Dear Editor:-

I am inclosing herewith an advertizement which I would like for you to place in your publication which you have been sending to us, and which we appreciate. Kindly send me a statement as to the cost of the same. Run it in just one paper as it is not necessary for it being repeated.

Inclosed also find a little token of interest, which your readers might be interested in. We get 25¢ each post paid for single copies of this mustard seed card, and also for the photo of Lot's wife, which also has a lump of salt from the hill of Sodom where she sits, and which is all salt. For quantities of these we sell them for 15¢ each postpaid. We can either pay you for running the following add in U. S. currency, sent from the U.S., or with an order from you for these souvenirs.

Thanking you in advance for running the add in your good paper or for mentioning it in your tracts, with best of wishes, hoping to hear from you, I am

Yours very sincerely in Christian fellowship.

Editor.

P.S. A sample copy is being sent to you on this mail. You have received previous issues I am sure. A.N.D.

Please run this add, as follows:-
