Sir:

A few days ago the July 1930 number of your paper fell into my hands and I notice on the back page some advertisements of "Gospel Literature". Please send me the tracts numbered 13, 16, and 20. I would like to look these over. But please do me the kindness not to interpret this as an indication, in the slightest degree, that I am in sympathy with the work of opposition that you are carrying on against the denomination. I love my church better than anything else on earth, and it greatly grieves me to see men of ability turning away from us and using their time and talents to oppose and obstruct, and to become accusers of the brethren. I believe the Church of Christ is made up of individuals all of whom are imperfect in knowledge, and subject to misconceptions of truth. But the best way to help them, as I view it, is not to get on the outside and fight, but to stay on the inside and exhort "in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself lest thou also be tempted."

Enclosed you will find 30¢ in stamps for the tracts. I am

Sincerely,

O. F. Frank
