rock and Memphis.

Mr. Dart suffered an attack of rheumatic fever as a child. This is basically responsible for his present condition.
