Dear Brother Mote:

Your letter of Dec. 25th addressed to my son-in-law Gordon Farnth came to my attention this morning which I will be glad to answer. We regret the delay owing to the time required in letters coming but we trust this will reach you in time.

We want you to feel free, dear use any article a description in the "Reporter" in our in the future, also the "Reporter" in our will give credit to the "Mount Zion Reporter", published in Jerusalem Israel.

The speaking of me, and I have had the honor challenger, with whom I was well and intimately acquainted attended our camp meeting in 1918 during the winter for 18 years.

was Editor of the "Mount Zion Reporter" at Washington D.C. back about 1918, who also attended our camp meeting at my invitation with Elder Barber, who you now of my deep interest in your publication, and I hope you are doing well.

Yours continue to please you is our prayer

Your Brother in the same faith.
