

now is the hour

1966
Women's Club

BRUNCH

Broiled Sirloin Steak
Fried Eggs
Grilled Mushrooms & Tomatoes
Hot Rolls & Butter
Coffee & Tea

The combined Women's Clubs of Ambassador College present this ENVOY insert in lieu of the 1966 ENVOY.

Traditionally the college yearbook is autographed at the Brunch. Women's Club hopes this pamphlet will enable you to obtain many signatures that will stir memories throughout the years to come.

"Look, Linda, I know it's a nice cake, but I still can't let you off morning exercises."

Early in the year we had "do it yourself" meals.

"Let's see, he's getting married at the end of the year and so is he – so that leaves him, and him."

Graemme: "Well, Colin, it's about this girl. . . ."

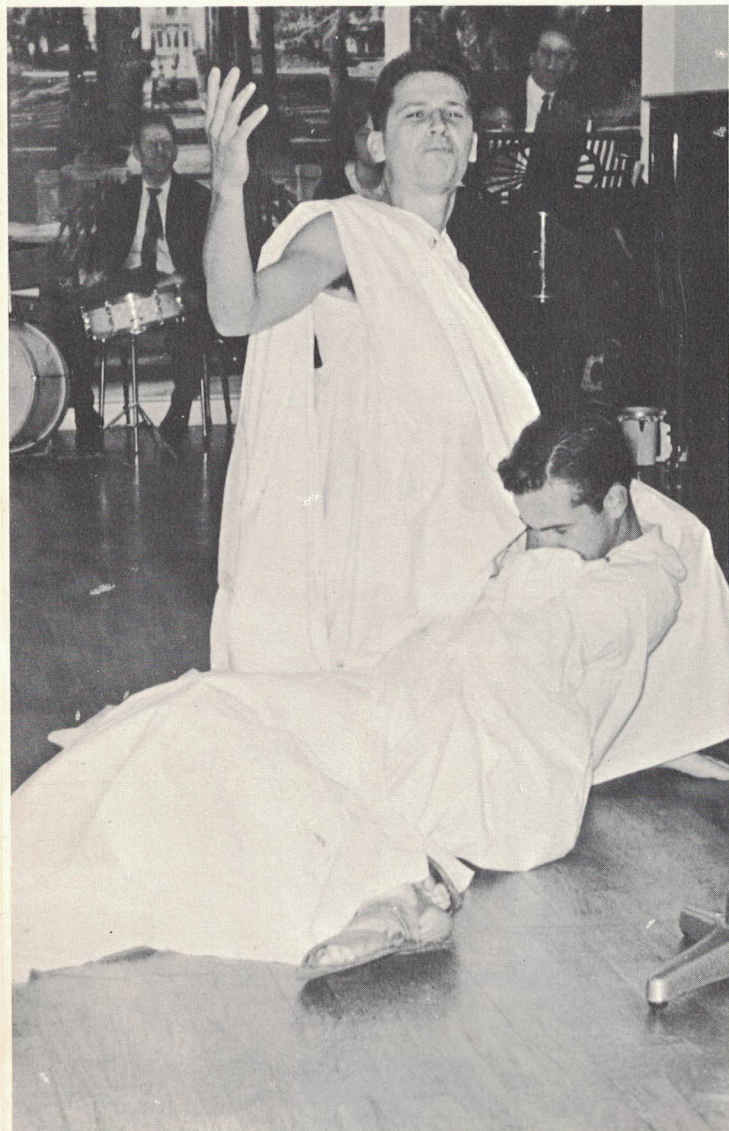

"Dad! What do I do now?"

Musicology Students must learn an instrument.

Poo-poo-pe-do!

"He owed me five quid."

The daily visit to the "Green Van" is a broadening experience. It really develops the whole person.

You do good to me — I do good to you.

