Scope and Content

Albion (1861-1921) and Edward (1864-1955) Ballenger were leading critics of the Seventh-day Adventist Church beginning in the early days of the 20th century and carrying forward to the death of Edward. In Edward's latter years, Donald Mote began helping him in his work. After Edward's death, Mote continued the work until the early 1990s. The trio were primarily against the sanctuary view commonly held by most Seventh-day Adventists. They also opposed the authority and position of Ellen G. White. Besides tracts and small publications their main voice was The Gathering Call magazine.

This collection is all that Donald Mote had in his home/office in 1996. The Adventist Heritage Center curator went to his Riverside, California, home and cleaned out anything related to Ballenger. What is in this collection is the contents of about four file cabinets plus gleanings from an extremely dirty attic and garage. Also taken was the library begun by A. F. Ballenger and maintained and augmented by E. S. Ballenger and Donald Mote.

One or more sets of photocopies of portions of these files may exist. Loma Linda University Heritage Room has one set and Andrews University had another set until we obtained the originals. These photocopied sets may not be complete. Mote photocopied only portions of the files.

Through the papers in this collection one can gain a deep insight into the message of the Ballenger brothers and Mote.

Arrangement

The entire collection is organized into one large alphabetical filing. Some folders are empty and serve as place holders to show what was originally in the collection. In these instances, the contents were not deemed significant enough to remain with the collection. Also, through the inventory are the following abbreviations: AFB = Albion Fox Ballenger; ESB = Edward S. Ballenger; DEM = Donald E. Mote. This is shorthand to save space.

Provenance

The Adventist Heritage Center purchased this collection from Donald Mote in 1996.

Use

All users of this collection are required to complete the "Application to Use Unpublished Records," and to observe the regulations specified in the "Patron's Agreement" and the "Researchers Code of Conduct." All records in this collection are open and available for research. Citation for this collection is:

- Box 1a List of folders and folder contents found in the Ballenger/Mote photocopied collection in the Loma Linda University Heritage Room. This does not follow the arrangement found in this inventory but could prove somewhat useful to a researcher who may not wish to peruse the entire collection. This could prove to be something of a short cut. Bear in mind that it may not entirely reflect what is in this collection at Andrews University.
