In the foreground you see a portion of the east wall around the Old City, and to your right is the Golden gate, the Eastern gate, through which Yahshua (Jesus) passed riding upon an ass as prophesied by Zechariah chapter 9 verse 9, recorded also in Mathew 21: 4 to 9. Ezekiel said this gate would be closed and never opened, because the Lord passed through it (Ezekiel 44: 1 to 3). Note the Mohammedan cemetery surrounding the gate. This has kept it closed and no man has ever passed through.

UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS SHATTERING EARTH'S FIELD OF GRAVITY

By George D. Fawcett

Evidence is mounting that unidentified flying objects have the power to suspend the Earth's gravitational force and cause objects to float in the air as if they were weightless.

That is the only conclusion to be drawn from a growing number of verified incidents in which men and objects floated in the air when approached by UFOs.

This much can hardly be denied. What remains unanswered is how and why UFOs violate the laws of gravity that keep all of us riveted to Earth.

It is striking that the most recent reported worldwide UFO encounters often include descriptions of persons and objects being made weightless.

"The UFO wave of 1973 and 1974 opened up a whole new dimension with UFO encounters that involved levitation contacts," one prominent UFO observer said.

The most widely publicized UFO encounter in which gravity was suspended involved the two fishermen at Pascagoula, Miss., last Oct. 11. A lie detector test indicated that fishermen Charles E. Hickson and Calvin Parker were telling the truth when they said they were taken aboard a UFO.

The two men said they seemed to just float into the alien ship as it hovered above them.

While that incident is the most celebrated recent example of UFO induced weightlessness, it is by no means the only one.

their garage lifted up and was suspended briefly in mid-air when a UFO passed overhead.

And hardly more than a year ago in Winston Salem, N.C., attorney G. Ray Motsinger and wife related how they were lifted out of their car seats when a UFO flew just in front of their auto at a low altitude.

Just Last October, Eddie Deutsch of Catawissa, Pa., related that his auto was lifted off the pavement and was turned completely around when a saucer-shaped object passed near him.

On the very same day, Robert Eicholz of St. Louis, Mo. reported another bizarre incident involving UFO-induced suspension of gravity.

The still astounded auto repair company owner related that he had gone on a fishing trip to a Pond near Red Bud, Ill.

While he was fishing, he said, a UFO appeared over the pond.

He noticed as the UFO came into view that the bobbers on his fishing lines floated in the air above the water.

He later theorized that the UFOs exerted a magnetic pull on the metal in his bobbers.

Only three days later an Army Reserve helicopter pilot, Capt. Lawrence Coyne, reported his encounter with a UFO.

When the mysterious object approached his helicopter at a high rate of speed, Coyne put the copter into a dive.

But when he checked his altimeter reading it

While such incidents have been reported more often in recent months, similar occurrences have surfaced over a period of years.

In 1954, A Frenchman related that the horse on which he was riding was lifted into the air when a circular object passed overhead.

Reports from such widely separated locations as Texas and Airica tell of sheep and cattle floating in the air when UFOs passed over.

In 1971, engineer Sten Sture Cedar was driving his car near Alvbynagen, Sweden, when suddenly his car was surrounded by "vertical beams of light."

Cedar slammed on his brakes, but his car continued to move along the highway.

Afterward, he found the brakes in working order, but there were no skid marks to be found on the highway.

He could only conclude that his car had floated above the pavement.

But such incidents are now occurring with mystifying regularity.

Last Feb. 14, two men reported a strange UFO encounter near Ely, Nev. When a half dozen UFOs approached their truck, the men said, they felt as if they had been struck by a "blast of wind" or some sort of "force field."

They said their truck floated in the air and there was a disruption of the vehicle's electrical system.

"It was as if we were in some kind of vacuum," they said.

These latest reports of UFOs suspending gravity can only be added to a growing mystery that amounts to nothing less than a cosmic jigsaw puzzle.

Back in 1959, Leo Bartsch, 744 S. 4th St., Coos Bay, Ore. became weightless when UFO flew over.

In Gen. 19: 16 the men (angels) laid hold upon Lot's hand and set him without the City.

When the UFO men laid hold upon Hickson and Parker's hands, they became weightless.

Read Heb. 13: 2, some will entertain angels unawares. Read also Kings 2: 11, 12.

Submitted by Leo Bartsch, a long time reader of the Reporter.

COMMUNIST RULES

Lest anyone be lured into thinking that the world communist movement has shifted its strategy and tactics over the decades, here are excerpts from the "COMMUNIST RULES FOR REVOLUTION," a document that was captured by the allied forces in Dusseldorf in May, 1919. It might explain some of today's happenings:

Corrupt the young, get them away from religion. Get them interested in sex. Make them superficial, destroy their ruggedness.

Get control of all means of publicity and thereby:

1. Get people's minds off their government by focusing their attention on athletics, sexy books and plays, and other trivialities.
2. Divide the people into hostile groups by constantly harping on controversial matters of no importance.
3. Destroy the people's faith in their natural leaders by holding the latter up to contempt, ridicule and obloquy (disgrace).
4. Always preach true democracy BUT SEIZE POWER as fast and as ruthlessly as possible.
5. By encouraging government extravagance destroy its credit, produce fear of inflation with rising prices and general discontent.
6. Foment unnecessary strikes in vital industries, encourage civil disorders, and foster a lenient and soft attitude on the part of government towards such disorders.
7. By specious (plausible, appearing to be true but not true) argument cause the breakdown of the OLD MORAL VIRTUES: honesty, sobriety, continence, faith in the pledged word, ruggedness.

Cause the registration of all firearms on some pretext, with the view of confiscation of them and leaving the population helpless.

Christians need to wake up! We're living in solemn, terrible days, when prophecy of the Bible is taking place right before our eyes.

LET US ALL BE ONE

At a time like this, all variance and divisions among Sabbath keepers should be forgotten. All trouble forgiven, and all groups fellowship together, for they are the Father's children in harmony with Rev. 12: 17 and Eph. 3: 14 and 15.

Not Under Law But Under Grace

"For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace." — Romans 6: 14.

The Lord declares, "By grace are ye saved, through faith, and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God." — Eph. 2: 8. The one who attempts to receive salvation through works is deceived, coming short of the calling through Jesus Christ our Lord.

"Not of works, lest any man should boast." — Eph. 2: 9. Salvation being of so great consequence, it is impossible to earn it; but God declares it to be a free gift, only to those who are worthy. The great need today is for men and women everywhere to serve their God in a way well pleasing to Him, that they may merit the wonderful gift of eternal life. Jesus says, "Watch and pray always that ye may be accounted WORTHY." — Luke 21: 36. It necessitates earnest and fervent prayer to God. Unless people pray for divine help, they cannot stand aloof from the world of pleasure and sin, and live that life pleasing to the Father in heaven. We must remain connected by heaven's radio to that power system above, so divine virtue can flow into us, giving heavenly strength to overcome, power to resist evil, and love in our hearts to find real joy of service, and obedience to divine precept.

Instead of seeking an easy way and finding excuses for walking with the world, let us seek earnestly for God's holy presence, giving us an overcoming life.

Peter says of Paul's writings, "In all of his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also THE OTHER SCRIPTURES, unto their own destruction." — 2 Peter 3: 15-16.

Dear one, will YOU not take warning, and examine yourself, to see if you may not be "wresting" the writings to your destruction, Paul says: "Ye are not under the law but under grace." Are you wresting this to mean that you do not need to keep the commandments in this age, because you are free from the condemnation of death, it does not give us liberty to break the law of God, and again sin, any more than a pardon from the Governor of the state gives the holder the right to again commit murder.

The Lord says, "For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to OBEY, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin into death, or of obedience unto righteousness?" — Rom. 6: 14-16. So, dear reader, let us no longer wrest Paul's writings to our own destruction: Let us no longer yield ourselves to law violation, but to obedience through aith. "Being then made free from sin, ye become the servants of righteousness". "But now being made free from sin, and become servants of God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." — Rom. 6: 18, 22, 23.

The first verse of the next chapter of Romans, viz., 7: 1, shows conclusively that the law of God was not abolished, but at that time, 66 A.D., was binding. It says, Know ye not, brethren, for I speak to them that now the law, how that the law (not did have, but) hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth," 66 A.D., therefore it has today. Verse 7 mentions one commandment of the ten, showing it is the ten command-of the first part of this chapter, whatever some may wrongly wrest it to mean, is summed up in verse 12, as follows; WHEREFORE the law IS holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good." In verse 22, He says, "For I delight in the law of God after the inward man."

Again the Lord defines sin, by saying, "Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law, for sin is the transgression of the law." — I John 3: 4.

In the old dispensation people were justified by the works of the sacrificial law. They brought an offering for their sin, and had a blood atonement made, but now in the gospel dispensation, we are not justified by the works of any law, but by faith in the blood that was shed on Calvary. There can be no justification (pardon) granted in this age by the works of any law, a diligent observance of every one of the ten commandments will not give us a decree of pardon for breaking them. Pardon and forgiveness of sin comes through repentance and asking the Father for it in prayer. May God have mercy, and give you spiritual discernment from this time forward, seeing that He has thus granted you favor by putting this message into your hands.

An Illustration

When a man violates the civil law of our state by committing first degree murder, and is convicted of the crime, he is sentenced to either life imprisonment or death. His liberty is taken away and at once he comes under the power of the law that forbids the taking of human life. He is bound over to the executioner or prison authorities to pay the penalty for his crime. There is now but one recourse: there is but one way to escape. He may be given a decree of pardon by the governor of the state, and if so, his liberty is granted. This man is set free, and no longer remains under the condemnation of the law that forbade murder, he is under the grace or favor of the governor. The governor has issued him a pardon for his sin and he is free. He has his liberty, but he is not free to (again) break the civil law without fear of its consequence and the penalty being again enforced. He now stands "not under the law but under grace." Grace means favor, and the Governor has granted him the great favor of life, releasing him from the condemnation of paying the penalty, which is death.

Application

The Lord says: "ALL have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." Rom. 3: 23. Also, "The wages of sin is death." — Rom. 6: 23. Therefore, everyone stands in the position before God, corresponding to the foregoing figure, for ALL have sinned. Then the penalty of death hangs upon every soul. We are ALL bound over to the executioner to pay the penalty of death. There is but one recourse: there is but one hope of release, and that is to have issued to us a decree of pardon, from the Lord Jesus Christ. He stands in the position toward us as did the governor toward the criminal, and He is the One who has the power to set free, and release us from the penalty of death. Those who believe in the power of the blood of Jesus to forgive and grant pardon to them for their sins, come humbly beseeching that mercy may be extended and pardon granted. It is done, it is freely forgiven, to the truly repentant sinner, and while this sets us free from the condemnation already on every head. It takes something outside and separate from this. It requires an acceptance of the blood of the Lord Jesus Christ and by faith in this great trans-tion. Not by works, but by grace are ye saved through faith. But this does not grant us a privilege of law violation which is sin.

Neither can we today be justified or pardoned as in the old dispensation by offering up animal sacrifices. The work of this ordinance law will no longer grant pardon or justification, but we must come boldly to the throne of grace through faith in the blood shed on Calvary. We are ALL accounted under sin, and a careful observance of the commandments of God henceforth will not give pardon or justification, any more than the murderer bound over to pay the penalty for law violation, can get pardon by law observance. It takes something separate and apart from that. It requires a pardon from the governor to obtain freedom, and so with us, we must come to God through Jesus Christ, and through faith receive forgiveness, pardon, and justification, but not for the purpose of law violation, but obedience unto righteousness. — Rom. 6: 16-18. Sin is the transgression of the law. See also James 1st chapter, and especially chapter 2: 8-11. Also 1 John 5: 3, 4; Rev. 14: 12, 22: 14.

The ten commandments are also spoken of in James 2nd chapter, and elsewhere in the Scriptures, as the law of liberty because their violation forfeits liberty. Every criminal confined in the penitentiaries of our land has lost his liberty because of having violated one of the ten commandments. Jesus declares, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (John 8: 32) — not free to become violent and do as you please, but free from sin and death, with a full guarantee of liberty forever.

The great cause for wrongly wresting Paul's writings and claiming the ten commandments to be abolished is that the fourth one declares the seventh day to be the Sabbath of the Lord, while the world keeps the first day.

We praise the Lord, however, that thousands of honest souls all over the world are walking out in the light, being forgiven of all sin through Christ, and observing all of God's commandments, to be worthy of eternal life. — Rev. 14: 12, and 22: 14.

One Law Was Abolished Another Remains

That the ten commandments of God are perpetual and immutable, will be quickly seen and willingly admitted when the facts are disclosed. The crime wave sweeping the world, wherein each offense is a violation of one or another of the ten commandments, should make every father and mother carefully consider, and anxious to learn the facts pertaining to this vital question. The hateful deception that God's holy commandments have been abolished and nailed to the cross, has had a world wide sowing, and how horrible the harvest, but the searchlight of God's precious Word focussed squarely on the situation are every-where awakening to the fact, that it was the law of Moses and not the law of God that was abolished at the crucifixion of Christ.

HISTORY OF THE CHURCH

THREE HUNDRED TO FOUR HUNDRED A. D.

All of the congregations in Judaea in the days of the early church were known as "the churches of God" (Kenesayah), — 1 Thes. 2: 14. This name together with the creed or doctrine of the commandments and the faith of Jesus (Hebrew Yahshua), has been preserved down through history unto the present time, and the same body with the same faith still exists today. It is also restored back to Jerusalem and the Holy Land from whence it sprang nearly two thousand years ago, and remained until 70 A.D. Then the members fled with the Jews at the time of the Roman invasion. Now as the Jews have returned, the same church with the same doctrine has returned with them.

In speaking of the church in Palestine at that time, "Hue Smith's Church History" says: "The church escaped the horrors of the siege of Jerusalem by following the warning of Christ (Matt. 24) and fleeing to the mountains beyond the Jordan. This timely retreat was made to the small town of Pella."

We read in the book: "Hulpert's Story of the Christian Church" — pages 41 and 42, as follows: "From the utterances of Yahshua, the church received warning, escaping the doomed city found refuge at Pella in the Jordan valley".

In the history of the "Christian Church by Hugo" — pages 50 and 51 we read: "The first fifteen Bishops of Jerusalem were all Jews excepting possibly one (St. Mark), and the congregation over which they presided united the teachings of Moses with the doctrine of Christ."

In the "Anti-Nicean Fathers volume 1 we read: "In the second century Ignitius wrote to the Smyrneans thus, 'To the Church of God in Smyrna' — page 29. Also "The Church of God in Philadelphia." This was in the 4th century A.D. —

We quote from "The International Standard Dictionary" recently purchased at Jerusalem, volume 3, page 1613 as follow: "When Hadrian visited Jerusalem in 130 A.D. one of the few buildings left standing was the little 'Church of God' on he site where the apostles returning after the ascension of the Saviour from Olivet had gone (up) to the (upper) room, for there is had been built, hat is to say on the quarter of Zion."

We quote from the "Church History by Lewis", page 1, as follows: "The ancient synod Laodicea made a decree against the Sabbath 321 A.D. (chapter 29), Pope Gregory the great, affirmed that it was Judaizing."

From "Hulbert's Story of the Christian Church", page 15, we quote as follows: "As long as the church was mainly Jewish, the Hebrew Sabbath was kept, but as it became increasingly Gentile the first day gradually took he place of the seventh day."

In the Ecclesiastical History" — volume 1, chapter 2, page 30, we read: "While the Jewish christians of Palestine retained the entire Mosaic law, and consequently the Jewish festivals, the Gentile christians observed also the Sabbath and the Passover. — 1 Cor. 5: 6-8".

Another book, "Church History Apostolic Age to 70 A.D. by Lewis S and S" — page 13: "While the Christians of Palestine who kept the whole Jewish law celebrated of course all the Jewish festivals, the heathen (Gentiles) converts observed only the Sabbath."

DR. ARIUS

Dr. Arius, the most talented and intellectual spiritual leader of the 4th century was a staunch observer of the 7th day Sabbath and observed the Lord's Supper at the time of the Jewish Passover on the 14th of the 1st month Abib. He also emphasized the power of the Holy Spirit in the life of the believer.

In the year 325 A.D. a general church council was called by Constantine, Emperor of Rome, to convene at Nice, which 323 bishops attended, most of whom were from the Western churches. Dr. Arius and his doctrine was the main topic for discussion, resulting in his banishment, together with other bishops on the islands of the sea. We find the following in "Whaley's Church History", page 37, published by the Presbyterian board. "A dispute arose at an early period between the Eastern Asiatic (Jerusalem) churches, and the Western (Roman) churches over the time to celebrate the Passover. The Latin (Western) churches celebrated it on Sunday, the first Sunday after the 14th of the first month Abib... This caused so much trouble between the East and the West, until it was finally settled at the council of Nice in favor of the Latin (Roman) churches A.D. 325."

We quote from "Sermons on the Sabbath and Sacrament," by William Jones, page 122, 123: "When the practice of keeping Saturday which had become so general to the close of this century (the 4th), was evidently gaining ground in the Eastern churches a decree was passed at the council of Laodicea A.D. 364, that members of the church should not rest from work on the Sabbath".

We quote from "History of the First Century", by Eusebius, written 1700 years ago, page 243, quote: "The Sabbath was not dropped by the church at Laodicea until the year 363". Page 38, he says: "The Jewish christians also observed the Sabbath."

We now quote from "Ancient Christianity Exemplified", by Coleman. He says: "The last day of the week was strictly kept a long time after the overthrow of the Temple, and even down to the fifth century". During the early age of the church it (referring to the first day of the week), was never entitled the Sabbath. This word being confined to the seventh day of the week, the Jewish Sabbath, which as we have already said continued to be observed for several centuries by converts to Christianity. — Chapter 6 Section 2.

We note that the Sabbath is called, "The Jewish Sabbath" only by man, but no such reference is found in the Scriptures. It was observed by the Jews because they were God's chosen people. In the New Testament it is clearly set forth that this Seventh Day Rest, is for the people of God. — Hebrews 4: 4-9. —

That the Saviour was resurrected on the (First) day, giving it the title "Lord's Day", is also a false teaching emanating from Rome, and does not harmonize with the Scriptures, or agree with the only sign given by the Messiah, viz. that he would be in the grave THREE DAYS AND THREE NIGHTS. — Matt. 12: 40.

LIFE IN ISRAEL

By EFFIE DUGGER

Shalom!

Greetings of peace from Israel. It is August 11 now and we are a little late getting the Paper out, so I must write my piece. We are thankful for the faithful helpers, but are still sad about the ones who had to leave us.

The days have been beautiful and sunny and not too warm. Now in almost the middle of August there are a few floating clouds which pass over here and then disappear before they come to Jordan.

My husband and I still work long hours, but I had a forced vacation. I had some trouble caused by a neglected callous on the bottom of my foot. Excruciating pains extended up into my hip. Someone recommended us to have a man come and take off the callous. He knew exactly what to do and our daughter Naomi came every day to help me until I could be up again. A callous is a very little thing but it can cause a lot of trouble and should not be neglected. Thanks for all the prayers which have ascended in our behalf.

Now it is like a new life, My friends and neighbors are rejoicing that I am healed. We are in the end time, we are thankful to be in the land of Israel where the Father is leading His people. When things begin to look hopeless then the Saviour will come to Zion and to them that look for Him shall He appear without sin unto salvation. Hebrews 9:28. That is a special promise to the Hebrew people.

It is interesting to see things happening which indicate we are near the end of time. We were discussing some of the present-day happenings at the Sabbath-closing meeting at our home here yesterday. My husband said, we are near the opening of the 6th seal in Rev. 6: 12-17. The plagues do not start until the servants of God are sealed and a certain number are sealed from the Tribes of Israel.

This is an interesting time to be living in. May we all think of these things seriously and be prepared for what is coming to pass, and stand before The Son of Man.

The sad chapter concerning Mr. Nixon has ended it seems. Some of the Arab countries are wondering if the new President will fulfill all the promises that Mr. Nixon made to them.

Israel truly appreciated the kindness and thoughtfulness that Mr. Nixon always expressed toward this little State. He never let Israel down, and we believe that President Ford will continue in the same helpful spirit as his predecessor had.

The U. S. A. has fulfilled a wonderful Chapter in the world of events. It was truly a land of promise for persecuted ones of other countries. My fathers people came to America from England before the Revolutionary War and my mothers people came from Germany to Penn.

The Earth truly helped the woman at that time according to Rev. 12:16. There will certainly be more trouble for the remnant of the woman as well as for the Remnant of Israel but the promises are all for the faithful. The U.S.A. also became a home for thousands of Jewish people who have appreciated the freedom of speech and of worship found in that wonderful land.

Now, while everyone is looking forward to the coming Peace Conference the ones who see most vitally concerned for peace are preparing for war in a much bigger way than ever before. They are lining up according to Ezekiel 38 Chapter. Before this paper reaches you we may have entered the next phase of earthly event.

Let us set our affections on things above and not on things on this earth. The Bible is full of promises to the Overcomer. Read the 21 Chapter of Revelation.

DANIEL AND REVELATION

Now we have printed another twelve thousand of the book of Daniel together with the book of Revelation, in the Hebrew and twelve thousand in the English. We are sure that Gabriel and Michael through whom these great prophecies were given will be pleased with us, unitedly to give them to the "Chosen People" from whom they have been withheld all of these years. Offerings for this work are needed.

WAS MAN CREATED OR DID HE EVOLVE

By The EDITOR

It is quite generally agreed by all candid and intelligent men that there are mysteries in this world the solution of which still puzzles the greatest minds in the universe. One of these unfathomed mysteries which challenge the attention of all scientists is the origin of the earth, the origin of life, and of the different species, of life. The very fact that the different schools of science widely disagree on all these important problems, injects serious doubts into the mind of the casual observer, as to correctness of any of them, which they themselves admit are only theories.

The word science comes from a root word meaning "to know" — consequently none of these admitted theories are true science, because none of them prove their claims, and admit it when they call their explanations, "theories".

There is one group of scientists called evolutionists who in their solution removes all doubt, but still they disagree among themselves as to origin, and the time required in the process. One of these learned gentlemen asserts that his theory banishes all supernatural elements from any natural phenomena. As a practical people, we demand facts, and not theories for these basic and important questions. They speak in the name of science, but do not qualify for that word means "To Know", and their theories fail in the acid laboratory test tubes, or before the weight of sound logic and clear reasoning.

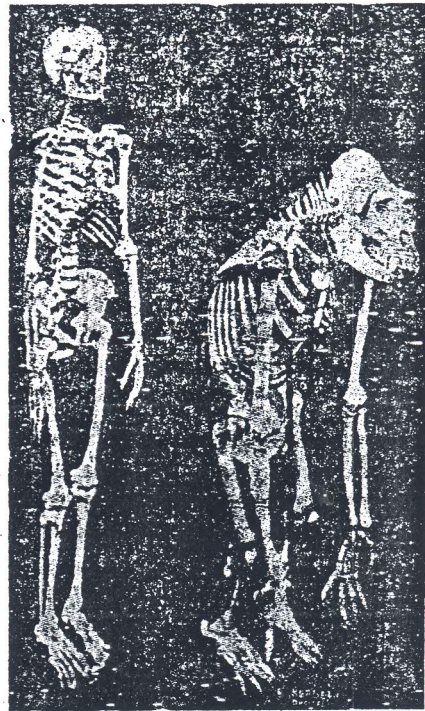

Science has utterly failed to give the world an intelligent answer to the origin of life, while they expound many different theories, clashing with one another. Some mate the (age) of this earth and other (sister) planets in twenty five million to ten BILLION years. This enormous discrepancy proves them to be only a mere guess.

A number of years ago it was supposed that the theory "Nebular Hypothesis" fully explained the origin and evolution of our solar system. Now it is being discredited by such men as Dr. Harlow Shapley of the Harlow College Observatory and also Professor Earnest I. Opik of the Tartu University Observatory of Estonia. He says that stars of the different spectral classes cannot have evolved from each other, but must have been created simultaneously, and their age is too short for any evolution." Science News Letters.

Other famous scientists and astronomers denounce the whole "Nebular Hypotheses" as false, that this earth was once a part of the sun, and that it was a large chunk violently thrown away by an eruption, and that it gradually cooled off and life formed upon it is contrary to all laws of life. Just moderate heat will always destroy any form of life, say nothing about the million degrees of heat on the sun. Certainly a part of the sun would be so completely sterilized that no life in any form would be left on it. Consequently their theory proves to be false. The well known and famous Astronomer Dr. J.H. Jeans writes in his book on Cosmogony, "Everything points with overwhelming force to a definite event, or a series of events at sometime or times not infinitely remote. The Universe cannot have originated by change out of its present ingredients, and neither can it always have been the same as now". Page 55.

There have been thousands of attempts to make some form of life in the laboratory test tubes, but all have failed. The theories of evolutionists are without foundation of fact. The world famous Dr. Pasteur, the one who originated and discovered "Bacteriology" confesses that we know nothing about the origin of life. After H.G. Wells propounds theories, then he makes an honest confession and says, "We do not know how life began on this earth."

Would it have been an easier job for God to have created the Amoeba what they call the smallest possible form of life, than to have created a fish, a frog, or a man? If the "amoeba" were the first thing and the only form of life created, it would have lived only until it starved, for every form of life exists on food from other forms of life. Every effort of scientists to create vegetable, or animal life, has failed and will fail. Life only originates from life, which is a universal law, that man has failed to alter. The origin of all forms of life as recorded by Moses in the first chapter of Genesis is the only sensible solution to the problem, and the only one scientists can adopt.

A leading evolutionist was asked to explain which came first the egg or the hen. He answered quickly it was the egg of course. Then it was stated to him, "Here is an egg that did not come from a hen, so where did this egg come from?" He saw his error and said he was mistaken that the hen came first in existence. "Very well said the other party, then there was a hen that did not come from an egg, and where did the hen come from?" The evolutionist admitted that he did not know. He was then informed to read the account of Moses in the book of Genesis and he would know.

The Origin of the Species

"What do the evolutionists know about the origin of the species?" A certain few hold to the opinion that the species are the result of gradual changes, while others maintain that species are the result of a sudden jump. However, the large majority of evolutionists confess that the origin of species is an unsolved mystery. In his book Evolution and Adoption, Dr. Thomas Hunt Morgan, of Columbia University, states on page 43:

"Within the period of human history we do not know of a single instance of the transformation of one species into another one. The theory of descent lacking, therefore, in the most essential feature that it needs to place the theory on a scientific basis. This must be admitted".

"This is a large and frank admission for a leader in this branch of science to make, namely— that evolution is essentially unscientific. The three fold foundation or scientific explanation of the origin on our planet, of life, and of species,—is lacking. No one has ever seen life spring up from non-living matter; no one has seen one species changing into another; and no person now living has ever seen a world evolving.”

“The basic theory on which evolution rests is, that there has been a uniform and a continuous development from the simplest forms of life to the more complex. But this theory, that there has been a uniform development upward, known as uniformitarianism, is at variance with the true facts of geology. Instead of noticeable evolution and development upward, a comparison between contemporaneous forms of life and that of antiquity, indicates a steady downward trend of degeneration. Even a casual visit to the New York Museum of Natural History, for example, will convince any impartial observer that at some time in the past, animals far more powerful and of vastly greater size than now exist, had roamed this earth. The giant skeletons of mastodons and dinosaurs that lived on earth in ages past, are mute but eloquent proof that instead of an evolution forward, there is a continuous weakening and retrogression visible among all forms of life including man. Sir William Dawson a noted and world renowned scientist remarks, “Nothing is more evident in the history of fossil animals and plants of the past geological ages than that persistence of degeneracy is the rule rather than the opposite. We may say that all things left to themselves degenerate, and only a new breathing of the Almighty Spirit can start them again on the path of advancement.”— From Appendix. G. McGreevy Price. #### God Through the Mysteries of Electricity Still Creates

The author and compiler of this article has witnessed personally the power of electricity in the work of creation of life, and he can produce several hundred intelligent people who have witnessed the same, and similar manifestation of divine miraculous power.

The United States of America is famous for its many unusual winds, sometimes of great destructive violence. I remember passing through a very unusual night of constant torrential rain, wind, and such a display of brilliant lightning that at times it was lighter than day. In the morning to our surprise, and that of the entire neighbourhood, in the pools of water formed by the torrential rain, were seen small fish to four centimetres in length. They were very bright silvery scaled fish. With some others we took a piece of screen wire netting and caught them in different places, and so did our neighbours. These fish were formed during the night, and all over the country for fifteen kilometres around the people all witnessed the unusual phenomena. These fish were created, and did not hatch from fish eggs, because the land had been parched with a long drought, and fish just hatched from fish eggs are not even one centimeter in length, and all of these were a uniform size not less than three centimeters, an inch and a half.

This was not just one freak occurrence but it was repeated at different intervals, and in different places over the country, and many witnesses can be obtained as to these facts.

A Thunder Storm Created Frogs

When I was a young man I lived on my father's farm in one of the middle western states, and following an unusual night of electrical disturbance when the heavens were aglow with constant flashing light, with moments lighter than day, with intermittent torrents of rain and wind, in company with my brother older than myself, we traveled some ten kilometers from home across the prairie, and there were swarms of little frogs constantly hopping out of the roadway in front of the horses, as we drove along the road. We even saw many hanging on the barbed wire fences high up off the ground where they had been caught on their descent from the heavens. We witnessed the same sight on our return home, where we began an investigation to be satisfied if our conclusions were well founded, that these frogs had actually been rained down during the night.

Father had just purchased a new wagon, with a tight wagon box three feet high all around and 10 feet long and we decided to examine that wagon to settle the matter, and sure enough there were many little frogs in the wagon box which was on wheels and high off of the ground. This was proof that they had actually been created by the phenomena of that night of unusual electric display. Our neighbours for miles around discovered the same thing, and it was for a long time a matter of common conversation, and reality was doubted by none.

The Plagues of Egypt

We all have read how the plagues of frogs, lice, and flies (Exodus 8) came over all Egypt in the days of Moses, and how the quails also visited the children of Israel in the wilderness. So the Heavenly Father, has still within His hidden power the secret of creating life which He used in bringing into existence the thousands of different species at the creation of the world. Just as man tunes his radio in on different stations by the slightest adjustment, so can the Almighty turn the dial of His great creative machine to different electric cycles and bring into existence fishes, frogs, lice, quails, or even man, or any other of the larger beings of life. He spoke the Word and it was so.

It was Thomas Edison, the greatest of our inventors who said, “Man knows about one millionth part of one percent of what there is to know”. How true it is that “He who knows most, knows best how little he knows”

The only clear explanation of the origin of the many different species is found in the first chapter of the book of Genesis. It reads, “And God said let the earth bring forth the living creature— “AFTER HIS KIND”—cattle and creeping things, and beasts of the earth— “AFTER HIS KIND” — and it was so. And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and everything that creepeth upon the earth — AFTER HIS KIND — and God saw that it was good.” Genesis 1:24, 25.

If man evolved from the monkey, and all larger and powerful animals evolved from smaller ones, with a manner of life coming from the one little “amoeba” then why do we not find animals in different stages of development? Why are there not human beings of every stage in the process of evolution? Why every different species is still strictly AFTER ITS KIND?

Even the monkey the baboon, or the gorilla, will not mix, although very similar species? Why do we not find some half dogs or half cats, half horses and half cows? The answer is that God created these different species — AFTER HIS KIND. There has been no evolving, and the empty claims of the evolutionists is only a guess, which goes down under the acid test of a critical investigator.

It is true that there are many variations in each of the different species. The grapefruit, orange, lime, and lemon are variations of the citrus group. A horse may be crossed with a donkey, but the result is a mule, and a blind alley; it ends there, for the mule cannot procreate species. Our Creator has firmly fixed the matter, ever creature, “after his kind” — and it completely bars the

COLOR THERAPY

By Dr. A. Wigmore

Experience has shown that color has a decided effect upon the mentality of both God-guided creatures and human beings. The effect of red upon a bull is too well known to need comment. In like manner, the light shades of blue and green, used in hospitals, have a healing character that helps human beings get back to normal. Of course, the most soothing of all colors is the green of vegetation. It is everywhere and it seems to quiet tangled nerves, helps smooth out upset digestions and has proven to be very restful on the eyes. Color is a subject that merits additional study but in the hustle and bustle to get ahead with the more obvious causes of good and bad, the effect of color has been allowed to remain in the limbo of things for researchers to unravel in the future.

The blue of the sky and the green of vegetation deserve full credit for resting the nervous disorders, and it was Elbert Hubbard who said that if "insane persons could be released under the blue dome of heaven with a carpet of green under their bare feet, limitless recoveries would be possible."

A medical doctor found in colored lights what he was convinced constituted a healing therapy of its own. He discovered that certain diseases which afflict the human being could be banished when the sufferer's body was subjected to the rays of certain colored lights. This was something that the medical doctors could not understand, and the proponent of the colored light therapy had to find refuge in a foreign country to escape jail in this land of the free and the home of original ideas.

We all know, from experience, that the human mentality is affected, for good or bad, by the colors of the clothes that are worn. The color brown, for the average person, seems depressing while for a few, it is the color of their affection. The grays and the light blues are said to be exhilarating.

Human beings, as they grow into adulthood, find that their clothing, as a general thing, falls primarily into one of two basic colors. Colors do not only may be distracting for others. A famous sales manager with some three hundred salesmen under him, found, by actual results of his experiment, that the colors of ties, shirts and even suits had much to do with the tally of sales at the end of the week. He made an experiment with twenty of his top salesmen. He furnished half with bright, gaudy ties and the other half with gray, black and inconspicuous ties. The results of the week showed that the gaudy tie salesmen had but 73 per cent of the sales of the best ten.

It has been proven conclusively with "visitors" at "The Mansion" here in Boston that colors have a marked effect upon the mentalities not only of their wearers but upon those with whom such visitors come in contact. I recall a woman that house. Whenever she would join a group of folks, there seemed to be a depressing cloud that accompanied her. When the other folks, after a time, began to remark about how pathetic she seemed to be, I induced her to discard the sweater in favor of a bright one. The effect was absolutely electrical, not only on the woman who seemed almost at once to be bettered in health, but in the attitude of those around her.

My subject, at all times, naturally, is "Give Mother Nature a chance." This covers every phase of human existence--spiritual, mental and physical. Therefore, we must, at all times, give her every tool she requires for her work. The other day, I received a long distance telephone call from a frustrated wife in New York City. Her problem was a tremendously nervous husband with a high blood pressure and some sixty or seventy surplus pounds of fat on his overweight body. She wanted to know what wheatgrass might be able to accomplish. I assured her that anyone overweight, living by our suggested routine, could lose a pound a day, could lower the blood pressure materially and could be free from that constant gnawing hunger. As a result, her husband, as "nervous as the proverbial cat" appeared at "The Mansion." His red face indicated excessive blood pressure and his rounded abdomen showed too much surplus fat. But he was anxious to begin our therapy and by the end of the third day, 8 pounds of weight had vanished, his complexion was less ruddy, showing a reduction in blood pressure, and his nervousness seemed a thing of the past.

RADIATION

The expensive type of fish, in the Boston, Massachusetts area, is now preserved by radiation which, as experts claim, will enable it to "keep fresh" indefinitely without refrigeration. Researchers have been vehement in their endorsement of this preserving process saying that such preserved fish could not be "distinguished" from fish kept fresh in the ice box. My experience, during the past few days, has completely shaken my faith in these scientific endorsements, merely from what I have actually seen. I purchased some of the higher priced fish at a local market as a special treat for my cat, Princess, that had given birth to three tiny kittens. While generally she shows high excitement when fish is even brought into the house, this occasion found her not only uninterested but she would not even eat the fish when I placed it on her plate. Peter, my other cat, likewise refused to be interested and yet he, also, is an ardent fish lover. So when I passed the fish store again that afternoon, I talked with the proprietor and told him about the apathy of my cats regarding the fish I had purchased that morning, asking if it had been preserved by radiation in the plant I had heard was now operating in Massachusetts. He protested against the idea so vigorously I had the feeling that he was "protesting too much" and that truth was somehow slipping away. So I purchased some very cheap fish for my cats and when I got home they both mobbed me at the door when I brought it in. So, despite the protests, I feel that there is a BIG DIFFERENCE in fish preserved by radiation and the fish kept fresh.

At the Institute, we share with you our discoveries, you learn how to apply LIVE FOOD nutrition, detoxification and spiritual disciplines to restore your body to a perfect, unpolluted Temple.

Dietary transition can be pleasant, safe, and adventurous. Tender, young 3 to 4 day old sprouts and nourishing greens, grown indoors for seven days on one inch of soil, satisfy these requirements. You can feed yourself with organic foods anywhere on less than $1.50 weekly and if you include organic fruit, nuts and vegetables, your food bills can still be under $3.00 per week.

You can try this routine at home if you send a large, self-addressed envelope and a donation with your request for the program. Share your copy of BE YOUR OWN DOCTOR with a sick friend; it is a summary in simple, non-technical language of the healing laws of Mother Nature. If you are still healthy, read our book and you will discover how to stay healthy. No human being should ever be sick; ignorance of the natural laws of health is the only reason.

Bicycle riding is very popular at the present time not only as a means of recreation but also as a good, natural form of exercise. Even many elderly people have taken up bike riding, which includes George E. Kern, 70-year-old Kansas City resident who rides his bicycle every day that he can for an hour and a half.

At the present time in England, where bicycle riding is more of an athletic sport, there are people who can do 100 miles in five hours.

Bicycle riding, along with other good exercises such as walking, jogging, or swimming, helps one in keeping his body in good condition. Our body is a temple of the Holy Ghost, and God not only should be glorified in our spirit but also in our body.

FROM WASHINGTON

As I was studying God's word. I was moving to go out and look in the sky, and there was a streak of light. Just as bright as the Star. It was quite a wide streak, and was wider on the south side then on the north side. It moved west. It was about 9 o'clock at night on Feb 6, 1974. So I watched close as it moved over the whole streak. In about one hour and a quarter it started to shrink on all sides, and so vanished away. Thank God for revealing signs in heaven.

false theory of creation of species by evolution.

The New Evolution Theory

Evolutionists after having been brought face to face with the foregoing facts have been forced to retreat from their former position that man has evolved.

Their theory, however, is equally absurd, which they admit is only a broad guess. They say that both man and monkey descended from some common ancestor in the far off and remote past. Here is what Dr. Austin H. Clark of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington D.C. says: "Man is not an ape and in spite of similarity between them, there is not the slightest proof that a man descended from the ape. There is no justification in assuming that such a thing as a missing link ever existed, or indeed could have existed... (From "The New Evolution", page 224-227.)

The famous scientists, Sir William Dawson, says: "I know nothing at all about the origin of man, except what I am told in the Bible, that God created him". I do not know anything more than that, and I do not know anybody who does. I would say with the language of Lord Kelvin — famous British scientist — there is nothing in science that reaches the origin of anything at all".

The Old and the True Account of Creation

"By the Word of the Lord Elohim were the heavens made and all the hosts of them by the breath of His mouth, for He spake and it was done: He commanded and it stood fast". — Psa. 33:6-9. The heavens declare the glory of God. Yes, they bear the absolute witness of an intelligence who guides the sun, the moon and all of the planets and stars in their courses, of which there are millions, all traveling with great speed in their circular orbits, yet without a single clash. This intelligence is God, the Almighty, and such miracles are wrought by His omnipotent power.

Volume Written by Atheists Now Condemned and Destroyed

Every time the spade of the archeologist is upturned the accuracy of the condemned portions of the Bible are confirmed. For instance it is claimed by skeptics that the Hittites mentioned in the Bible are a myth; that the story of Israel in Egypt is an invention; that the real author of the Pentateuch was not Moses, because they say the art of writing was not known until long after the days of Moses; that Belshazzar spoken of by the prophet Daniel was a fiction; that the account of Israel being enslaved by Pharaoh in Egypt and having to serve with rigor is also a myth etc. etc. But have these unbelieving critics any evidence to support their aim? Not one proof do they bring forth. How wonderfully our creator in His Wisdom has preserved a real arsenal of facts to off-set their claims which He well knew would be advanced in this faithless age of unbelief, which is also announced was coming upon the earth. As He said "the stones would cry out in his defense", and that is exactly what is happening today.

In the British Museum are exhibited the famous Tel Amarna tablets discovered in Tel-el-Amarna, Egypt. The writing upon the tablets is cuneiform characters, and was written one hundred years before Moses' time. The same museum is also exhibited a copy of the famous black stone of Susa. This stone was discovered by de Morgan in December, 1901, upon which are inscribed laws of Hammurabi (believed to be identical with Amraphel, king of Babylon, as mentioned in Genesis chapter 14), who lived five hundred years before Moses, and was doubtless a contemporary of Abraham. "The Babylonia of the age of Abraham," says the archaeologist Sayce, "was a more highly educated country than the England of George the Third." Inasmuch then as Moses lived several centuries after Abraham, how ridiculous now appear the assertions of the critics that Moses could not have written the Pentateuch, because writing had not as yet been invented in his day!

Is the Belshazzar of the Scripture a Myth?

In the lists of kings compiled by the Greek historians, Nabonidus was designated as the last king of Babylon. Inasmuch as the fifth chapter of the book of Daniel states that Belshazzar was the last king of that empire, the critics declared the Bible false, and Belshazzar a fictitious character. Today however, we have more than five hundred ancient tablets proving that Belshazzar was co-ruler with his aged father, Nabonidus, whose seat of government was at Tema in Arabia, while that of Belshazzar was in Babylon.

The different forms of electricity, and the varied manifestations of its power when subject to certain conditions baffles scientists. The electrons always traveling in cycles of seven, and multiples of the cycle of seven, associates it with the Bible where-as we find the number seven used to denote completion and perfection, and also power. Magnetic electricity, Radar, Radio, Television which man has, seemingly by chance, discovered, each one carries the scientist into a vast field of the unknown. Now we come to the atom age, and nuclear power, the discovery of uranium, plutonium, and neptunium, etc. The honest scientist today is willing to throw up his hands in utter bewilderment at the fathomless field of the unknown, and admit his inability to search it out.

Skeletons of Mammoth Creatures Found

In the Geological Magazine (p. 531), a scientist speaking of the animal and vegetable fossil remains found in the polar regions says that they all alike testify that at one time a warm climate prevailed over the entire world. Dr. H. H. Neuville agrees with this, saying that the extinct mammoths buried in the frozen earth of Northern

Skeletons of pre-historic animals in the New York museum

Siberia are as tropical or subtropical as the elephants of today. (See the Smithsonian Report of 1919, page 332.) The same kinds of tropical plants found in the stomach of the frozen animals, occur in abundance in the frozen muds, and in the shale and great coal beds, indicating that a great, and sudden climatic change overtook these monsters and engulfed them, as they wandered over their feeding grounds. The ice became a natural "frigorifer" that preserved their flesh for centuries.

Another evidence of a universal deluge is presented by the vast coal beds in many parts of the earth's crust. Geologists now admit that these coal beds are the petrified and consolidated masses of vast forests of antiquity buried by some great natural catastrophe. Very often the remains of trees which grew in very different habitats are indiscriminately mixed in the coal seams. As they could never have become associated together under normal conditions, they obviously must have been thrown together under extremely abnormal circumstances.

To sum it all up — the only monument we have today of pre-Flood days, is the wreckage of a corrupt world whose submerged tropical trees and animals in the perpetual snow and ice of the far north, and its myriads of sea creatures buried in the sands and rocks of every land, have through the ages left us irrefutable evidence of the Bible record of the Flood.

The Bible account of the Flood upon the earth is fully established by sea shells and other remains of water animals found on mountain tops and highest plateaus in every portion of the world, which could not have happened in any other manner. The wrath of God was thus displayed upon a wicked unbelieving and ungodly age, very similar to what this age is rapidly becoming.

A candid study of fossils and of the remains of prehistoric animals indicates, further, that instead of uninterrupted uniformity of evolution, there occurred at some time in the past a deluge of world-wide extent, which, in the words of a distinguished scientist, has turned this world into "a great cemetery, where the rocks are the tombstones on which the buried dead have written their own epitaphs." George McCready Price, in his book, "Evolutionary Geology," says: "Everybody knows of the enormous numbers and splendid preservation of the great reptiles of the Western and Southern states in America untoned by Leidy, Cope, and Marsh. One patch of Cretaceous in England; the Wealdon, has afforded over thirty different species of dinosaurs, crocodiles, and plesiosaurs." — Pages 242, 243.

In the soil of Bear Island and of Liachoff Islands of the frigid north, have been found entombed frozen bodies of such tropical animals as mammoths in such perfect state of preservation, and with undigested food in their mouths, as to indicate that they were involved in some sudden catastrophe, namely, the flood.

VANISHING HITCHHIKERS ARE NOT JUST A MYTH, MOTORISTS REPORT THEM EACH YEAR

By Tom Valentine

Tales of apparitions that materialize, speak to motorists of religious matters, then vanish into thin air abound in modern America — but similar encounters with “vanishing hitchhikers” date back to Biblical times.

“A couple driving along the New York Thruway picked up a beautiful young hippie clad in shining white. He sat in the back seat and buckled his seatbelt. He began to talk about religion and asked them if they believed in the second coming.

“When they turned around to answer him he vanished, leaving the seatbelt fastened. When they left the thruway they told the toll collector that they had lost a hitchhiker.

“He told them not to worry; at least a dozen cars had come through the gate that day with the same story.”

Dr. Fish said the story of the deity or a heavenly messenger who travels on earth in the guise of a human being is as old as literature.

“Readers of classical mythology will remember that the Olympians were very fond of traveling incognito — and angels appeared to Lot, who took them to be men.”

“In Acts 8:26- Phillip is picked up by an Ethiopian who was riding in a chariot. They discuss religious matters and the Ethiopian asks to be baptized. Phillip does as he requests and then vanishes.”

THE FEAST AND FAST DAYS OF ISRAEL

We are fully assured that it is pleasing to our loving Heavenly Father and the Holy Angels for His people to remember the mighty miracles of deliverance for which the feast days stand. Gentiles have entirely forgotten them, but not Jews or Israelites.

The “Feast Days” in Israel are days devoted to worship of the Almighty with special food to make them happy and rejoice with thanks for the miracle. On the other hand, however, they are celebrated in remembrance of the destruction of the Temple built by Solomon, is a day of fasting, (afflicting their soul). Lev. 23. — Editor.

WONDERFUL INDEED

How amazing to be living now and to see the wonderful fulfillment of prophecy. Jerusalem a burdensome and CUP OF TREMBLING to all nations — a. 12: 2, 3.

HIS WORK IS BEFORE HIM

Thus saith the Lord: “I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace, day or night: Ye that make mention of the Lord KEEP NOT SILENCE, and give Him no rest till He establish and till He make Jerusalem a praise in the earth... Go through, go through the gates, PREPARE YE THE WAY of the people, cast up, cast up the highway, gather out the stones, LIFT UP A STANDARD FOR MY PEOPLE. Behold the Lord hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, say ye to the daughter of Zion. Behold thy salvation cometh. BEHOLD HIS REWARD IS WITH HIM, AND HIS WORK BEFORE HIM.” — Isaiah 62: 6-11.

This scripture refers to the return of our Saviour when His work is before Him, and it agrees with Revelation 22: 12, where we find a similar reading. It says: “Behold I come quickly and my reward is with me.” The apostle Paul speaks of this work which he says takes place just following the resurrection of the good people. It reads: “For He must reign until He puts all enemies under His feet, and the last enemy that shall be destroyed is death... And when all things shall be subdued unto Him, then shall the Son also Himself be subject unto Him that put all things under Him that God may be all in all.” — I Corinthians 15: 22-27.

A CLOUD BY DAY AND A FIRE BY NIGHT

Revelation 15 Chapter BY NIGHT
There is to be, however, during this time, a flaming fire, “a cloud by day and a fire by night” on Mount Zion, just like there was over the tabernacle in the wilderness, and also over round about all of HER ASSEMBLIES throughout the world. Here is what the prophet says: “When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof by the Spirit of Judgement and by the Spirit of BURNING. The Lord will CREATE upon every dwelling place of Mount Zion and UPON HER ASSEMBLIES a cloud and a smoke by day, and the shining of a flame by night, for upon all the glory shall be a defence” (Isaiah 4: 4, 5). It is high time now for these “Assemblies of Zion” to begin their preparation, by turning their faces Zionward, and connecting groups up with Jerusalem and MOUNT ZION.

PERES: ARABS PLANNING TO ATTACK ISRAEL

Defence Minister Shimon Peres said Friday night the Arabs are planning a military attack on Israel in a matter of months.

We have information that the Arabs are preparing to attack the State of Israel in a matter of months - six, nine or twelve months", Peres said in a television interview.

This was based on information collected during the past weeks, mainly from Syria, he said.

Mr. Peres said Syria was "extremist, impatient and overflowing with armaments". He said Syria's air force was already stronger than that of Egypt "while its patience is far shorter".

Syria said "since Israel is not prepared to withdraw from the Golan Heights we must resume fighting at some time or another", stated Peres.

RELIEF EFFORT IN ETHIOPIA BOGGED DOWN STARVATION WON'T WAIT

Geography and lethargy are thwarting the relief agencies struggling to contain a new famine which has broken out in Ethiopia.

The new famine area, in the remote south-east of the country, is far removed from the famine-ravaged north where up to 100,000 died last year, but where the relief organizations at least now have reasonable lines of communications. The drought area, centred on Harrarghe province, has virtually no roads, and the suffering population is scattered in villages accessible only by helicopter.

Both the little rains and the big rains have failed this year, and ominous reports of mass starvation are flooding into the capital from missionary stations.

Note. — This condition in Ethiopia is also definite proof that the day of the Lord is near at hand. See Ezekiel 30: 3 and 4. — Editor.

ELITE BORDER POLICE UNIT TO COMBAT TERRORIST ATTACKS

TEL AVIV. — A new elite Border Police unit to combat terrorists who infiltrate into the country will soon be operational, national police spokesman Nahum Bosmi said last night. He said the strike force was being established in compliance with recommendations of the Horev Commission which investigated the Ma'alot massacre.

Senior police and army officers are now meeting to delineate their respective areas of responsibility in dealing with terrorist attacks. One question on the agenda is who will have the operational responsibility of activating Ha-ga reservists in this kind of emergency.

SAPIR PROMISES ALL IMMIGRANTS FLATS IN 9 MONTHS

Jewish Agency Executive chairman Pinhas Sapir has promised to solve all housing problems for immigrants in nine months.

Speaking to a session of the Executive on Tuesday, Mr. Sapir said that the promise came as a result of a meeting the previous day with Housing Minister Avraham Ofer, Absorption Minister Shlomo Rosen and officials of the Finance Ministry.

Mr. Sapir outlined a plan by which 13,500 flats would be readied by March 1975, 11,000 flats by December 1975, and 750 housing units for single and elderly people by July 1975. Some 750 flats in absorption centres will be used for permanent dwelling, and the centre will move into caravans.

Another 1,500 flats will come through rental, mortgage foreclosure and purchase on the private market.

PALESTINIAN ASKS 'SUICIDE SQUADS' TO COMBAT ISRAEL

CAIRO (Reuter). — A Palestinian official yesterday called for the formation of terrorist suicide squads to combat Israeli "volunteer battalions" being formed to operate against the Palestinians.

In an interview with the newspaper "Al Gumhuria" Khaled al-Hassan of the main terrorist group, Fatah, said the Israeli battalions were an omen "of a new type of Zionist terrorism which should be faced with a fierce type, both in quantity and in quality."

50 ARAB WOMEN COMPLETE COURSE IN DRESSMAKING

The commencement exercises held on Thursday at Jerusalem's Beit Elisheva wasn't the usual ritual of diplomas, caps and gowns and sentimental farewells. The 50 graduates, elegantly coiffed and dressed in handmad dresses, were Arab women from East Jerusalem who have just completed 10-month courses in dressmaking and hair dressing.

"This is the seventh year of our courses", said Violetta Battat, director of the Arab Women's Department of Mo'etzet Hapo'alot-Pioneer Women, which sponsors the classes. "Every graduating class is more proficient, and their husbands and fathers more enthusiastic about what the women learn to do."

PLAN TO TRAIN WOMEN TO DRIVE BUSES, TRUCKS

TEL AVIV. — The Ministry of Transport is going to train women to drive buses and trucks, the Director General of the Ministry of Transport, Dan Hiram, told Labour Ministry officials at a recent meeting.

During the Yom Kippur War and the post-war emergency there was an acute shortage of bus and truck drivers, which disrupted the economy.

One of the lessons that the Ministry of Transport learned is that there is an urgent need to train women for these jobs, so that they will be available in times of emergency. Mr. Hiram has asked the bus cooperative Egged and Dan, to prepare a training programme and to weigh the possibility of employing female bus drivers in normal times as well.

TOUGHER EGYPTIAN TONE WORRIES STATE DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON. — The State Department has become increasingly concerned about a hardening of Egyptian political stand with regard to Israel since President Nixson returned to Washington from his Middle East tour, according to well informed sources.

But Middle East experts in the Department believe is still too early to conclude that this change represents a real break from Egypt's so called moderate policy pursued since it signed disengagement agreement with Israel in January, not a tactical change made for domestic political reasons.

The Department was surprised last week when Egyptian President Sadat told the Beirut weekly "Al-Sayyid" that Egypt was prepared to send its air force "at once to fight the battle in Lebanon."

Sadat and several other Arab leaders were threatening renewed military action against Israel because of her attacks against terrorists bases in southern Lebanon.

TERRORISTS CLASH IN CAMPS NEAR BEIRUT

Rival factions of the Palestinian terrorist movement clashed in three refugee camps on the outskirts of Beirut last Friday as the Lebanese Prime Minister sought to bring Syrian pressure on the Palestinians to refrain from terrorist activity for the time being.

The death toll in clashes between Nayef Hawatmeh's Popular Democrat Front for the Liberation of Palestine and Ahmed Jibril's Popular Front-General Command rose to 20 yesterday, terrorist sources reported. Many died in hospitals overnight following the four-hour shootout at the el-Za'atar, Shatilla and Sabra camps.

The two groups differ over participation in the Arab-Israeli peace talks in Geneva, the question that has split the entire terrorist movement. Jibril's group rejects any peaceful settlement with Israel while Hawatmeh's groups want to join the Geneva talks.

Friday's outbreak was the second in 10 days. Three terrorists were reported killed in a clash between the two groups a week earlier.

Each side blamed the other for Friday's flareup.

IRAQ HAD PLAN TO 'FREE' GOLAN

BAGHDAD (UPI). — Iraq planned an overall offensive last October 23 to liberate the Syrian Golan Heights which had been occupied by Israel in the Yom Kippur war, the official Iraq News Agency reported.

Quoting a confidential report endorsed by the Congress of the ruling Arab Ba'ath Party, the agency said the Syrian Government demanded the offensive be postponed and accepted a cease-fire on October 24.

Iraq has been strongly opposed to U.S. peace efforts in the Middle East, and the disclosure of its party's effort came on the day President Nixon began a tour of several Middle Eastern countries. Iraq is not included in the President's itinerary.

During the war, the Baghdad Government dispatched aircraft, armour and infantry to help the Syrian armed forces against Israel. These were withdrawn after Syria's acceptance of the cease-fire.

The Iraqi state-controlled press has been persistently attacking Nixon's visit and Secretary of State Henry Kissinger's peace efforts in the area.

NEW OIL FROM OLD TYRES

NEW YORK (NANA). — While oil companies busily drill all around the nation looking for additional supplies of petroleum, industry has found a new source of oil and other valuable raw materials in, of all things, worn-out tyres.

Some 200 million tyres are scrapped every year. If one of the big tyre companies can get hold of only eight million a year, it can reclaim 15 million gallons of oil, two million pounds of carbon black and two million pounds of steel. That's what Goodyear Tyre and Rubber Company says, and it expects to prove it, perhaps by the end of this year. The big tyre company is collaborating with TOSCO, the Oil Shale Corporation, in a pilot plant near Golden, Colo., running 25 tons per day of oilies through the works.

450 AMBULANCES

M.D.A.'s 450 ambulances are divided among 103 stations throughout the country. Some of these are "sub-stations" in small communities, where a local driver operates the ambulance in times of emergency; others are facilities providing first-aid, the services of a physician and other assistance. The most sophisticated stations are in the larger towns; the "crowning glory" is the M.D.A. station in Jerusalem, offering 24-hour-a-day medical and surgical service and even emergency dental care on weekends and holidays.

ARABS TO BUILD ARMS INDUSTRY

CAIRO. — Arab defence and foreign ministers on Monday unanimously approved the establishment of a massive Arab-owned arms industry.

Egyptian Chief of Staff Lt-Gen. Abdel Ghani Gammasy told newsmen after an evening session that the conference decided that Cairo will be the venue of the industry.

He said a technical committee will work on the details and an announcement to this effect will be made after it completes its work.

U.S. TO HELP FIGHT EGYPT'S COTTON WORM

WASHINGTON (AP). — The U.S. has dispatched two cotton experts to Egypt to advise the government how to fight cotton worm blight endangering that country's cotton crop.

Press officer John King said the two experts, Dr. Theodore Watson of the University of Arizona and Dr. Winfield Stirling of the University of Texas, have already arrived in Egypt.

"The Egyptian government has informed us about its need for technical assistance", King said, adding this was a recurrent problem in Egypt and "the United States is interested in helping to find a technical solution".

OVER 6,000 CONVICTED FOR NAZI CRIMES

BONN (JTA). — Since the end of World War II, 6,375 persons have been convicted for Nazi crimes by West German courts. Of these, 12 were sentenced to death, and 141 to life imprisonment. More than 6,000 received shorter sentences, 114 were fined, and one was warned under juvenile laws.

Figures from the Justice Ministry show that 77,820 cases had been opened. Of these, 67,422 had been conducted without penalties being handed down, because of death of the accused, acquittals and so on.

On January 1, 1974, 4,023 cases were pending, while 2,825 have been opened against suspects by the Central Office for the Persecution of Nazi Crimes in Ludwigsburg.

SYRIA WARNS BRITAIN OF BREAK OVER JEWS

DAMASCUS. — Syria has warned Britain that their relations may be endangered by British "meddling" over the treatment of Syrian Jews, Damascus Radio said yesterday.

It added that the Foreign Minister had summoned British Ambassador David Roberts Wednesday night to tell him of Syria's displeasure.

FOUR RUSSIANS KILLED IN CRASH OF EGYPTIAN JET

CAIRO (AP). — Egypt has grounded its newly purchased fleet of eight Soviet TU-154 jet-liners following the crash of one of the planes Wednesday night on a training flight, airline sources said.

A TU-154, with two Egyptian pilots and four Soviet instructors on board, crashed immediately after takeoff from Cairo airport. The official Middle East News Agency said witnesses saw the aircraft explode in the air. All on board were killed.

Egypt Air had scheduled the Soviet craft for two of its three daily flights to Beirut, for five times weekly flights to Damascus, as well as on flights to Khartoum,

The planes will stay grounded until an official investigation into the cause of Wednesday's crash is completed.

AISHA, 'MOTHER OF THE TERRORISTS', UNDER ARREST

HEBRON. Security forces yesterday revealed that they had arrested a woman from Dura village, near here, known in terrorist circles as "the mother of the terrorists".

The woman, known as Aisha, allegedly hid arms as well as terrorists, including one from her village who had been wanted for five years until his bombed body was found last month in a wadi near here. She was arrested two weeks ago.

The security forces said that they had detained the woman a number of times in the past, but had to release her because there was not enough evidence to bring her to trial.

SADAT CONCLUDES TALKS OF 'MUTUAL INTEREST' IN SOFIA

He was seen off at the airport by Communist party leader Todor Zhivkov and Prime minister Stanko Topalov, the Bulgarian News Agency BTA reported.

The two leaders held a third and final round of talks yesterday morning, officially stated to have covered "questions of mutual interests".

Remarks. — Sadat's tour of the Balkan states with secret meetings with government leaders is thought to be for a united attack on Israel, with Russia's indorsement. It is a dangerous signal in the final preparations for the fulfillment of Ezekiel 38th chapter, when all of these nations are to come against Israel and to meet their destruction. — Editor.

POPE SEEKS 'SPECIAL STATUS' FOR JERUSALEM

The Vatican seeks "a special status with international guarantees" for the city of Jerusalem and "appropriate judicial protection" for the holy places, the office of the Apostolic Delegate said yesterday.

The Delegate's office sought to clarify the Holy See's position as expressed by the Delegate, Msgr. William Carraway, in his meeting with Chief Rabbi Shlomo Goren on Tuesday. The two prelates reviewed the question of Jerusalem and Pope Paul's recent discussion of it with U.S. Secretary of State Henry Kissinger.

PERES: SYRIA BENT ON WAR

Defense Minister Shimon Peres warned that Syria has "hitched its horses to the chariots of war" and seemed intent on "charging towards what is called the military option."

Mr. Peres said that the Soviets had poured into Syria in the 10 months since Yom Kippur almost as much military hardware as during the six years between 1967 and 1973. In those six years Syria had received weaponry worth $2.5 billion — and in the past 10 months the quantity of arms had topped the two billion dollar mark.

The power of the Syrian air force had been increased by 25 per cent, since the Yom Kippur war and it had been reinforced by advanced Mig-21 Flogger planes.

Jerusalem is builded as a CITY that is COMPACT TOGETHER.

Pray for the PEACE Of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee.

PEACE be WITHIN THY WALLS, and prosperity WITHIN THY PALACES.

THE BANK ACCOUNT WORTHWHILE

"Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal. But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal." — These are the words of Yahshua as we have them recorded in Matthew 6: 19 to 21.

HOW AND WHY DOES BLOOD ATONE FOR SIN

The Creator Who planned this world of ours, and populated it with beings like us understood well in advance that there would need to be a provision by which man's failures could be remedied.

A law of ten precepts was given, written by the finger of God on tables of stone, amidst the quaking and smoking Sinai. These were given to Moses, and delivered to Israel for their own happiness, good health, length of life, and life eternal. They were not just arbitrarily given simply to destroy man's liberties, and bind him to something that was not good, but for his own benefit; His own well being: his longevity of life, his happiness, health, comfort and joy, reaching to the very shores of eternity.

Because of the great importance of each one of these ten commandments, and of its lasting good temporarily spiritually and eternally, the Father commanded that in case any one of them was broken, the offender was to be taken without the camp and stoned to death.

Through the mercy of the Creator, however, a provision was made by which the guilty one could live. The offense in breaking one of these holy commandments was so great, that something had to die for each offense. It was either the offender, or an animal, usually a lamb without spot or blemish, died in place of the sinner.

We are told repeatedly that the blood is the life, (Genesis 9: 4; Leviticus 17: 11, 14, etc). Hence it has become the saying that blood atones for sin. In other words the life given in the sinner's place, atoned for his sins, and he is saved from death. The blood being the life he is saved by the blood.

This was practiced thousands of years under the teaching of Moses, and thus were people brought constantly face to face before the hideous, and awful crime of trying to go contrary to the will, and commands of the Creator of heaven and earth.

To impress still more firmly upon the minds of the people the great importance of obeying the Creator and keeping all of these wise and holy precepts, Israel was commanded to gather together three times each year. (Exodus 23: 17, and 34: 23, also Deut. 16: 16, etc.). At these general assemblies they killed fourteen lambs apiece, together with a certain number of rams and bullocks, before the congregation, to make atonement for a people who had sinned secretly, and in whose place life had been taken, or no blood had been shed. (Numbers 28th and 29th chapters. See verses 13, 17, 29, 26, 29, 32, and 35 of chapter 29).

It is evident as they looked upon the killing of all these animals every day, they were keenly moved, and very deeply impressed of the horrible consequence of breaking these commandments, which resulted in the death of all of these innocent animals killed because they had sinned.

There were many people then, and so there are today, who do not want to see an animal slain, and witness the flowing of blood. Therefore to be compelled to look upon these horrible scenes of blood and death were taught a profound lesson of obedience. To see these innocent animals struggling before their captors, their knife thrust into them, and the flow of blood, would enter month after month in their memories, and this lesson thus be deeply impressed upon them.

In this way the Creator furnished a means for the control of man to hold him in check from disobedience, while at the same time providing a way for saving his life when he did transgress. Thus the innocent lamb became man's Saviour because it saved him from the punishment of stoning. His sin was pardoned by the blood or by the life that was given in his place. In case he was too poor to furnish a lamb, a provision was made for a substitution of two turtledoves (Leviticus 5: 7). To insult the person of the Almighty by an act of disobedience was so terrible an offense that something had to die. A life was taken, either the guilty person, or a life in his place.

ABRAHAM THE FATHER OF MANY

Abraham's name was changed from Abram to Abraham because the word "Abraham" means the Father of Many or the Father of a Multitude. He was given as a type of the Creator, Who is the Father of Us All.

Why was Abraham called upon to offer his son Isaac for a sacrifice? And why was he commanded to sacrifice on one of the mountains of Moriah? (Genesis 22: 2). There must have been a reason for this. The several mountain peaks in and around Jerusalem were then called the mountains of Moriah. The Creator told Abraham, He would show him which one.

Abraham lived at Beersheba, more than fifty kilometers from Jerusalem, nearly forty miles. He made the trip by donkey, and it required three days. (Verse 4). There were many mountain peaks not far from Beersheba, but he had to make this long tiresome journey of three days for a purpose. We are told that all of these things happened back there for ensamples to us. They have their meaning, and were not empty events void of a reason to man.

Abraham being a type of the Creator, Who is the Father of Us All, his only son Isaac, was a type of the Father's only son (Proverbs 30: 4), Yahshua, the Messiah His name meaning "Salvation," because he was to be offered to people of every nation under heaven. Isaiah said (Salvation) would go forth from Jerusalem to Gentile nations, when ALL kings would behold His glory. (Isaiah 62: 1, 2). — Isaiah 4: 27 — This is why Abraham was commanded to go to Jerusalem and endure the hardship and expense of this three days journey, to offer Isaac as a sin offering here. He was a type of Yahshua, the Father's son who was to be given as an offering for sin, in this new dispensation when Salvation was to go to all nations. Yahshua or Jesus was crucified on the very same mountain peak, according to the best authority, where Abraham went to offer Isaac, and the Creator provided a ram, entangled by the horns in the brush. — Genesis 22: 13.

The Father in providing the ram for a sacrifice instead of Abraham's son Isaac represents the period of Abraham's religion the religion of Israel, when the death and the blood of the animals was to be used in sacrifice for sin, and it also prefigured the time when on that very mountain the Father's only son, Yahshua, was to give his life in place of the sinner, and people of every nation would accept by faith this sacrifice, to atone for their sins. It was here on this mountain the Creator's son (Proverbs 30: 4) was to die in their place.

This heavenly transaction was not left out of the holy scriptures, but was described several hundred years in advance by the prophet Isaiah. He said a child would be born and a son given, who in his time, would sit upon the throne of David as king. — Isaiah 9: 6; 7. This son, the Messiah, was to grow up (Isaiah 11: 1 and chapter 53: 2). He was to be brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and give his life for the transgressions of his people. His soul was made an offering for

"If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, let my right hand forget her cunning.
If I do not remember thee, let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, if I prefer not JERUSALEM above my chief joy." —
Psalms 137: 5-6.

HOW AND WHY BLOOD ATONES FOR SIN

sin. He was numbered with the transgressors and bare the sins of many — Isaiah 53: 5-10.

Thus we have clearly revealed in the scriptures this very period of time, when a human sacrifice was to be given in the place of the people of every nation on earth, and every man or woman who would accept this sacrifice by faith, his blood or his death on the cross, would atone for their sins, and forgiveness would be granted in his name. There is no other name under heaven given among men whereby we must be saved. — Acts 4: 12.

Israel quite generally recognize Him as a great prophet, but with astonishing evidence through late excavations, he is proven to be much more than that. On the shores of the north end of the sea of Galilee, excavations have unearthed the remains of the old temple of worship erected soon after His ascension, wherein the beautiful mosaic floor confirms that great miracle of feeding 5,000 men besides women and children on just 5 loaves of bread and 2 fishes. (Matthew 14:17 and Luke 9:13).

There in the mosaic can be seen the pictures of the 5 loaves of bread, 2 fishes, also the baskets full of fragments left over. Thus with such unrefuted and astonishing proof of His divinity according to His repeated claims, of being the Messiah and the lamb sent of the Father to die in the place of sinners, Israel should come out boldly in acknowledging him as such, and publish it to the world.

He never came to establish another religion separate from the Jews, neither did he do so. To accept him as our Messiah, is far from making us Christian, as the word Christian implies today. His teaching was not a subtraction from Judaism but an addition of His life offered, in the place of the sacrificial lamb as a substitute for sinners, that in and through Him, they would have atonement for their sins. The Gentiles have misrepresented his teaching and established their religion with idols and other gods besides the one God and only one with their counterfeit Sunday handed down from Pagan Sun worshippers, and other substitutions from Babylon and Rome. The early church was Jewish, three thousand receiving baptism at Pentecost. — Acts 2.

What a great loss to Judaism for the Gentiles to have received the glory and honor of that miraculous Jew, the man of Nazareth and babe of Bethlehem, with His wonderful teaching and miraculous life. Surely it would be to their honor, even at this late hour, to claim him as one of their race, and as their Messiah. Never before or since has there been such a grand and noble character lived on this earth, a Jew of the tribe of Judah the lineage of David.

Many eminent writers of that period record the miraculous life of this great Jew. His astonishing miracles, the profound depth of his lovely teaching, his life of righteousness, and His resurrection and ascension will give a weight of glory and prestige to Judaism, and to Israel, that can not possibly be acquired through any other channel. This great step forward, when taken by the friendship and backing of powerful nations, but assures for them the protection of mighty unseen spiritual forces so much needed amidst the threats of surrounding powers.
