A Note on the missing volumes:

According to 'History of the Church of God (Seventh Day)' prepared by the Ministerial Students of Midwest Bible College Stanberry, Missouri, May 1965, I note the following quotes re the periodical:

1877-80:

"Our last excerpts from the Advent and Sabbath Advocate were copied from an issue late in 1875 or early 1876. There are no Advocate volumes on file in the Advocate office from then until in the spring of 1881."

1882:

"We have no Advent and Sabbath Advocate volumes on file from the spring of 1882 until the spring of 1884, but when the papers are again on hand which continued to report the activities of the Church, we find that by now a Church of God had been established in Stanberry. The Ministerial Conference convened with the Church of God in Stanberry, Mo., March 18, 1884."

1885:

"And now, even as late as 1885 articles had been appearing in the Advent and Sabbath Advocate against organization."

1886:

"W.C. Long reported through the Advocate of August 24, 1886, of meeting an ex-Seventh Day Adventist minister by the name of E.G. Blackmon."

What this tells me is that volumes 1877-1880 are missing as is 1883 – however I have been able to source several issues for 1883.

Also, this shows that volumes 1885 and 1886 were still available in 1965 and thus should still be there in CG7 archives. I cannot find anything in that history that volumes 1892-1899 are missing either. If they are missing, I assume that is because of the office fire in 1907?
