Dear Mr. White,

Thank you for your letter to me last month in which you expressed your appreciation for my efforts during the time my family and I have been in Australia. You also asked for information indicating that the Welsh people are descended from the tribe of Levi.

I am not aware of any publications or reference sources that mention this, but because there are several similarities in traits between the Welsh and Levites, it is most likely that they are the one and same people. For example, like the Levites, the Welsh are natural singers. There are also many place names in Wales that appear to correspond with Levitical surnames as recorded in the Bible.

Thank you again for your letter to me, Mr. White. I also appreciate your best wishes for us in our new assignment.

Sincerely,

Robert G. Morton
