Mr. Donald E. Mote,
3210 Prospect Ave.,
Riverside, Calif.

Dear Mr. Mote:

Upon re-reading the will we find this clause--"In the event the work of the Gathering Call shall cease, then in that case I direct that the unused portion of said ($3,000.00) Three Thousand Dollars, together with the assets or value thereof, be distributed to the residuary legatees in the portions as hereinafter provided." Therefore it would seem essential that there be a list of said assets made a matter of record. As to the books, we feel that a record of the number of volumes and the names of the few valuable ones is all that is necessary.

In as much as Mrs. White is to spend next week in Riverside we hereby authorize her, together with Louise and Oswald Ballenger if she wishes them to help, to make this list in co-operation with you.

If you have them already packed and moved this could be done at your new location. We leave that decision to you.

Sincerely

Lola Eckman Executor

Estate of Edward S. Ballenger, Dec'd.
