I am an ambassador, representing a governor who has a large tract of land for settlement for those who are willing to comply with His rules. 2 Cor. 5: 20. The Governor promises the wilderness shall blossom as a rose. Isa. 35: 1. And just as soon as the requested number of settlers can be secured, the opportunity for securing a tract of land or home will be closed. Rev. 10: 7; Rev. 11: 15. Everything has been investigated and beyond a doubt the best offer that has ever been made to men. The title and abstract are perfect. 1 Cor. 2: 10. The Governor intends to reserve a portion for Himself and will live with those who settle there. Rev. 21: 3.

No tuberculosis, or cancer, malaria, high blood pressure, heart trouble, indigestion, nor any other sickness there. Isa. 33: 24. The seasons will be very pleasant and delightful. No tidal waves or earthquakes, no crop failures. Gen. 8: 22. Well watered. Rev. 22: 1.

SOCIETY

Only the best of society. Very friendly neighbors. Mal. 3: 16-18. Jails and prison houses will be unnecessary as the fearful, murderers, idolaters, and all liars will have their part in a lake of fire. Rev. 21: 8.

ENTERTAINMENT

The best of music will be furnished free of charge to entertain those who are musically inclined. And instruments will be furnished free to everyone that can play. Rev. 15: 2. A choir composed of 144,000 will sing a new song that no other man can learn. Rev. 14: 2-3. The settlers of this land will meet the last day of each week, the seventh day, Sabbath, and the first of every month. Isa. 66: 23. Board and room will be without cost to citizens. John 14: 1-5; Luke 12: 28-31.

NO WILD ANIMALS

A safe country for sheep and cattle as the lions and bears will eat hay and straw and have no thirst for blood. There is no danger of snake bites. No wild or unruly animals. Isa. 11: 6-8.

FRUIT

Fresh fruit every month in the year. It will be unnecessary to spray before blossom or after blossom. Rev. 22: 2-3.

HOUSES

Every settler has a home already provided (John 14: 1-3) which is far better than any we have at the present time. Those who desire to build may do so as material will be furnished free. Isa. 65: 21.

EDUCATION

Excellent schools will be conducted. Isa. 54: 13. The educational advantages could be no better. Isa. 11: 9. The teacher has received his training from the best instructor. John 3: 2.

APPLICANTS' EXAMINATIONS

Every applicant must pass an examination. The applicant must stand 100 per cent. Matt. 5: 48. However, the list of questions may be found in Ex. 20: 1-17; Eccl. 12: 13-14. After passing the examinations, the applicant will receive a passport from the Governor which will read as found in Rev. 22: 14. And those that are not qualified will be placed in the second class as found in Rev. 22: 15. The test is not hard as stated in 1 John 5: 3.

Those who become citizens will ride upon the high places of the earth and shall be fed with delicious food as found in Isa. 58: 13-14.

A LAND OF GOLD

In fact gold will be plentiful. The capital city is paved with gold. Rev. 21: 18. All clothing will be free to citizens. Rev. 19: 8. No water, gas or electric light bills to pay. No taxes, no rent, no interest nor principal to pay.

HIGHWAYS

A grand highway shall be there and it will be called "The Way of Holiness." The unclean cannot travel there. No lions nor beast shall travel thereon. Those who have become citizens may walk on it safely. Isa. 35: 8-10. The parched ground and thirsty land will become springs of water and a pool. Isa. 35: 7. No danger of being run down by speeders and road hogs.

OPENING DAY

A grand supper will be served at the opening of this tract by the Governor. Rev. 19: 9. This supper will be served in this new tract of land. Luke 13: 28-29. However, those that enter in and have not qualified, their hands and feet will be tied and cast out because they would not do His will. Matt. 7: 21-23. The Governor has spent an incredible amount for getting it ready for settlers and will spare no expense at the opening to provide a glorious time. Rom. 8: 32. He himself will serve the guests. Luke 12: 37. Notice carefully, the supper will be served on earth.

When settlers are once established they never need to move nor wish to do so. Rev. 3: 12. Make no delay in accepting this excellent proposition. There is no time to lose. Heb. 4: 7. Colors or races are absolutely no bar. Acts 10: 34. All who will may take up a claim, but it must be accepted before the tract is opened for settlement, as no one can qualify after the tract is opened for settlement. Rev. 22: 11. Today is the time. Heb. 3: 7-8. This will all take place when the Governor opens the tract for settlement. Matt. 25: 31-46.

YOUR DECISION

Reader, it is for you to decide and to examine the title, and qualify before it is too late. Take no gambling chance. This tract of land will be settled by the very best of people. Thousands of people have accepted this proposition and many applications will be made yearly by those who are willing to qualify and stand investigation. Thieves and liars cannot enter in. Those that mock at Divine healing may stay away. Those that hate the Sabbath will not enter in, but those that love the commandments of God may apply at once. Ex. 20: 6. Those that turn their ear from hearing the questions as found in Ex. 20: 1-17, their prayers will be abomination. Prov. 28: 9; Zech. 7: 11.

A large number will come pleading to enter in after the Master has opened for settlers, but to their disappointment the Master will say, "Depart from me; I never knew you." Matt. 7: 21-23. Those that are foolish and neglectful will also be turned down. Matt. 25: 11-12. May the Lord help you to put in your claim for a permanent home in the land without sickness, sorrow, death, or hospital bills to pay. What more do you want? Decide today.

WHICH DAY WILL BE KEPT

Sunday keeping will be prohibited. Matt. 15: 13. The seventh day, Sabbath, will be kept by everyone that enters in. Isa. 66: 22-33. However, the Sabbath was made by the Governor himself. Mark 2: 27. For the above reason the Governor himself is the Lord of the Sabbath. Therefore, Sabbath haters will not enter in. Those that love the Lord will do the things which the Lord says. Luke 6: 46. The Lord has said for us to seek the old paths and the good way and to walk therein. Jer. 6: 16. It will be useless to pray for anyone that will not accept the Master's commandments. See Jer. 7: 16. It is the whole duty of men to keep His commandments. Eccl. 12: 13. Each applicant will be given a sign. Eze. 20: 12.

Let not your hearts be troubled. Decide at once. In our Father's house are many mansions. The Master has gone and will come again. Those that love and obey Him will enter in.
