Worldwide Church faithful from all over

MOUNT POCONO — What kind of people are they? Where do they come from? What do they believe in?

Worldwide Church of God members, approximately 12,500 in number, began arriving last week at the Mount Pocono convention site of the "Feast of the Tabernacles" for eight days of prayer and relaxation.

They are quiet people, well mannered, but not taciturn about God and the Bible. If they know one thing inside out, it's the Bible.

They seem to epitomize that built-in rural American about them. Industrious, hard working, going about their own business, they seem to epitomize that "Hi, neighbor" quality.

They come from Ohio, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana, Illinois, Virginia and West Virginia, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, the New England states and Canada.

Some of the fathers make

$50,000 a year; others make under $5,000. But in the auditorium at the Pocono feast site when the faithful rise in honored songs, they will be of one common bond.

In 1967 when the church erected a temporary tent for the feast site.

This year, nor since 1968, the members have not had to worry about bad weather inside the $200,000 auditorium.
