

SUBJECT

POST OFFICE BOXES

DATE

Jun. 8, 1976

NO.

2.3.2

CHURCH ADMINISTRATION DIVISION • UNITED STATES FIELD MINISTRY

Page 1 of 1.

GUIDELINES

In some locations and situations, a local church pastor may not wish to have his actual street address distributed to individuals contacted through the evangelistic efforts of the Church. To avoid this situation the pastor may obtain a post office box.

The Church will reimburse expenses incurred for a post office box for individuals serving as pastors or associate pastors. The decision whether to have a post office box or not is entirely that of the minister. Post office boxes are no longer required.