Dear one in the battle for TRUTH,

Thought I would try and write a few lines this morning to let you know that the Church of God is interested in you, and we are praying that God may bless you and prosper you as only He can.

We are indeed grateful for the love of God which binds His true followers together in spirit and truth. Surely God is love and we are His children. We should be so happy and thankful to God for making it possible for us to help spread His word to this dying world and that we can also be a part of His family here on earth striving for the kingdom soon to come. Our hearts should rejoice to know that our hearts and minds stand together on His plan and His Church. Oh, that God would cause people to see the "Beginning of the End". It is so near. Our daily prayer should be that God will pour out His Holy Spirit on all mankind, opening their eyes and ears, that they might see and hear and be converted before it is too late.

I am sure that our hearts rejoice to read the good letters and reports of the work everywhere and to know that the gospel is being planted in many lands and God's word of truth and His holy laws made known to the ones in darkness. May the Lord ever uphold His true Church in Christ.

In these days of darkness and make believe isn't it wonderful to have such a friend as Jesus? Indeed He is the Way the Truth and the LIFE. He is the only one who has conquered the enemy and knows ALL his tricks. He was tempted in all points like as we are, yet without sin. Therefore He is able to help us who are tempted. Praise His name!

I am sure that a constant heavenly vision of our glorified Lord will give us faith and courage for the joyful and victorious fulfilment of our tasks and duties to the glory of His name "till He comes".

There are many terrible things happening in the world to-day, even in the United States. I have just been reading about the awful tornados in the South and the snow storms in Canada. These things have been foretold by the Lord and it should be a source of consolation to the Christian to see these prophetic predictions being fulfilled, for each one serves as a milepost to indicate how far we have journeyed along the road to the land of never-ending day, and I am sure that if we have witnessed much of such disasters we will be praying "O come quickly, Lord Jesus." For only then will there be peace and happiness that shall not be marred by such fearful sights.

We heard a good lecture on the Holy Land last night. Hearing of all the great things being done there makes one homesick for the time when all the saints of God will live in the glorious city where all things are new.

In closing I would ask that you extend our christian love to all those who are near and dear to you. Please pray for us and we shall do the same for you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Mrs. Leroy McGill
