

World Wide Church fest not limited to Poconos

MOUNT POCONO — The fifth annual World Wide Church of God "Feast of the Tabernacle," with an attendance estimated at over 14,500 began Sunday night at the festival site between Routes 196 and 811 north of Mount Pocono.

Not only in Mount Pocono will members of the World Wide Church congregation be celebrating the "Feast of the Tabernacle," but at sites all over the country and around the world members of the World Wide Church will begin the eight day affair.

The festival in the Pocono Mountains is just one of 22 such festivals taking place on identical dates.

The United States has seven different locations where the congregations will assemble — Mount Pocono, Jekyll Island, Ga.; Lake of the Ozarks, Mo.; Big Sandy Tex.; and Squaw Valley, Calif., as well as sites in Hawaii and Alaska.

Other festival locations where members will gather include Canada, South America, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippine Islands, Great Britain, France, South Africa and the West In-disc. An estimated 70,500 members in the world wide organization will observe the Fall Festival this year. In Mount Pocono the 14,500 congregation is expected to come from all parts of New England and the Middle Atlantic States as well as points south to Washington, D.C., and as far north as Canada.
