Crusader for peace address

ONE of the world's outstanding crusaders for world peace, Mr Herbert W. Armstrong, 84, will address members of service clubs in Port Elizabeth tomorrow.

Mr Armstrong, editor-in-chief of the 12 million circulation magazine, Plain Truth, is in South Africa as the guest of the South Africa Foundation, and will visit Port Elizabeth at the invitation of Lions International District 410D, the District Governor, Mr Solly Rubin, said.

Invitation

The programme of his three-week tour of South Africa includes meetings with the State President, Cabinet Ministers and as many of his 100 000 followers as possible.

Mr Armstrong is being accompanied on his South African travels by Mr Stanley R. Raeder, vice-chairman of the South Africa Foundation.

Mr Rubin has invited members of Port Elizabeth service clubs and their wives to attend Mr Armstrong's address at 5.30pm in the Great Room, Hotel Elizabeth, tomorrow.
