GREAT PEACE HAVE THEY THAT LOVE THY LAW: AND NOTHING SHALL OFFEND THEM.

THE REFINER'S FIRE

He sat by a furnace of seven-fold heat,
As He watched by the precious ore,
And closer He bent with a searching gaze
As He heated it more and more.

He knew He had ore that could stand the test
And He wanted the finest gold,
To mold as a crown for the King to wear.
Set with gems of price untold.

So He laid our gold in the burning fire,
Tho' we fain would say Him, "Nay,"
And watched the dross that we had not seen.
As it melted and passed away.

And the gold grew brighter and yet more bright,
But our eyes were dim with tears

We saw but the fire—not the Master's hand,
And questioned with anxious fears.

Yet our gold shone out with a richer glow
As it mirrored a Form above,
That bent o'er the fire, tho' unseen by us,
With a look of ineffable love.

Can we think it pleases His loving heart
To cause us a moment's pain?
Ah, no! but He sees thru the present cross
The bliss of eternal gain.

So He waited there with a watchful eye
With a love that is strong and sure,
And His gold did not suffer a bit more heat
Than was needed to make it pure.

A Falling Away

By Roscoe J. Child

I have just been reading in our "daily" a report that has been given by the officers of several denominations, as to the tremendous falling off of their membership, and am influenced by the Spirit of the Lord to write you.

No doubt we are living in the last days, and "The love of pleasure rather than the love of God is being manifested, and every member of the Church of God should search their hearts honestly in the light of the Spirit of God and His Word and cast off all known sin and do all they can for the cause.

Every member can be a real worker for their Lord and Master. The nice little book "Our Time In Bible Prophecy" is a most excellent message, and the price within the means of most anyone, and it contains a timely warning. Those who do not care to buy, especially those living near you, if asked in the right spirit, may be loaned one of the books and after returning it, it may be loaned to others. Those doing this good work are real missionaries.

The larger book "The Bible Home Instructor" is well named and a most excellent book to sell, and those who canvass for it can take along some of the small books on delivery, and if the large book is not wanted, maybe the small one could be sold and many be brought into the truth through its timely warning. Each member could get a supply of the small tracts "Gems of Truth series" as they cost only two cents each or $1.00 per hundred, so for only a dollar a good supply can be had and a variety so those who are out doing personal work for the Master can leave a tract on whatever question has been presented. Those interested can be supplied with a list of the above tracts by writing the Publishing House at Stanberry, Mo.

Those having a copy of the Bible Home Instructor can give Bible readings to their neighbors and friends, and in the mean time could get the agency for the book, and make a commission on every sale and be helping along the good work of the Lord.

Every member of the Church of God should write in and enclose a stamped, self addressed envelope, and ask for a list of "Gems of Truth Series" of tracts and terms on the books and enter the work. Let those far and near know what the Church of God is, and do all you can to spread the truth, and when the Lord comes there will be no doubt a good reward awaiting not only for you, but souls will be saved and have a home in the Kingdom. Also tracts can be enclosed in the letters you send out and many reached in that way. Tracts are silent visitors sometimes that is they may be placed in books and not found for years, and they are just as readable as ever. I found a tract a few days ago in an old book that was published way back in 1874.

Let every member be a worker and the church will not only gain in membership and every member strengthened, but many precious souls saved. Be sure and send the Lord's tithes in so more waiting workers will be sent to foreign lands to start a new mission and the work be extended.

REQUEST

As I was requested by many of the brethren at the General Conference and Camp-meeting that I have the inspired song published in the Advocate of all those who desire might have a copy. This song was given me by inspiration, both words and music.

THE TIME OF THE END

Walk in the light as it shines upon your pathway
Walk in the light, walk in the light,
Walk in the light there are many blessings wait you,
Walk in the beautiful light of God.

CHORUS

O praise the Lord for a free and full salvation,
Glory to His name, the time is now at hand,
Open your heart and receive this invitation,
O praise the Lord evermore.

Ask ye of the Lord "Rain" in the time of latter rain,
Showers of blessings, showers of blessing wait you
Don't neglect your duty or the gift that's in you,
Praise and glory, honor to His name.

See the lightning flash while the Seventh Angel—sounding

Blessed be His name, blessed be His name,
Send the message over vale and hill resounding,
Hosanna in the highest ever more.
Fear not little flock 'tis your Father's good pleasure

To give to you the kingdom, to give to you the kingdom

Cry aloud and spare not with voices like a trumpet,
Shouting His praises ever more.

The chariot wheels are rumbling with coming restoration,
Ye saints put on the armour, ye saints put on the armour,
Satan's walls are crumbling, he's near his destination
We're on the threshold of Eternity.

QUESTION CORNER

Question: Please explain Rev. 14 where it says: And they shall be tormented in the presence of the holy angels and the Lamb, and the smoke of their torment ascendeth up forever and ever, and they have no rest day or night that worship the beast and his image."

Answer: First we must notice that this refers specifically to the end of this age after the Third Angel's Message has accomplished its work, and the separating time has come. The saints are on the one hand of whom it is said they keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus, while on the other hand the wicked are victims of the unmingled wrath of God poured from the cup of His indignation.

This expressly refers to the time of the seven last plagues as you will quickly note by a comparison of the language found in Rev. 15th and 16th chapters where the warning is given relative to the contents of this cup of God's wrath. Compare Rev. 15:1, 7, 8 and Rev. 16:1 with the text in question viz., Rev. 14:10

If the reader will note the horrible nature of the seven last plagues he will quickly see that the ones thus afflicted will have no rest day nor night that worship the beast and his image. And referring as it does to the final events of the age, it quite naturally says that these "are tormented in the presence of the holy angels and the Lamb," the concluding plagues reaching as they do down to the coming of the Lord with all His holy angels.

The smoke of their torment ascending up forever and ever, simply sets forth a truth unquestioned. Smoke being the subject of the sentence as all grammarians will affirm, and ascends being the predicate, the truth set forth is simply that smoke never again returns. The subjects thus are gone forever, their very substance being consumed away into smoke as Mal. 4th chapter also affirms. It does not say that their torment continues forever, for torment is not the subject of the sentence, neither can we suppose that there will forever be an ascension of smoke from their burning. Smoke is substance, being composed of the thing consumed and in all cases the thing itself is destroyed.

Q.: Why is it that after the 144,000 of Rev. 14th chapter are saved and set apart, that the Revelator mentions seeing the three angels flying through the midst of heaven, constituting as they do the three angel's messages.

A.: This arrangement is not only found in the book of the Revelations but it is also found in most all books of history. One chain of events is brought down to a close, and then going back over the same period, another line is followed giving additional information interwoven with those previously mentioned. We cannot read the book of Revelations as one connected narration of events consecutively in their order, or confusion will be the result. We give for one example the judgment of the nations, the resurrection of the dead, and reward of the servants of God and of the saints, brought to view in the conclusion of chapter eleven, which carries us down to the very end of this age. Then the twelfth chapter opens up by saying "And there appeared a great wonder in heaven, a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars" etc.

The reader student of prophecy knows well the application of this symbol to the true people of God at the opening of the gospel dispensation. It would be folly to claim that these events were to transpire on earth after the day of judgment and the resurrection of the dead. The twelfth chapter starts in again with the dawning of the gospel age, and carries us down over a period pertaining to the Church of God to the conclusion when the dragon again makes war with those who keep the commandments of God and have the testimony of Jesus. The 13th chapter likewise begins with another line of prophecy carrying us again through the gospel age and reaching the climax with verses 1 to 5 of the following chapter, when the redeemed of earth are consumed and safe under the shadow of the Almighty.

From verse five we have the beginning of another line carrying us again through the events of the gospel age as pertaining to the "Gospel of the kingdom" which Jesus said was to go to the whole world as a witness to all nations before the end would come. Here we have it divided into its three phrases, or three messages heralded as it was by angels, or messengers. The everlasting gospel beginning as we all understand with the apostles, and continuing without end overlapping into and being carried through each of the following periods when there is a peculiar and distinct message due the whole world at each given time. The second message pertains to the fall of Babylon and the corruption of the apostate woman, or church, fully described in chapter seventeen. Then next comes the last or Third Angel's Message now going forth likewise to the world.

The climax in this series of events is reached toward the conclusion of the 14th chapter. Chapters 15 and 16 are especially a summary of the events more in detail of the closing of this age, and the consequence of not heeding the warning message of the third angel. These facts are clearly seen when notice is especially given these chapters.

Dear Brethren:—

Enclosed find report and check for books delivered.

I was called to West Virginia on business and did not get report sent in last week.

I sure do enjoy the work and wish many others could realize the joy and satisfaction of a life devoted to God's service. We know if we remain faithful that after this life we will have eternal life in God's Kingdom.

I could just fill pages writing of the good experiences I have, and often I can see the hand of God in the happenings of the day, for instance when delivering books a few days ago I had one of the Children's Books to deliver at a home, as I started to go up the steps a little boy in the yard said, "there isn't anyone home" I asked where the lady of the house was, he replied, "she has gone on a vacation." I told him I had a book for her, he said, "wait and I'll get the money" he paid for the book then pointing to a man on the porch of an adjoining house he said, "there is a man who might want some books, he is a Christian." I went up on the porch showed the man the B. H. I. and took an order for one to be delivered at once, also he requested that he be sent literature. I found him to be a Bible student, claiming to have had revelations from God which seemed true as he was convinced there was no everlasting burning hell by one such revelation. This man's son is studying for the ministry and he said the B. H. I. would be a great help to him.

I sure feel good when I place one in a home.

Asking your earnest prayers that I be a true ambassador for Christ.

I am your sister in His service
Mrs. Delphia Buck.

OBITUARY.

Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."—Rev. 14: 13.

Charles L. Carpenter, was born at Afton, Shenandoah County, New York, December 14, 1854, of colonial ancestry and passed away September 17, 1927 at Bassett, Nebraska, age nearly 73. Death was caused by injuries sustained in an attack by his Jersey animal while driving his cows in from pasture Sabbath morning from which he died three hours later.

He came west to Nebraska when twenty-four years of age, and settled in Knox county forty-nine years ago. He went through the privations in current with the early settlers living many miles from a railroad, broke prairie on his homestead and taught school during winters. The last twenty years of his life have been spent in Rock county, thirteen years of which he has lived near Bassett.

He was married to Arminda M. Grimm December 23rd, 1880 and they have been constant companions for nearly forty-seven years. Eight children were born two dying in infancy. The living ones are: Paul R., Seely B., Charity Jeffreyes, Hester, Maurice H., and Effie Dugger. There are twelve grandchildren, one brother, Fred of Bloomfield, and five sisters residing in New York.

He has since early childhood been ardently dedicated to God, and his life has been one constant preparation toward perfecting himself for the reward of the righteous. His religious life has been fully exemplified in every day life, being patient, lovable, honest, prayerful, steadfast, industrious, helping others, with fearlessness in convictions, which has been to his friends and associates wherever he has lived uplifting and elevating, and these remain today as his greatest monument.

In later years, as he saw it, he conscientiously became convinced of certain doctrinal errors and embracing clearer light changed his church affiliations to that of the Seventh Day Church of God. He was a charter member of the local church serving as impossible to please Him etc., and in verse 1 "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen." We have faith already when we serve Him through love and Paul says further in Rom 4:16, "Therefore is it of faith that it might be by grace," so then faith being opposite of doubt, we have hope also in the grace of God. UNMERITED FAVOR God recognizing the blood of Christ as sufficient to pay for our sins, when we come to Him through Christ in prayer—repenting with a Godly sorrow for our sins. Rom. 8:24, 25. "For we are saved by hope etc." 1 Cor. 13th chapter contains the explanation of LOVE. If it is just a form with us being only outward, then it will profit us nothing insomuch as the recognition of God, of the work or gifts is concerned.

Love of God Toward Man

The greatest love ever manifested is the wonderful love of God which affects the whole world throughout all time. Man and woman were good when created, but they sinned and brought death upon themselves. 1 John 3:4; Rom. 6:23. God did not take them at once, thus showing His love and defeating the devil. Gen. 3:15. He had provided a way of salvation through Christ. Rev. 13:8. "The lamb slain from the foundation of the world." Eph. 1:3-7 "Chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world." 1 Peter 1:18-29 "Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world." Rom. 5:6-9 "In due time Christ died." Rom. 5:12, 15. Death by Adam. Life through Christ. 1 John 3:1-3 "Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us." Matt. 12:49, 50 Thus we become members of one family John 3:16. (Golden Gospel) With Paul as in Rom. 11:33 we exclaim "O the depth of the riches both of wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are His judgments, and His ways past finding out." All this the foregoing is included in the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

Love Toward God on Our Part

We must manifest our love to God by doing His will out of affection. John 14:15 "If ye love me keep my commandments." 1 John 5:2-4 "For this is the love of God that we keep His commandments etc." 2 John 6 "And this is love that we walk after His commandments etc." Matt. 19:16-19; Matt. 22:35-40 The commandments referred to in Eccl. 12:13 "Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God and keep His commandments. for this is the whole duty of man." In order that the love of God may do its work we must respond on our part with love and the foregoing references point out clearly how we must show our love to God.

Love Among Brethren

John 13:34, 35 Yet Jesus says, "A new commandment I give unto you, that ye love one another" etc. 1 John 5:2 By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep His commandments. James 2:10 If we offend in one point we are guilty of all. The law of God as classed in LOVE to God and LOVE to man requires that we have love among ourselves as brethren else are we not prompted by real love and it profits us nothing, neither do we have the spirit of God within us 1 John 3:23,24. 1 Tim. 1:5 "Now the end of the commandment, is charity" etc., in other words the fulfillment or abiding by the law so that you are doing everything required on your part. We love God and our brother also. Love draws us closer together than the natural ties of relationship: so that we share together our hopes, blessings and sadness, and as Psalms 133:1 says, "Behold how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity." There are requirements on our part as in the following Col. 3:12-15 "Put on therefore as the elect of God, holy and beloved bowels of mercy, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long suffering," etc. Rom. 12:9, 10 "Let love be without false pretense" etc. 1 Peter 4:8 "Charity shall cover the multitude of sins." A forgiving disposition will not become offended. Although angry sometimes, yet as a little child forgive and forget. Never harbor evil or ill feelings towards a brother. Heb. 13:1 "Let brotherly love continue." 1 Peter 1:22 "See that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: zealously and earnestly. The relationship which exists between us as brethren members of one great family is the result or work of this love in the Christian life, and prompts us with the desire to meet together here as we now are to enjoy a spiritual feast. 1 Peter 3:8 "Finally be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous." Col. 3:15-17 "And let the peace of God rule in your heart, etc" "And whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by Him."

LETTER DEPARTMENT

FROM MISSOURI

Dear Brethren in Christ, greetings in Jesus' name: I will speak to you all through the dear little paper, the "Bible Advocate."

We are having a Baptist tent meeting here in Cosby. It began August 7th., They have large crowds, three to four hundred every night, have some fifty or sixty converts, mostly children ten to fourteen years old, but they don't teach them anything except to give their hearts to God and unite with the church. They are creating quite an excitement.

Hoping to meet you all in the earth made new. I ask the prayers of the saints everywhere that we hold out faithful.

I love to read of the success of the ministering brethren bringing souls to God.

Your sister in hope
Sarah E. Bledsoe.

FROM WEST VIRGINIA

To the Readers of the Bible Advocate, greetings in Jesus' name:—

As I am sending in my tithes though small, I pray God that it may help to bring light to some dear soul.

As I can't do much work any more I spend a great deal of time in the study of God's word and as I find subjects that I do not understand I will ask the readers of the Advocate to explain them to me.

The Holy City John saw coming down out of heaven was it a material city or was it the glory of God to make the city that Jesus is coming to fit and make glorious for the coming King and His people.

Also in Ezek 14th chapter, speaking of Jesus when he comes in the last day of setting His feet on the mount of Olive and the mount dividing in the center going east and west and north and south making a great valley. Will this be literal or will He just set His feet on the mount where He left His disciples when He ascended to His Father and let His glory cover the land of Palestine and make it holy for His people?

N. Meek.

FROM OKLAHOMA

Dear Editor and Brethren:—

As it has been a long time since I have written, this Sabbath afternoon will try again to write a few lines to you through our good paper. Have just finished reading my paper through. and was interested in some of its good articles especially "The Saints Inheritance" also the letters from the brethren.

The Sabbath would be a lonely day indeed without the Bible and the Advocate to read.

Today the brothers and sisters are assembled on the camp-ground enjoying as it were a spiritual feast in the sermons, song service and testimonies. Would like to be present with you but since I cannot my prayers are with you for a good meeting and for the success of the work that all may be done to the glory of God. I sometimes feel discouraged as there are no others of like precious faith to associate and worship with, but am still hoping and trusting in God's mercy and believing that His word shall not return unto Him void.

I would like to have a meeting held here again in the near future as I think the Lord's return is near at hand and we should be up and doing. Pray for the work here. I also ask an interest in your prayers for both my spiritual and physical welfare.

From your sister striving for a home in His kingdom.

Clara Harris.

FROM CANADA

Dear Brother Dugger:

I enjoy reading the Bible Advocate very much. I also take great interest in the Palestine (Zion news. Dear readers of the Advocate, I as one of your brethren ask you in the name of Christ Jesus our soon coming Savior, let us one and all be true to our God, the Creator of heaven and earth, for we must pay particular attention to the ways and means by which our Lord leads the Jewish nation home to its long promised land, to the city of Peace. Take the pains dear reader and look up Zechariah the first and second chapter. In reading these two chapters you will distinctly find that the All Wise Omnipotent God fulfilled His promises. Verily in Numbers 23:19, we find God is not a man that He shall lie, nether the son of man that He should repent, hath he said and shall He not do it, or hath He spoken, and shall He not make it good? Read further in such plain words: Therefore behold the days come, saith the Lord, that it shall no more be said, the Lord liveth that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt. To this part of the subject I invite your careful attention, consider it well: But the Lord liveth that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from the land whither He had driven them: and I will bring them again into the land that I gave unto their fathers. Jer. 16:14,15. Here we note that the Lord is meting out justice on every hand. We hear so many religious people scoff, but this will never change the plan of the All Wise Omnipotent, who has declared that it will be accomplished in due time. Therefore let us all be careful and believe the true Word of God. O wake dear readers, there is great need, for this world is wrapped in midnight slumber in regard to the Jewish nation being ordered home to their city of peace (Jerusalem). So when we note so many planned persecutions by neighboring countries, Kings and nations against the Jewish people bear in mind it's the hand of Jehovah, the great God, for He is ordering them home. I herewith encourage my Jewish brethren to be satisfied to leave the Babylonian countries and go home for the time of prophecy is fulfilled.

I will close with Isa. 6:3 Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of Hosts, the whole earth is full of His glory." Amen. Yes, dear readers let us one and all cry aloud unto Jews and all, Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord of Hosts," for He has ordered the Jews and faithful ones home to the city of peace. Turning to Zech 14:1 we read: Behold the day of the Lord cometh and thy spoil shall be divided in the midst of thee. Be ye satisfied and go home and prosper.

Yours in the name of Jehovah the great

PRAYER ROLL

Sister S. B. Willson of Oklahoma, requests the special prayers of the brethren for her baby. It has been sick for quite a while and is steadily growing worse. Remember this little one, and pray that its life may be dedicated to God.

Mrs. H. B. Parratt, of Tennessee, wishes the prayers of all the people for her healing. Her lungs are affected, but she says she has faith that God can heal her.

Please pray for me that I may be relieved of all my infirmities—which are many—especially my deafness. I know He is able. Pray that I may live nearer and nearer to my Father in heaven every day.

Your sister seeking eternal life in the earth made new
Mrs. Julia A. Rust.

THE PROCLAMATION OF LIBERTY

We have only twelve of the books "Proclamation of Liberty" and "The Unpardonable Sin" left, which we will mail to those whose orders first reach us. These books are ably written, and will greatly benefit the reader, giving profound knowledge of the deeper things of God. It is neatly bound in cloth cover, containing 266 pages. Price each postpaid 75 cents while they last.

THE GREEK TESTAMENT

We have a few of the Greek New Testaments on hand. These are similar to the Emphatic Diaglott. With one of these books you can quickly learn the Greek words and compare them in various renderings to discern their variation in meaning. In Matt. 28:1, the Greek rendering of "Opse" is "late", which you will also find in all Greek Lexicons, and it is translated in these books as follows: "Now late on the Sabbath as it was getting dusk toward the first day of the week," etc. This is the best Greek English interlinear that we know of.

Price for the entire New Testament postpaid $4.00
Same as above only in the Hebrew, and for Genesis and Exodus, postpaid for a new book. $3.50, for one slightly damaged $3.00.
