FRESHMAN INTERVIEWS

As you have been walking across campus during the past few weeks you may have noticed how many people have been calling you by your nickname. It usually goes — “Hi there BUDDY, or PAL, or what’s up FELLA.” Even though your name is actually Jim you may have been greeted as Sidney, Louis, or Bill.

This Portfolio is the answer to all of your problems. It’s the issue you have been anxiously awaiting. We present the class of 1967 on Revue for you.

THIS SPECIAL EDITION IS A VALUABLE TOOL!

In this pictorial presentation we have not just provided you with 179 photographs. Next to each picture we have recorded some piquant points of interest to help you to associate the names with the faces of each freshman. Some people even use this issue for a dating check off list (but we know this isn’t the main reason it is in such popular demand).

Now turn the first page and begin using this TOOL for sharpening your name knowhow.

MEET THE CLASS OF ... 1971

Connie Anderson, sister of Mary Anderson, hails from Lebanon, Missouri. Connie has busied herself in high school with such organizations as the F. H. A., the Planned Progress program and the National Honor Society. If you fellas want to date a girl that is good all-around in sports, meet Connie! She assisted a PE instructor during her senior year in high school.

Connie Anderson

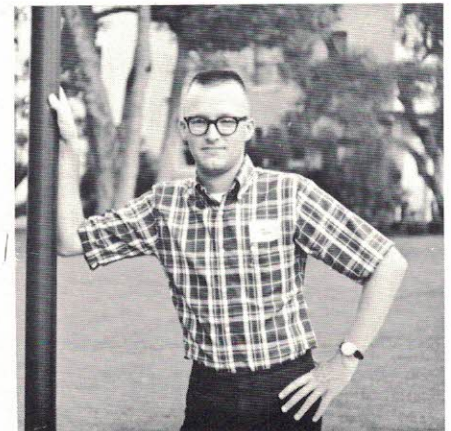

Ken Anderson flies to us from Corpus Christi, Texas, after a year at Del Mar College. Among his interests are aviation, weight lifting, and contemporary music.

Kenneth Anderson

Robert Ashbaugh, interested in electronics and amateur radio, comes to us from the University of Michigan, where he received a bachelor of science degree. He has spent time in the U. S. Army and has worked on Werner von Braun's moon project.

(see photo). But, as you can see, we made it. We hope very much this issue helps you acquaint yourself with your new friends and classmates.

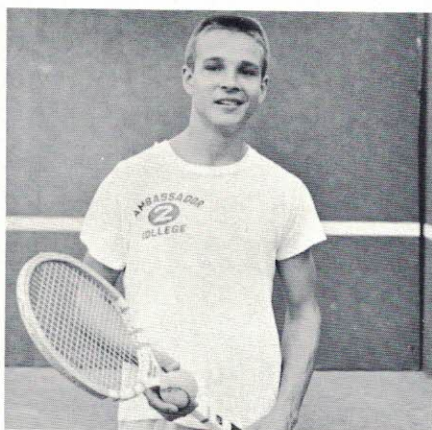

Robert Ashbaugh

SORRY WE'RE LATE

"Are you ever going to finish that Freshman Interview Edition?" We of The PORTFOLIO heard this question so often that, after a while, not even we were sure of the answer. Time dragged on — despair and dejection were ours

You think you had problems — we couldn't even find room at the wailing wall!!

Roger Barnett

Linda Beasley

Pat Beasley

John Beaver

Meet Roger Barnett from Nassawhere-a? Nassawaddox, Virginia. He has received recognition in track and field, plus in the field of science. He has traveled in the United States and Canada and has already achieved major goals in his 18 years: he's successful and happy!

Linda Beasley, who is from Birmingham, Alabama, likes literature, art, music, and "flying kites." Graduating from high school at the age of 16, she won awards for her essays and poetry. Linda, you'll have plenty of opportunities for writing at Ambassador!

Pat Beasley lists Goodwater, Alabama, as her birthplace, while her sister Kay lists Birmingham, Alabama. There must have been some exciting traveling in that family! Pat just graduated from high school and is interested mainly in singing and music.

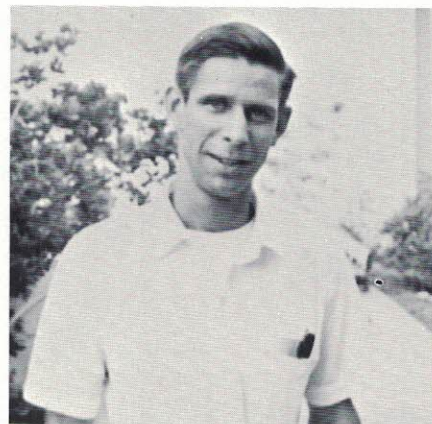

John Beaver, who "enjoyed high school somewhat," comes from Moberge, South Dakota. He attended Northern State College. His interests are numerous and include experimenting with musical instruments and his voice.

Ron attended Pacific Union, Oakland City and California State Colleges and received an A.A. degree in Business Administration and Accounting. He brags of being born in Memphis, Tennessee, where the famous (?) Elvis Presley was born.

From Corvallis, Oregon, we have received Terri Blakney, whose interests include horse training, art, friendship, sewing, and "voiceless singing." (?) She attended the S.E.P. program, lived on a small farm, and climbed mountains.

Pat Boehnhardt travels to us from Minneapolis. Her interests include the piano, the organ, music, writing, photography, and badminton. She has traveled in many parts of the United States.

In Eugene, Oregon, Barbara Boise became interested in horse training, sports of all types, music (piano) and cards. In high school she was a member of the National and Spanish National Honor Societies. Three of her goals are happiness, friendship, and writing.

Ron Beideck

Teresa Blakney

Patricia Boehnhardt

Barbara Boise

Amy Bowman

Coming from Morganton, N. C., Amy Bowman is interested in writing and art work. She won first place in a county writing contest for one of her essays, and some of her poetry is to be published in a book of North Carolina poetry. Welcome to Ambassador.

Having graduated from Imperial High in Big Sandy, George Bryan likes to play piano and write. He also plays Risk! Whether this has any connection with his brand-new job in the press building — well, only time will tell.

Judy Carman spent one year at Washington State University and plays the guitar and cornet. Her musical interest will be well appreciated at Ambassador College. Judy has lived in Otis Orchards (a city), Washington, most of her life, and is looking forward to "a new life at Ambassador."

"Actually I'm just a plain old healthy red-blooded, well-balanced, normal, vain and egotistical American boy," states Tom Carrozzo, who has dabbled in electronics, commercial art, skin diving, water skiing, the S. E. P., high school, and — human nature.

Carter Chadwick comes to us from the mines — the Colorado School of Mines that is. He studied engineering physics there. Among his interests are hunting, fishing, hiking, and camping. Squaw Valley and you should get along fine, Carter. Welcome!

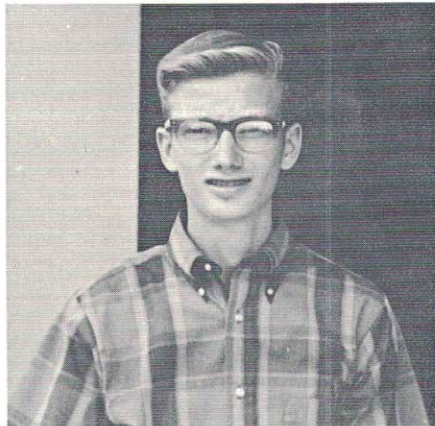

Doug Chesterby has attended the University of Toledo and is interested in electronics and photography. These interests plus an enthusiastic attitude will aid him in Ambassador's "BIG PICTURE."

Music and singing are some of Melinda Clare's talents. She also likes swimming, volleyball, and basketball. Between P. E. and the chorale Melinda will be having many happy hours. St. Louis, Missouri's loss is our gain. Welcome to Ambassador!

Oil painting is Robert Cloninger's main hobby. He comes to us from Richmond, Virginia. "Born on a Thursday and never knowingly broke a bone," Robert went on to become junior fire chief for Highland Park Elementary school, from where he received a degree of education.

Carter Chadwick

George Bryan

Douglas Chesterby

Judith Carman

Melinda Clare

Thomas Carrozzo

Robert Cloninger

Linda Collins

Conrad Comeau

Victoria Cook

James Cowell

In Philadelphia, a girl by the name of Linda Collins pursued singing, dancing, "piano-picking," checkers, track, and writing. She played the leading role in a high school senior class musical entitled "The Guy From Venus"; she has sung solos since the 7th grade. An insight into this world's educational systems brought her to Ambassador.

Mr. Comeau has a wife and almost one child (Nov.). He has had three years in the Merchant Marine Academy. Jet piloting is not his only ability. He also sky dives; water and snow skis; and plays at football, basketball, handball, karate, track, wrestling, hunting, fishing, scuba diving, auto racing, WHEW!!

Vickie Cook comes from La Junta, Colorado. She attended Grossmont Jr. College for one year and majored in dance and music. For hobbies she enjoys confounding biology teachers with knowledge she has gathered from The PLAIN TRUTH.

Jim Cowell comes from northern Pennsylvania, where he attended two colleges and one university. He obtained a B.S. degree in physics from Mansfield State College, and taught school for a year before coming to California.

Want to meet an interesting person? Meet Jan Cummings. When interviewed by The PORTFOLIO staff, she had many unique answers to questions asked. Ques.: Where were you born? Ans.: Panama Canal Zone. Ques.: Where have you lived most of your life? Ans.: No where (Air Force brat).

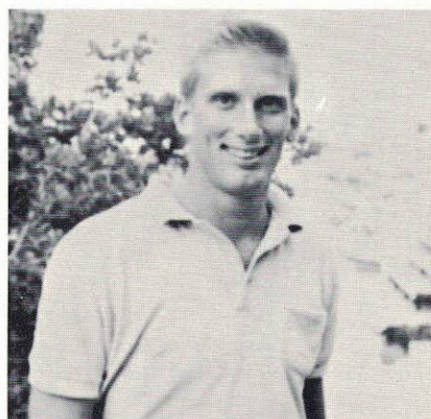

A graduate from Columbia University, Bill Damm comes to Ambassador from Long Island City, N.Y. Bill is a fine swimmer and promises to set some records in our Olympic pool.

Doris Dorn comes to us from the Chesapeake Bay area, Baltimore, Maryland. She has finished a four-year stay at the University of Michigan where she received a degree in Music and Instrumental Education.

Linda Dorsey has been looking forward to being a freshman in Ambassador for ten years. She has graduated from Imperial Schools in Pasadena where she has attended for eight years.

Doris Dorn

Linda Dorsey

Janis Droney

Janis Droney hails from Gary, Indiana. While here at Pasadena she hopes to participate in sports and would like to learn how to swim. Acceptance to Ambassador fulfills the hopes of four years of planning. Much success and welcome, Janis.

Byron Duke is one of our newest additions to the Ambassador Chorale. He is one of the first four students to complete 12 years of Imperial Schools and now is setting his hand for the next four years here at Ambassador.

Cora Dunlap was born in Canyon, Texas, has lived in Eugene, Oregon, and is going to Ambassador College in Pasadena. She attended S. E. P. in Texas and likes to ski. Coming to Ambassador has been one of the "highest goals" that she can remember — and as a side benefit she will be able to get acquainted with her two brothers!

Lawrence, Kansas, is Art Dyer's home town. He has attended S. E. P. twice. Now in Pasadena he hopes to play the drums in Ambassador band. Art is also a philatelist, so next time you need a stamp . . .

After a lengthy desire to attend Ambassador, Johanna finds her way in the 1967 freshman class! She anticipated new sights, sounds and smells (smog) at college; what she met was her baggage waiting to be unpacked, confusion as to how to find the Personnel Office and Buildings and Grounds Department, and other freshmen that were going through the same confusion.

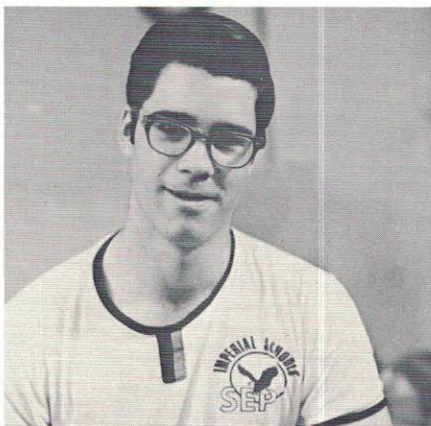

Mark Elliott comes from Palestine (Texas, that is), but spent most of his life right here in Pasadena. He enjoys repairing, building, and growing things (Mr. LaRavia take note).

Sue Endres comes from Eugene, Oregon, where she spent her time in all outdoor activities, as well as in drawing, cooking, and sewing. She lists her acceptance to Ambassador College as the "greatest moment" in her life.

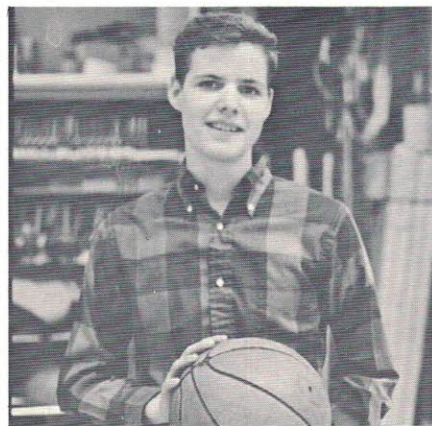

Jimmy Entler descends to us from Portland, Oregon, with no interests or skills, claiming he can't do anything. What an exceptional person! Obviously he makes no mistakes! He "used to be conceited, but that's a fault," and he has no faults.

Johanna Eckert

Byron Duke

Dana Mark Elliott

Cora Dunlap

Susan Endres

Arthur Dyer

James Entler

Linda Eslinger

Linda Eslinger claims she isn't a hillbilly but has lived all her life in the heart of the Ozarks (Ozark County, Missouri). She knows how to talk turkey because she lived on a farm with 30,000 of them. Her Thanksgivings were celebrated with roast duck!

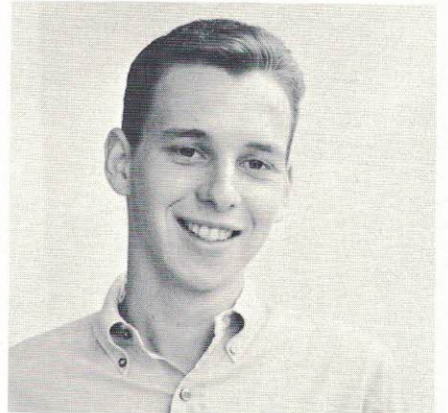

Clinton, South Carolina to Pasadena, California. Steve Fallaw hopes to play basketball this year and to participate in all aspects of Ambassador College. He has recently obtained a job in Shipping and Receiving and is looking forward to his freshman year.

Edward Faulk

Linda Farnsworth attended the University of Washington before coming to Ambassador. She brings with her an interest in people and accents (which she will find a lot of this year) as well as a liking for softball and volleyball.

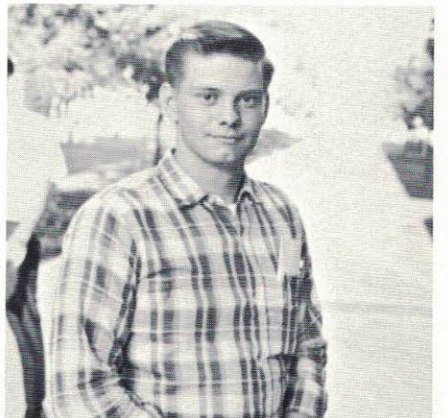

From Toronto comes Bill Farr, whose interests include sports, photography, and camping. Since Canada is mostly wilderness, explains Bill, camping is no problem. That is, "except trying to find your way back to civilization."

Robert Fenstermacher

Edward Faulk spent his life in Wilmington, N.C., where he majored in Science at A and T College. His interests include photography and working with woods. As a member of the Air Force, he spent time in Japan, South Vietnam, and Utah. Later, he became a program planner for Boeing Aircraft.

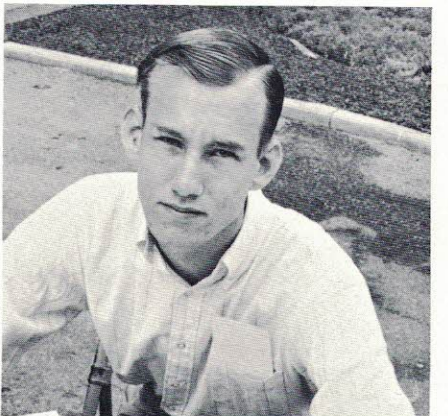

Say "HELLO" to Bob Fenstermacher, our man from Allentown, Pennsylvania. Bob has quite a few interests under his belt for such a young (17) Ambassador. He goes for singing, trombone, water skiing, ice skating, ping pong, and baseball.

Carl Lee Fields, Jr.

Carl Fields, 19 years old, was born in Toledo, Ohio. Carl has "always been interested in drawing things" and has worked as a draftsman trainee. Hunting, fishing, talking and singing are favorite interests and pastimes. Wonder what he sounds like in the shower?

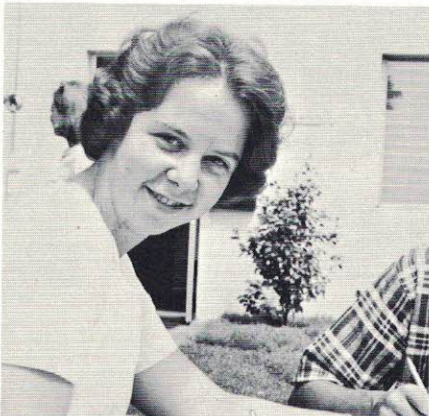

Dennis Fischer traveled only a short distance to Ambassador College, for he has lived all his life right here in the Los Angeles area. His favorite sports are basketball, baseball, football, and golf. On the golfing team in high school, Dennis made his mark winning his first tournament with a one-under par seventy-one.

Dennis Fischer

Stephen Fallaw

Linda Farnsworth

William Farr

Diane Fischer

Diane Fischer comes right out of high school from Los Angeles, California. She likes to swim and to play tennis. She loves to support athletics after cheer leading in high school. We hope to see you cheering for your team this year, Diane!

A married student and deacon from the St. Louis Church, Mr. Flurry comes to us with a versatile background. He has spent three years studying sales management, listing among his skills and interests, keypunching and photography layout.

Gerald Flurry

John Foster brings greetings from Skokie, Illinois, after attending the Chicago Church for nine years. Among his attributes he lists the ability to play the radio and to tell jokes.

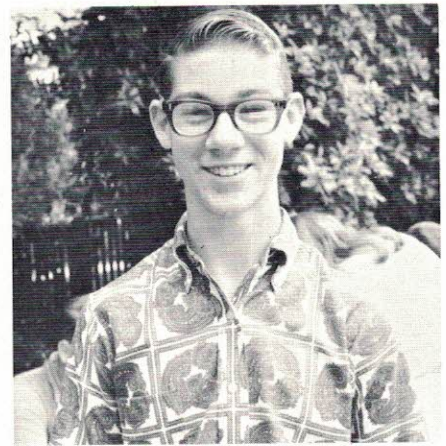

Sharon Foster, sister of Judy Foster, hails from Idaho. This smiling, 5-foot, 17-year-old was very active in Imperial's Pep Club (in Pasadena). Now she has an opportunity to be an Ambassador cheerleader. She's interested in most any sport and goes in for hobbies such as sewing, piano and artwork.

Mike Frederick is an avid sports enthusiast. He likes just about any athletic activity, and also enjoys "tinkering" around with mechanical things. Mike has known about Ambassador College since 1956, when he and his mother began attending Church in what is now the library building here on campus.

Wayne Freeman comes from Martha-ville, La., where he earned a B. A. degree in social studies and English education. His interests include the harmonica, horse training, and hunting. Wayne has the distinction of being accepted to Ambassador twice.

Chris French was born in Grand Rapids, Iowa and has lived 30 different places since then. That's an average of six months per stop. He plays guitar, sings, and acts. He is currently planning a four-year performance at Ambassador and hopes this stop will be longer than six months.

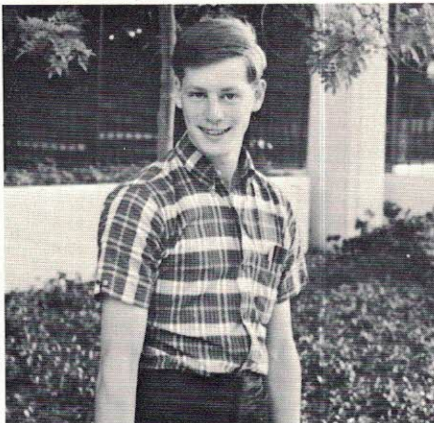

Mr. Fricke hails from North Dakota, where he graduated from N. D. State with a B. S.-E. E. degree. He is 26 years old and has a family with three children. He spent the last four years in Long Beach, and was ordained a deacon last year.

Michael Frederick

Wayne Freeman

John Foster

Christofer French

Sharon Foster

Daniel Fricke

Kimberley Fritts

Ambassador is the first college Kimberley Fritts has attended. She likes to swim and to participate in most athletics. Raised on an Indiana farm, she enjoys work enough to call it a hobby. Art and interior decorating are her greatest interests.

Yvonne Fritz joins the Ambassador student body after a year in the University of Pittsburgh, where she majored in dentistry. Besides a track and field star who sports many trophies, Yvonne is also a talented violinist of eleven years.

Vonda Garrett

Yvonne Fritz

Meet Dick Froese! Dick was born at home, in Canada. After the ordeal his mother took one look at him and was, of necessity, rushed to the hospital. Nineteen years have apparently mellowed Dick's appearance — we can tolerate him now. Dick likes basketball and guitar. He has two years of judo training behind him.

Gloria Gab was born in Frankfurt, Germany, but is an American (?), having lived in South Dakota most of her life. She spent one year in Northern College at Aberdeen. Having made All-State Band and winning a music scholarship makes her very eligible (easy fellows) for band (she plays clarinet). Sorry, Mr. Bauer. The Chorale got to her first!

Richard George

Richard Froese

Vonda Garrett desired to attend Ambassador College, when her sister, Linda, was accepted to the Big Sandy campus. She is from Illinois, where she has lived all her life. Vonda expresses skill and interest in sewing and in playing the piano.

Rick George attended North Carolina State before coming to Ambassador (naturally) and is easily recognized on campus by a special notebook which he carries with him wherever he goes.

Richard Gerrard

A history major from Portland State College, Richard Gerrard spent the summer traveling through five European nations. His interests include the enjoyment of hating to fill out forms.

Bob Gerringer was born on groundhog's day in 1949. Perhaps this is why he was employed as a weed hoer for seventy-two hours a week this summer. In between that eventful groundhog's day and this eventful ground hoeing summer, Bob attended high school in Modesto, and, in 1966, S. E. P.

Gloria Gab

Robert Gerringer

Marcella Gold

Marki Gold comes from Fresno, California, and her interests range from sewing to tennis. After graduating from high school she spent some time in a business college before coming to Ambassador.

Coming from Big Sandy, Texas, Chuck Green enjoys nearly every sport, but says he has "no real hobbies." (!) Having the opportunity of attending Imperial Schools, he served on its student council three times and went on to become Student Body President. Born in Aurora, Ill., he came from a family of five brothers and three sisters!

Locketta Greene comes to Ambassador College from the northernmost of the Pacific states, beautiful Washington. Her home state is Tennessee, but like many Ambassadors she has done a great deal of traveling. Locketta is an enthusiast for all outdoor sports.

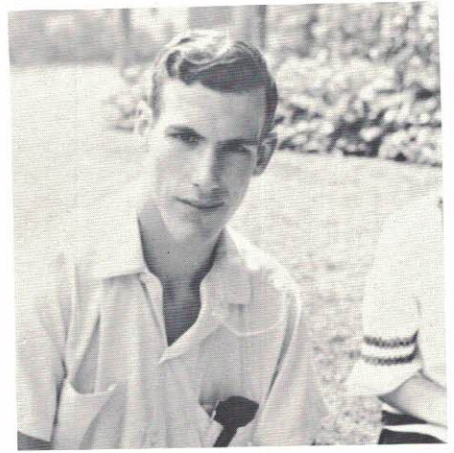

Imperial at Big Sandy sends Toni Hammer to us with plenty of background. She spent 12 years at Imperial, attended S. E. P., played basketball, and was a cheerleader. She is a native Texan and is thrilled to be here at Ambassador.

Jim Harries, 21, worked with Alcoa Aluminum in Vancouver after graduating from Oregon State University with a B. S. in electrical engineering. He has experience in design and computer applications. One of his hobbies is archery, and he engineers his arrows on target with calculated precision.

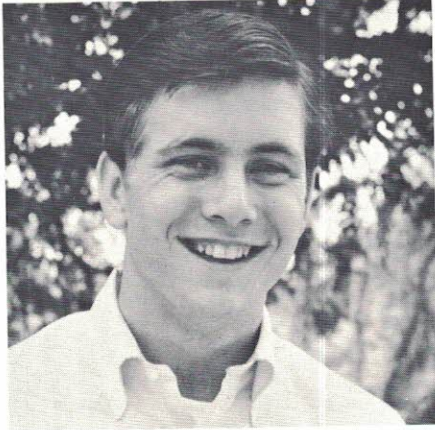

Tom Harrison comes from Marysville, California. He spent two years in France and traveled extensively in the U.S. Among his sporting interests are water skiing, swimming, baseball and basketball.

Warren Heaton has been attending the Feasts and has known about Ambassador College for close to fifteen years. He has been privileged to have been at every Imperial summer camp held, and has been able to work during the last two sessions. Warren was a wrestler for five years during junior high and high school.

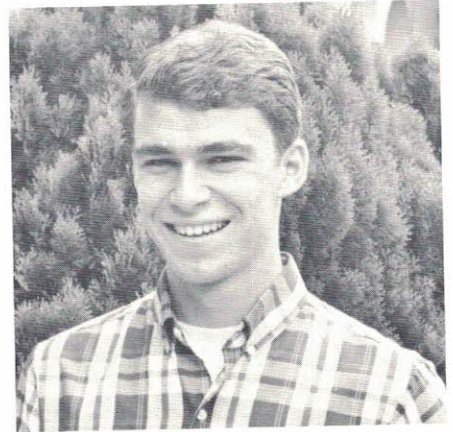

From the nation of West Texas hails Rod Henson. He attended Imperial School for 9 years and edited the school yearbook his last year there. Rod slipped up and mentioned that he is interested in journalism — The PORTFOLIO staff is watching you, Rod.

Herbert Hinkle

Elie Hofer

Mike Holman

Ron Hooper

Herbert Hinkle is one of our many incoming freshmen with a B. A. degree. He graduated last year from Hanover College, Indiana, with a major in physical education and a minor in Spanish. Herbert is a competent bowler, sporting many awards from accomplishments in the alleys.

Elie Hofer's variety of work experience in carpentry, in machine operating and as a handyman will make him a useful student employee at Ambassador. Elie is a foreigner from Manitoba, Canada, but he is still a native of the North American continent.

To Ambassador via Texas A & M and the University of Houston comes Mike Holman. He thrived on rocketry in his early years until one of his projects blew up in his face. He then switched to the less exciting but just as interesting hobbies like ham radio and electronics.

Ron is another "traveler" here at Ambassador. Being the son of a military family, he has been privileged to travel throughout the United States and Canada. Ron checks in with us after having three years' training at the Pennsylvania State University with a major in Computer Science.

Just a country gal from Everett, Pennsylvania, Peggy Hoover just graduated from high school with interests in reading, playing badminton, and singing. Active in several clubs and associations in high school, she was president of Dramatics Club.

Want to meet a girl who is familiar with uranium mining, building fences and roads, working with dynamite? Meet 19-year-old Nancy from the mining state of Colorado. This last spring she helped her dad stake claims. Her favorite pet is a cat—an animal "fascinating to teach."

Elaine Houghtaling comes from Miami and hopes to participate in basketball and volleyball. She played the violin in an orchestra for 3 years in high school. She has an older sister, a junior at Big Sandy.

Elliot, from Brooklyn, New York, has come to Ambassador bringing some artistic ability and a fondness for Spokesman's Club activities and meetings. Elliot tells us he has discovered that happiness cannot be purchased.

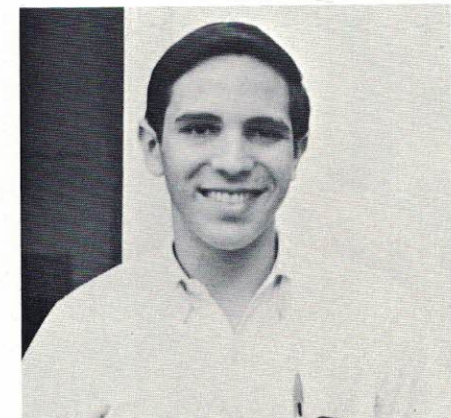

Peggy Hoover

Nancy Hotz

Elaine Houghtaling

Elliot Hurwitt

Carol Ince

Carol is a lover... a lover of art, music, singing, and piano. After spending most of her life on a rabbit, horse and cow ranch in Oregon, she came to Pasadena where she graduated very successfully from Imperial High School last year. Despite all this, being accepted at Ambassador has been "the highlight of these years."

Rich comes to Ambassador with a B.A. degree from Paterson State Teacher's College in New Jersey. He likes all sports in general, favoring baseball the most. Rich has known about Ambassador for 6 years and now enters as a freshman.

Marti Jewsbury, from Seattle, Washington is filled with the German love for singing and dancing. One of her outstanding memories is visiting her relatives in Europe's heartland. People, places, and pianos are among Marti's many interests.

Sandy went 2 years to Denver Women's College, where she studied professional modeling. After a long stint at modeling, secretarial work, and key-punching, she traveled to South America where she taught English for 5 months in Peru.

Sheryl Ann Kelly calls Denver, Colorado, her home, though she was born in Chadron, Nebraska. Her mother's death in 1966 led her to many job experiences and much travelling. We might note that she's just arrived and she's already frustrated. Why? She doesn't have the background to do all the things she'd like to do. You've got everything going for you now, Sheryl!

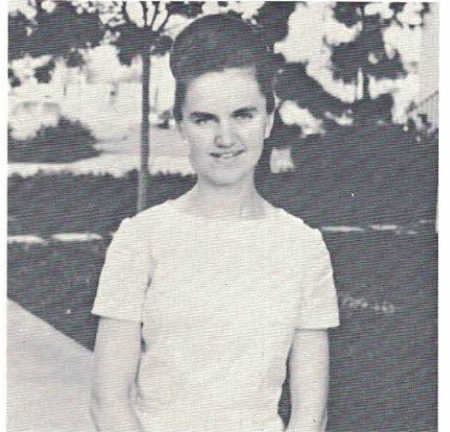

Helga, originally from Germany, spent most of her life in Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Among her skills and interests is playing the piano, which she has done for more than eight years.

Al Kersha was born in Munich, Germany. He moved to New York City in 1947. After graduation from high school and doing many odd jobs he went to Miami-Dade Junior College, majoring in electronics.

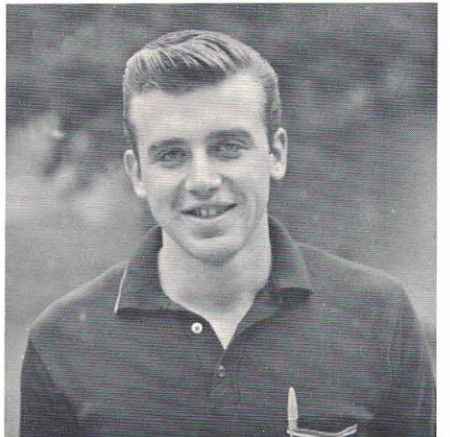

Henry is another of our students from Canada. He enjoys a wide variety of sports activity, and professes a "love" for hockey and ice-skating. Among his accomplishments is a 300-mile bicycle trip with 2 of his brothers during which they slept out under the stars.

Gregory Kloster

Greg Kloster, a man with a barrel of laughs and interests to share with you, was born in the state of Washington. He lists as hobbies: surfing, photography, swimming and snow skiing. Greg, before attending Imperial, attended a parochial school. With his journalist background, that should make an interesting speech or Portfolio article!

Kathy Kruger

Paul Kneebone likes winemaking and photography (The PORTFOLIO staff welcomes you). Born in England, reared in Canada and now making residence here in Pasadena (U.S.A.), Paul is another well-traveled Ambassador.

Paul Kneebone

"A lapidary, fiberglass laminator, and a pretty good motorcycle mechanic" — this is the self-appraisal of his talent, which Steve gave The PORTFOLIO. Steve later confessed that he became a good motorcycle mechanic because his was always in need of repair.

Rebecca Kyker

John is a Russian-speaking, trumpet-playing, 22-year-old graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. There he majored in Physics and worked as a lab technician. In a music theory class, John met the sister of another freshman — Bernie Schnippert — who interested him into attending Church.

Steven Koon

Kathy Kruger comes to Ambassador from Grand Rapids, Minnesota, but not before attending two other colleges. Her chief interests are drawing, sculpturing and knitting. After two years of other colleges, Kathy knows that Ambassador is the only answer for a good education.

Christel Landaver

Rebecca Kyker was born in Johnson City (not after the President), Tennessee. An education major from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville, she heard about the Church and Ambassador from a friend. She claims her only passable skill is playing the piano.

John Kossey

Christel was born in Hamburg, Germany, but has spent most of her life in Ontario, Canada. Her family journeyed to Canada to join her father when she was very young, and there she spent most of her life on a "huge" poultry farm. Christel has a wide variety of hobbies, skills, and interests.

Laura Lane

Laura Lane comes to us from Cincinnati, Ohio. The firstborn of many brethren (7), she has been wanting to attend A.C. for years. Laura enjoys sewing, cooking, playing the piano and singing.

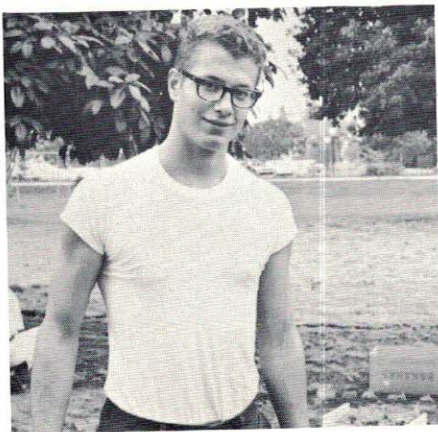

James Lea

Richard Leimbach

Everett Leisure

Roy Lepaska

James transfers to Ambassador from Northwestern State College in Louisiana, where he was majoring in French Education. Besides being an experienced alto saxophone player, Jim is also an enthusiastic "sports nut!" He favors especially tennis, ping pong, touch football, and bicycling.

Richard Leimbach comes from the spacious rural area of Norwalk, Ohio. He's taking his first crack at the asphalt jungle of big city life. Although Richard has been on the farm for most of his life, he has some rather sophisticated interests like electronics, harmonica playing, tape recording and guitar playing. Have a terrific year, Rich!

Everett Leisure, a wrestling enthusiast, rubbed shoulders with citizens of the San Jose area most of his life. His interests run from the gentlemanly hobby of stamp collecting to the more rugged skill of auto mechanics.

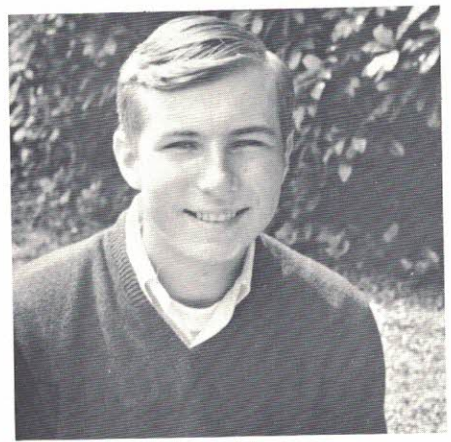

Mink ranching, gardening and land surveying are some job experiences Roy lists. He has been living on his own for the last 18 months while attending Church in Seattle, where he was a member of the Spokesman Club. His memories include living in his car while apple picking in Yakima.

Lee is a native Californian, having lived in San Pedro all his life. When he was a small boy, his grandparents dwelt in a girls' dorm here on campus. "Man upstairs!" is a familiar cry to him. Surfing and "blueprinting" are some of his diverse hobbies.

Judy journeys from Canada, where she was a student at Memorial University. Among her early experiences, she remembers eating a bottle of Vick's Vapo-Rub. An outdoor child, she likes hiking, hunting, and fishing. Her other wildlife experiences include teaching school for two years.

Mr. Malone has a wife and one child. He has attended both St. Louis University and Missouri University and majored in Business Administration. He trains horses and pilots airplanes.

Fred, a traveling man, attended 16 grade schools and 4 high schools. He did settle down long enough to attend S.E.P. three times, where he worked in the kitchen. One of his ambitions has been to have many farm animals.

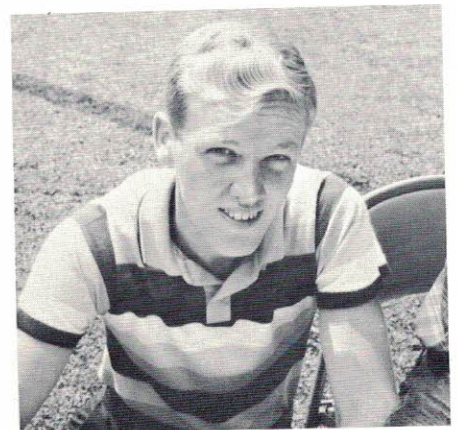

Lee Lisman

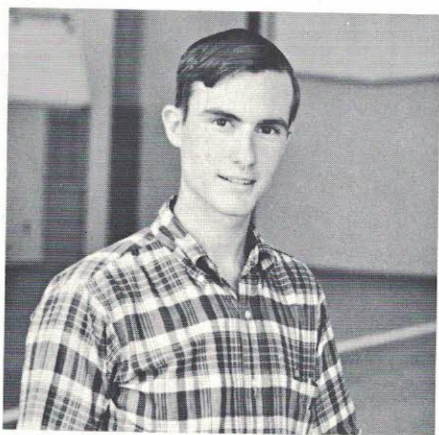

Judy Locke

James Malone

Fred Martin

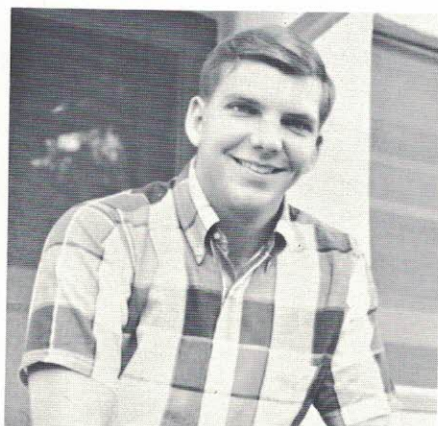

Ed Mauzey

Ed, a 19-year-old music major from Mt. San Antonio College, plays a string bass and tuba. He was on the MSAC tennis team, so we should see some rough competition this year. Ed enumerates his greatest highlights as first, being accepted to Ambassador, second, filling out a boring PORTFLIO form. BIG PORTFOLIO is watching you, Ed.

Mike McDermott

Jay hails from Corpus Christi, Texas, and has attended Texas A & I University. He likes surfing, baseball, reading, and football. Jay also says, "I like to have a lot of fun."

Jay Mayfield

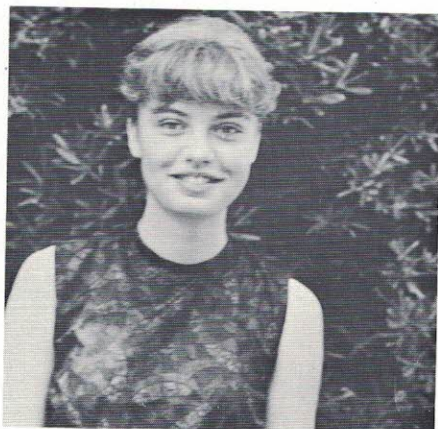

Kathy says that she is interested in graduating in four years. You will catch Kathy down in the kitchen. She had two years' waitress experience in a donut shop, so she should be at home in her present job. Anyone for coffee and??

Jack McKinney

Brenda comes to Ambassador from a large, happy home of six brothers, two sisters, and a Pekinese dog named Chiquita. Her hometown is Wichita, Kansas, where she lived most of her life.

Mike, who had been sharing an apartment with Wayne Phillips this summer in Seattle, has had two years of Junior College and two quarters at the University of Washington.

Kathy McAlister

Jack McKinney packed up his family of six and headed to Ambassador from Portland, Oregon. Mr. McKinney is interested and skilled in cabinetmaking, carpentry, and photography. Sports he enjoys include hunting with a bow and arrow, and handball. Jack graduated from the University of Portland with a B.A. major in psychology.

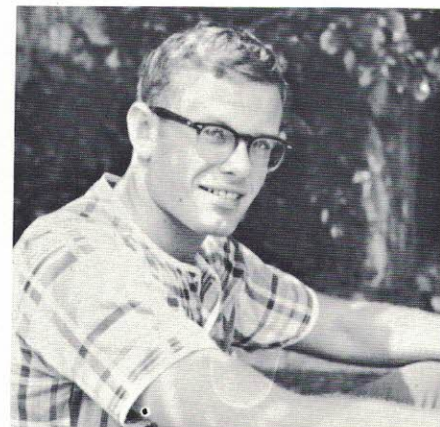

Joe Seefus

Joe Seefus the latest character to join the A. C. comic strip is of very humble origins. Born in the cerebral caverns of our balanced and mature Art Editor, Joe nonetheless had a distinguished academic career at Hebrew Union College. An avid reader of fiction, Joe Seefus amuses himself with works on worldly history.

Brenda McCulley

Roger is a farm boy who cut his first piece of firewood when he was three years old. It was about 1½ inches long. At age four, his family moved to another farm where he began cutting lumber up to ten feet long! Roger has a hobby of hunting and collecting Indian arrowheads. His favorite sport is basketball.

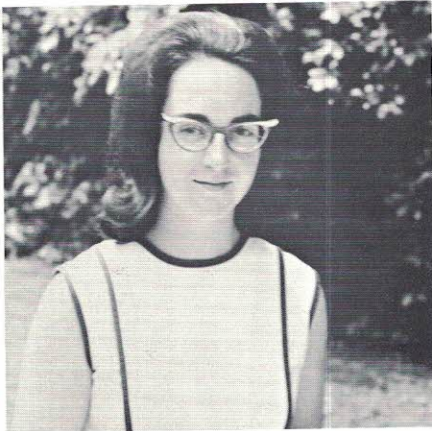

Roger Meyer

Joyce Miller

Right from Warrenton, Missouri and right from high school comes Joyce. Joyce tells us she is interested in cooking, sketching, reading, speleology (we had to look this one up too) and singing.

Betty Murphy

Betty comes to us from the Okanagan Valley City, Kilowna, in beautiful British Columbia, Canada. She is the 12th born in a family of seven boys and 5 girls. Her father being a CNR telegraph operator explains the many moves they made in Canada.

Ginger has a varied list of hobbies, skills, and interests. She likes to sing, play the piano, do library work, act in skits, sew, cook, draw and paint. Ginger is a born Texan and has lived her life in Lampasas, Texas, but her Southern accent is only barely noticeable.

Diane is a farm girl from way back and is also a big-city girl. She has spent 12 years on a farm outside Duluth, Minnesota and a few years in the streaming metropolis of Minneapolis. Diane favors roller skating and bowling above other sports, but likes to participate in them all. She also loves to cook and sew. Ambassador College has been Diane's goal for four years.

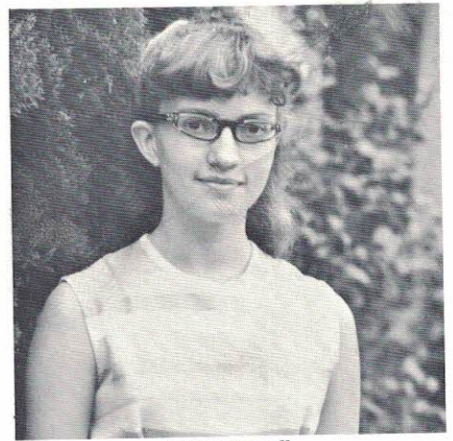

Ginger Murray

Teresa is from Texas' prettiest town, Abilene. One of her main interests is in music and singing, as she has been in school choirs for six years. Teresa is also a fan and participator of fast-moving sports, especially tennis and softball.

Liz, who is originally from Oregon but who later moved to South America, has traveled extensively throughout the entire continent. Liz also enjoys collecting stamps and playing guitar. Besides all this, Liz is Mignon's sister.

Gilbert Norman, another of our married students from Nebraska, has not only been a student but a teacher and coach as well. He taught math and coached basketball for several years before coming to Ambassador.

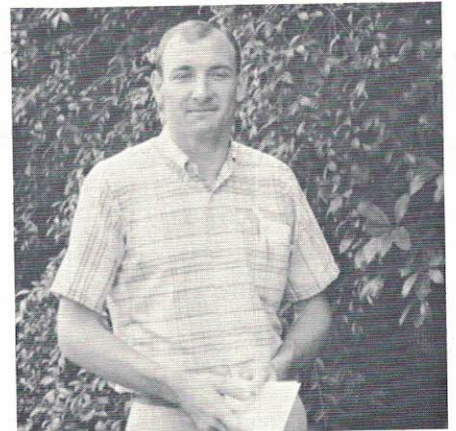

Vicki loves to model clay. We trust, though, that voodoo dolls are not her specialty. She likes all types of sports, especially volleyball. She was co-captain of several championship volleyball teams back in Chicago.

John Ogwyn, Jr.

Dave Pack

Jack Pakozdi

Glen Parker

Interested in cartooning and history, John (18) should be able to appreciate The PORTFOLIO's own AC comic strip. He worked three years as a law clerk and two years as a reporter in the Louisiana Legislature.

Dave developed the swimming habit at age six and hasn't been able to give it up since. He was all-American three years in high school. Dave also enjoys most other forms of athletics and chess. We will probably find his tall frame adorning the freshman basketball squad.

Jack's interest in science was always prevalent in his life. That with a later interest in teaching led him to Mansfield State College where he graduated last spring with a B.S. in Education. Jack comes from a small, rural town of 6,000 in western New York state "amid rolling green hills and abundant farmland."

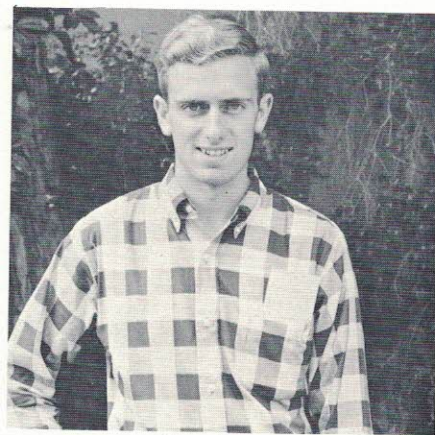

Glen graduated from Texas Tech as a Bachelor of Business Administration. Despite his 23 years, he has managed to remain a bachelor otherwise, also. He attended high school in Midland, Texas, where he was manager of the football team.

Steve is originally from Iowa, but moved to Minneapolis this summer to help earn money for college expenses. His mind samples basketball or electronics with equal relish. Steve has worked at a furniture store for six years and is an expert in furniture repair.

Paula Piatt was brought up on an Oklahoma farm. She then went to college two and one-half years to receive a Secretarial Certificate, enabling her to be a secretary for an oil company in Oklahoma City. Paula Jean plays piano and accordion and enjoys bowling, badminton and volleyball.

Bill Pletka is the younger half of one of our many brother-sister teams here at college. Bill hasn't found many of his talents yet, but admits to being able to push a lawn mower fairly well. Could this be a tip for the Gardening Department?

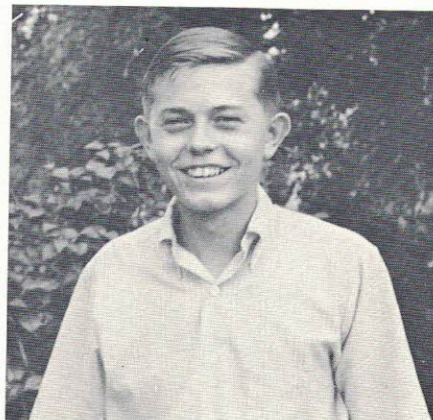

Pat Powell, 18, is a 1967 graduate of Pleasant Hill High School in Hemmingway, South Carolina. She says, "until I was in the 7th grade I could beat up any of the boys in my class."

Arlene Pratt tells us she is following her sister's footsteps to Ambassador College. Along the way to Ambassador, Arlene has picked up a National Honor Society membership, an interest in many sports, and a fondness for piano and accordion.

William Rabey comes to Ambassador from Montreal. His favorite sports are baseball and soccer. Bill says he also enjoys musical movies occasionally. His mother is French and his father is English; thus Bill also speaks French fluently.

Rosemary Ragland plays the piano, sews, reads a lot, and enjoys children very much. She brings with her to Ambassador a high school valedictorianship and a membership in the National Honor Society.

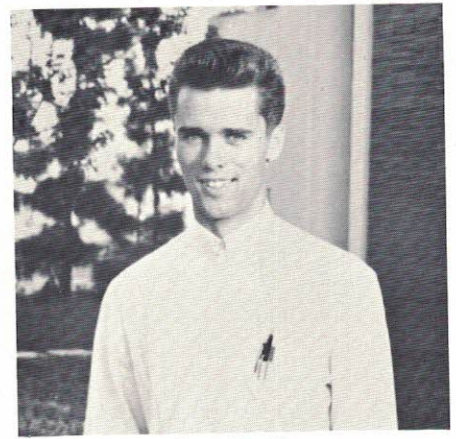

Another TEXAN! Cynthia Ramsey comes from Houston, Texas. She is interested in tennis, sewing, swimming, sailing, and music and spent the past two summers teaching sailing. She attended Rice University for one year — studying calculus (to us that's math) and evolution.

Chuck Ranchie from Winnipeg, Manitoba, unabashedly states that he is only 18 and has had seven loves already. The first one was a 1948 Dodge, the second a 57 Merc', the next a Ford, etc. Besides being a car lover, Chuck has done sheet metal work, farming, ditchdigging and a host of other things for experience and for a living.

Barbara is an "action-filled" girl who loves "action-filled" things. Sister of the two Rand men, she comes from Eugene, Oregon, after washing down from Aberdeen, Washington, where she spent the first 15 years of her life.

Meet an unmarried 18-year-old female from Kansas City, Missouri. Susan has been through the House of Representatives. She spent two summers at the S.E.P. program. Lack of patience in learning 500 new names causes her frustration. Well, Susan, take heart. The PORTFOLIO has come to your rescue!

Glenn Purdy, look out! Here's a girl with a big beat sound! Ardis Ann Rike comes from a farm near Edinburg, North Dakota. She not only beats the drums but swings on the trumpet during intermission.
