

HOW GOD COUNTS DAYS

The purpose of this paper is to show how God counts days.

Below is a list of subjects that will be discussed.

1. The days in God's creation week (Gen. 1) start at sunrise and end the next morning.
2. The weekly Sabbath starts at sunrise and ends the next morning.
3. The Day of Atonement begins the 9th day at even and ends the 10th day at even.
4. The Days of Unleavened Bread start at even and end the next even.
5. The Feast of Trumpets, Pentecost, Feast of Tabernacles and The Last Great Day all begin at sunrise and end the next morning.

GOD'S CREATION WEEK

What did the first day of the creation week look like? When did it start and stop? Let's see (Gen. 1:3) "And God said, Let there be light and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day." Let's outline these three verses to see if we can simplify them.

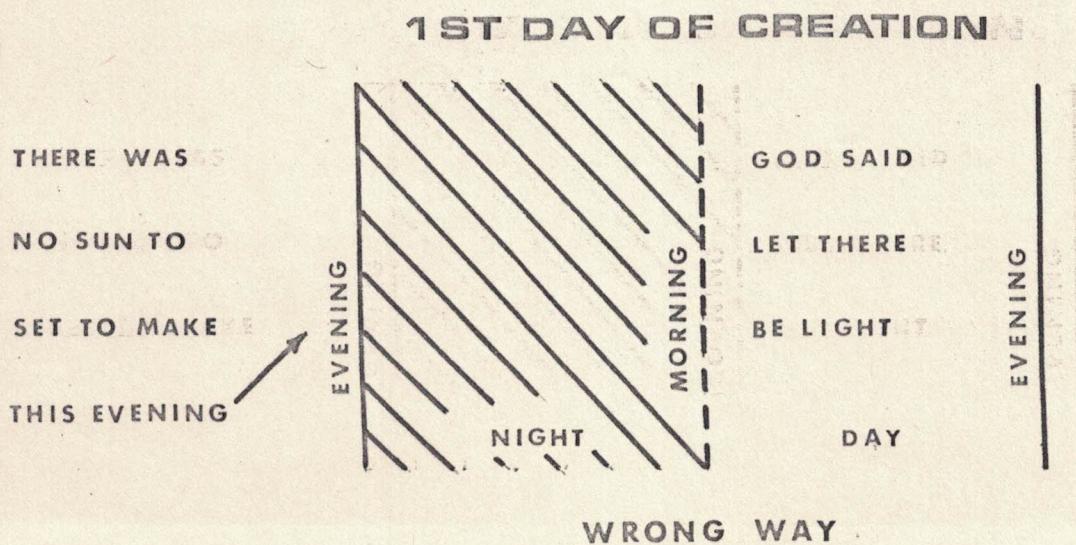

I. The First Day of Creation

- A. God makes the sun (God said "let there be light", Gen. 1:3-4).

- B. The earth starts to rotate on it's axis (God divided the light from the darkness-Gen. 1:4).
- C. Because of the earth's rotation the evening comes (and the evening - Gen. 1:5).
- D. Because of the earth's rotation the morning comes (and the morning - Gen. 1:5).
- E. This is the completion of the first day.

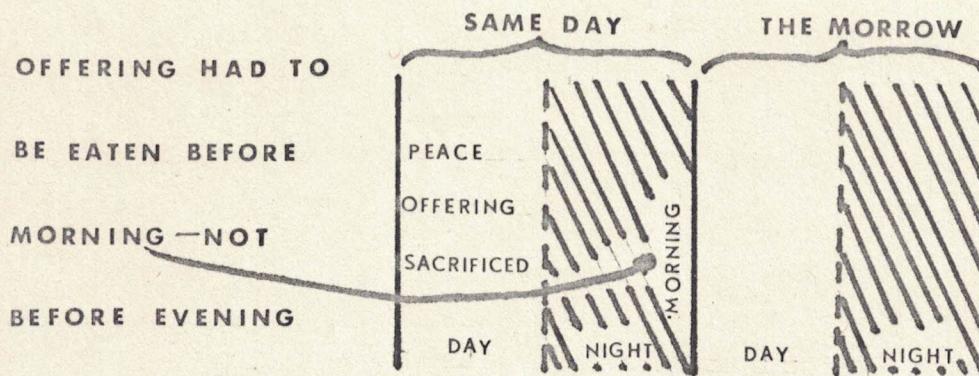

Therefore, the first day of creation started at the creation of light - or day - (And God called the light Day - Gen. 1:5), and the end of the first day occurred the next morning at sunrise, or the next light portion of the next day. Read all of Genesis 1. All of the days end with the phrase: "and the evening and the morning were the ____ day." In the amplified Bible this phrase reads like this, "and there was evening and there was morning, one day" (V.5).

The phrase, "And the evening and the morning were the first day", does not say that the day begins at even. The first day of the creation week could not have started at even because: See diagram below....

1. Evening means: end of daylight, or setting of the sun (Deut. 16:6). The sun was not shining before God said let there be light, so there could be no evening before God said let there be light.
2. There was no earth rotation before God divided the light from the darkness, so the morning could not come before God said let there be light and God divided the light. The formula for a creation day is: God creates during the daylight + evening + morning = a day. Creation + evening + morning = a day.

The fact that a day ends and another day begins in the morning is seen in the scriptures describing the sacrifice of peace-offerings, Lev. 7:15. "And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning." (Leviticus 22: 29-30). "And when ye will offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving unto the Lord, offer it at your own will. On the same day it shall be eaten up; ye shall leave none of it until the morrow: I am the Lord. If a day was from even to even, Lev. 7:15 would have to read, "he shall not leave any of it until the evening" - evening being the end of the day. Leviticus 7:15 does not say, "until the even", it says "until the morning". Leviticus 7:15 agrees with the fact that the day starts and ends in the morning. See diagram below....

Peace-offering had to be eaten in the same day it was sacrificed before the end of the day, or before the morrow (Lev. 22:30).

See graph Creation Week. The Sabbath day begins the morning that ends the sixth day.

THE WEEKLY SABBATH

The weekly Sabbath and the seventh day of the week occur at the same time. (Gen. 2:2-3). The seventh day starts at sunrise and ends the next morning. The Bible does not say from the sixth day of the week at even to the seventh day of the week at even is the weekly Sabbath of rest unto the Eternal. Therefore, the weekly Sabbath observance should be from sunrise of the 7th day to the next morning which ends the 7th day. This point is brought out in Exodus 16 where God teaches the children of Israel how to keep the weekly Sabbath. Exodus 16 also brings out the fact that God counts days from morning to morning. (Xerox copies of Exodus 16:16 are on the last pages.) Read Exodus 16:16. Here are some interesting points.

1. The manna lasted one day (except the sixth days manna).
2. The manna lasted from morning to morning (Ex. 16:19-20); it had to be eaten before the next morning when new manna was given.
3. Exodus 16:23, the 6th days manna lasted until the morning, the start of the Sabbath day, and it lasted through the Sabbath.

Therefore, God taught Israel to observe the weekly Sabbath from morning to morning, by raining bread from heaven (Ex. 16:4).

The flesh, the quails that came ~~at~~ even, only came once, and it was not part of the Sabbath lesson. Read Ex. 16:4.

THE DAY OF ATONEMENT

When the sun is out God calls it day - "And God called the light Day" - Gen. 1:5. The word day is also used to indicate a 24 hour period of time for example: Morning to morning. A day can be from evening to evening, from noon to noon, from midnight to midnight. The only way you can tell when a day is completed is that you have to know when the day was started. If you start counting in the morning, the completion of one day occurs at the next morning. If you start in the evening, the completion of one day occurs at the next evening. The day of Atonement is a day that starts in the evening and ends the next evening.. See diagram - Day of Atonement. Read Leviticus 23:27-32. The day of Atonement Sabbath is observed from even to even. "From even to even shall you celebrate your Sabbath." Lev. 23:32, does not say that every Sabbath starts at even, or that every day starts at even. It says that the day of Atonement starts at even.

SEVEN DAYS OF UNLEAVENED BREAD

The seven days of unleavened bread also starts in the evening and ends in the evening. Exodus 12:18. See diagram - Days of Unleavened Bread.

OTHER HOLY DAYS

The Feast of Trumpets, Pentecost, The Feast of Tabernacles, and the Last Great Day all start at sunrise or morning and end the next morning. See diagrams.

CONCLUSION

If a day is specified in relation to a week or a month its beginning is in the morning, because the creation week started the pattern for numbering the days of the week and the days of the month. Here are some examples. "On the first day of the week" - "on the fourteenth day of the first month", both these days start in the morning and end the next morning. Only on specific occasions does God start the day on an evening - the Day of Atonement and the First Day of Unleavened Bread. The First Day of Unleavened Bread starts the 14th day of the first month at even (Ex. 12:18). The Passover observance is also on the fourteenth day of the first month at even. Since there is only one evening on the 14th day, the First day of Unleavened Bread and the Passover occur at the same time. Mark 14:12 means exactly what it says - "And the first day of unleavened bread when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him: Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?" By starting the days of the week and the days of the month in the morning, the 15th night and the 14th night are in the proper places for the night to be observed, and the passover night. See the diagram - Days of Unleavened Bread. There is one other point to be discussed, concerning the two passovers in 31 A.D., which also has to do with counting days.

The purpose of this section is to show that God does not honor the rule of the Hebrew calendar that does not allow the first day of the seventh month to occur on a Friday. In every year that the first day of the seventh month is not allowed to be on a Friday, but is delayed until Saturday, all of the Holy Days in that year, except for Pentecost, are observed on the wrong days - one day late. The years 31 A.D., the year of Jesus' death, and a more recent year 1976 A.D., are two years in which the first day of the seventh month was delayed one day until Saturday. The purpose of the delay is to prevent the Day of Atonement from falling on a Sunday. The scriptures that will be used to prove that God does not honor this rule are clear and simple, but at first glance these scriptures association with this rule is not clear and simple. Once this association has been made, it will be easy to see that God does not honor this Rule, and in 31 A.D. God let the first day of the seventh month occur on a Friday.

THE RULE TELLS A LIE

Sorry to start out on such a sour note, but the point is well worth mentioning. See Calendar A, Seventh month 31 A.D. The Hebrew word chôdesh translates to the English words "moon" or "month". On the tenth day of the seventh month, can be translated, on the tenth day of the seventh new moon or on the tenth day of the seventh moon cycle. The Rule, in 31 A.D., called the 2nd day of the seventh new moon (a Saturday) the 1st day of the seventh new moon. This is a contradiction or lie! That Saturday was not the first day of the seventh chôdesh -New moon- month: it was the 2nd according to Hebrew calendar A. The Day of Atonement was on a Monday, but if you start counting from Friday, the first day of the seventh chôdesh (new moon), that Monday was in reality the 11th day of the new moon, not the 10th. The Day of Atonement was One Day Late if you count from the chôdesh. The main purpose for a 19 year cycle, with 7 leap years is to have a calendar whose months are synchronized to the moon cycle. This rule put 31 A. D., 1976 A.D., and many other years one day out of synchronization with the moon. We will see from the proof that Jesus and his disciples did not keep the Holy Days on the same days as the Jews but that they kept them one day before the Jews, proving that God did not honor this rule, and showing that God stays in synchronization with the moon cycle.

PROOF

Calendar A shows the delay in the start of the seventh month caused by the rule that is in question. Calendar B shows the same month without delay. The new moon and the first day of the month occur in the normal way. The Day of Atonement occurs on a Sunday. The one day delay in Calendar A, the 7th month, is also seen in Calendar C, the 1st month Nisan. This rule that makes a delay in the seventh month also makes a delay in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, and 6th months of the year also. Calendars A and C go together; and Calendars B and D go together. Calendar C brings out one very important point. There were two passovers in 31 A. D., one day apart, "the Lord's Passover", and "the Jews Passover". The Jew's Passover was one day later than the Lord's Passover. Just this point alone is enough to show that God did not honor the rule and observed the Passover on the true 14th day of the moon cycle at even. Calendar C says it was the 13th at even but the Lord's Passover in reality was on the true 14th Day at even. There is one other point that shows that God does not honor the rule.

We are trying to prove that God does not honor the delay in calendar C or A, so let's take the delay out and see what effect it has. See Calendar D.

Point One. The Lord's Passover occurs on the true 14th day of the moon cycle at even. This is the same relative evening that the Jews in calendar C observed.

Point Two. In Calendar D, the 15th day of month occurs on the 15th day of the moon cycle. See Full Moon.

Point Three. The crucifixion occurs on the 15th day of the moon cycle - Wednesday.

We lack one important point in our Proof. If we can show that the 15th day of Calendar D (no delay), the day of Jesus' crucifixion - Wednesday, is the First Day of Unleavened Bread then we will have proven that God did not honor the delay in the 7th month and the 1st month 31 A.D., and observed the Passover and the First Day of Unleavened Bread one day before the Jews. See Calendar E.

The only difference between Calendar E and Calendar D is that the 15th, Wednesday, is a Holy Day the First Day of Unleavened Bread. Can we really make Wednesday, a Holy Day that started the evening Jesus and his disciples ate the Passover, the First Day of Unleavened Bread? Yes! God in his word the Bible states this fact 3 times! Mark 14-12; Matthew 26-17; Luke 22-7.

The First Day of Unleavened Bread starts the 14th Day at even - setting of the sun. (Exodus 12:18) And is always a Holy Day. (Lev. 23:7)

God's First Day of Unleavened Bread occurs one day before the Jew's First Day of Unleavened Bread (called high day Sabbath in John 19:31).

Conclusion: See Calendar E. There is only one way to account for the two Passovers, and the two First Days of Unleavened Bread (Holy Days) and that is that God does not honor the rule that does not allow the first day of the seventh month to fall on a Friday. Let's observe God's Holy Days and not the Jew's Holy Days which are one day late in the years that the rule is applied.

HOW TO USE THE SUBJECT REFERENCES.

THE subject references lead the reader from the first clear mention of a great truth to the last. The first and last references (in parenthesis) are repeated each time, so that wherever a reader comes upon a subject he may recur to the first reference and follow the subject, or turn at once to the Summary at the last reference.

THE PENTATEUCH.

The five books ascribed to Moses have a peculiar place in the structure of the Bible, and an order which is undeniably the order of the experience of the people of God in all ages. Genesis is the book of origins—of the beginning of life, and of ruin through sin. Its first word, “In the beginning God,” is in striking contrast with the end, “In a coffin in Egypt.” Exodus is the book of redemption, the first need of a ruined race. Leviticus is the book of worship and communion, the proper exercise of the redeemed. Numbers speaks of the experiences of a pilgrim people, the redeemed passing through a hostile scene to a promised inheritance. Deuteronomy, retrospective and prospective, is a book of instruction for the redeemed about to enter that inheritance.

That Babylonian and Assyrian monuments contain records bearing a grotesque resemblance to the majestic account of the creation and of the Flood is true, as also that these antedate Moses. But this confirms rather than invalidates the inspiration of the Mosaic account. Some tradition of creation and the Flood would inevitably be handed down in the ancient cradle of the race. Such a tradition, following the order of all tradition, would take on grotesque and mythological features, and these abound in the Babylonian records. Of necessity, therefore, the first task of inspiration would be to supplant the often absurd and childish tradition with a revelation of the true history, and such a history we find in words of matchless grandeur, and in an order which, rightly understood, is absolutely scientific.

In the Pentateuch,^a therefore, we have a true and logical introduction to the entire Bible; and, in type, an epitome of the divine revelation.

^a Cf. Mt. 8. 4; 19. 8; Mk. 12. 26; Lk. 5. 14; 16. 29-31; John 3. 14; 5. 45, 46; 7. 19.

The abbreviation cf. used throughout the Bible signifies compare.

GENESIS.

GENESIS is the book of beginnings. It records not only the beginning of the heavens and the earth, and of plant, animal, and human life, but also of all human institutions and relationships. Typically, it speaks of the new birth, the new creation, where all was chaos and ruin.

With Genesis begins also that progressive self-revelation of God which culminates in Christ. The three primary names of Deity, Elohim, Jehovah, and Adonai, and the five most important of the compound names, occur in Genesis; and that in an ordered progression which could not be changed without confusion.

The problem of sin as affecting man's condition in the earth, and his relation to God, and the divine solution of that problem are here in essence. Of the eight great covenants which condition human life and the divine redemption, four, the Edenic, Adamic, Noahic, and Abrahamic Covenants, are in this book; and these are the fundamental covenants to which the other four, the Mosaic, Palestinian, Davidic, and New Covenants, are related chiefly as adding detail or development.

Genesis enters into the very structure of the New Testament, in which it is quoted above sixty times in seventeen books. In a profound sense, therefore, the roots of all subsequent revelation are planted deep in Genesis, and whoever would truly comprehend that revelation must begin here.

The inspiration of Genesis and its character as a divine revelation are authenticated by the testimony of history, and by the testimony of Christ (Mt. 19. 4-6; 24. 37-39; Mk. 10. 4-9; Lk. 11. 49-51; 17. 26-29, 32; John 1. 5; 7. 21-23; 8. 44, 56).

Genesis is in five chief divisions: I. Creation (1. 1-2. 25). II. The Fall and Redemption (3. 1-4. 7). III. The Diverse Seeds, Cain and Seth, to the Flood (4. 8-7. 24). IV. The Flood to Babel (8. 1-11. 9). V. From the call of Abram to the death of Joseph (11. 10-50. 26).

The events recorded in Genesis cover a period of 2,315 years (Ussher).

² But three creative acts of God are recorded in this chapter: (1) the heavens and the earth, v. 1; (2) animal life, v. 21; and (3) human life, vs. 26, 27. The first creative act refers to the dateless past, and gives scope for all the geologic ages.

³ Jer. 4. 23-26, Isa. 24. 1 and 45. 18, clearly indicate that the earth had undergone a cataclysmic change as the result of a divine judgment. The face of the earth bears everywhere the marks of such a catastrophe. There are not wanting intimations which connect it with a previous testing and fall of angels. See Ezk. 28. 12-15 and Isa. 14. 9-14, which certainly go beyond the kings of Tyre and Babylon.

⁴ Neither here nor in verses 14-18 is an original creative act implied. A different word is used. The sense is, made to appear, made visible. The sun and moon were created “in the beginning.” The “light” of course came from the sun, but the vapour diffused the light. Later the sun appeared in an unclouded sky.

was good; and God divided light from the darkness.

5 And God called the light "Day," and the darkness he called "Night." And the evening and the morning were the first day.

The second day: vapour above, water below.

6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from 'the waters which were above the firmament; and it was so.'

8 And God called the firmament "Heaven." And the evening and the morning were the second day.

The third day: Land and sea; plant life appears.

9 And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear; and it was so.

10 And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.

¹ The word "day" is used in Scripture in three ways: (1) that part of the solar day of twenty-four hours which is light (Gen. 1, 5, 14; John 9, 4; 11, 9); (2) such a day, set apart for some distinctive purpose, as, "day of atonement" (Lev. 23, 27); "day of judgment" (Mt. 10, 15); (3) a period of time, long or short, during which certain revealed purposes of God are to be accomplished, as "day of the LORD."

² The use of "evening" and "morning," may be held to limit "day" to the solar day; but the frequent parabolic use of natural phenomena may warrant the conclusion that each creative "day" was a period of time marked off by a beginning and ending.

⁴ The "greater light" is a type of Christ, the "Sun of righteousness" (Mal. 4, 2). He will take this character at His second advent. Morally the world is now in the state between Gen. 1, 3 and 1, 16 (Eph. 6, 12; Acts 26, 18; 1 Pet. 2, 9). The sun is not seen, but there is light. Christ is that light (John 1, 4, 5, 9), but "shineth in darkness," comprehended only by faith. As "Sun of righteousness" He will dispel all darkness. Dispensationally the Church is in place as the "lesser light," the moon, reflecting the light of the unseen sun. The stars (Gen. 1, 16) are individual believers who are "lights" (Phil. 2, 15, 16). See John 1, 5.

(A type is a divinely purposed illustration of some truth. It may be: (1) a person (Rom. 5, 14); (2) an event (1 Cor. 10, 11); (3) a thing (Heb. 10, 20); (4) an institution (Heb. 9, 11); (5) a ceremonial (1 Cor. 5, 7). Types occur most frequently in the Pentateuch, but are found, more sparingly, elsewhere. The antitype, or fulfilment of the type, is found, usually, in the New Testament.)

that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven.

21 And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth.

The sixth day: (1) the fecundity of the earth after the creative work of the fifth day.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so.

25 And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after

1 The second clause, "every living creature," as distinguished from fishes merely, is taken up again in verse 24, showing that in the second creative act all animal life is included.

2 "Creature," Heb. nephesh, trans. soul in 2, 7 and usually. In itself nephesh, or soul, implies self-conscious life, as distinguished from plants, which have unconscious life. In the sense of self-conscious life animals also have "soul." See verses 26, 27, note.

3 Man... Gen. 1, 26, 27, gives the general, Gen. 2, 7, 21-23, the particular, account of the creation of man. The revealed facts are:

(1) Man was created, not evolved. This is (a) expressly declared, and the declaration is confirmed by Christ (Mt. 19, 4; Mk. 10, 6); (b) an enormous gulf, a divergence practically infinite, (Huxley) between the lowest man and the highest beast, confirms it; (c) the highest beast has no trace of God-consciousness—the religious nature; (d) science and discovery have done nothing to bridge that "gulf."

(2) That man was made in the "image and likeness" of God. This "image" is found chiefly in man's tri-unity, and in his moral nature. Man is "spirit and soul and body" (1 Thes. 5, 23). "Spirit" is that part of man which "knows" (1 Cor. 2, 11) and which allies him to the spiritual creation and gives him God-consciousness. "Soul" in itself implies self-conscious life, as distinguished from plants, which have unconscious life. In that sense animals also have "soul" (Gen. 1, 24). But the "soul" of man has a vaster content than "soul" as applied to beast life. It is the seat of his emotions, desires, affections, (Psa. 42, 1-6). The "heart" is, in Scriptural usage, nearly synonymous with "soul." Because the natural man is, characteristically, the soulful or psychical man, "soul" is often used as synonymous with the individual, e. g. Gen. 12, 5. The body, separable from spirit and soul, and susceptible to death, is nevertheless an integral part of man, as the resurrection shows (John 5, 28; 29; 1 Cor. 15, 47-50; Rev. 20, 11-13).

4 The First Dispensation: Innocency. Man was created in innocence, placed in a perfect environment, subjected to an absolutely simple test, and warned of the consequence of disobedience. The woman fell through pride; the man, deliberately ended in the judgment of the Expulsion (Gen. 3, 24). See, for the other dispensations: Conscience (Gen. 3, 23); Human Government (Gen. 8, 20); Promise (Gen. 12, 1); Law (Ex. 19, 8); Grace (John 1, 17); Kingdom (Eph. 1, 10).

5 The First Dispensation: Innocency. Man was created in innocence, placed in a perfect environment, subjected to an absolutely simple test, and warned of the consequence of disobedience. The woman fell through pride; the man, deliberately ended in the judgment of the Expulsion (Gen. 3, 24). See, for the other dispensations: Conscience (Gen. 3, 23); Human Government (Gen. 8, 20); Promise (Gen. 12, 1); Law (Ex. 19, 8); Grace (John 1, 17); Kingdom (Eph. 1, 10).

and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it; and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

29 And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed, to you it shall be for meat.

30 And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth d Deity upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat; and it was so.

31 And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

^{13. C. 20.} CHAPTER 2.
The sabbath rest of God: type of the believer's rest in the finished work of redemption (Heb. 3:4).

THUS the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them.

2 And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it; because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

Summary of the creation work of Chapter 1.

4 These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, condition life and salvation, and about which all Scripture crystallizes, has seven elements. The man and woman in Eden were responsible:

(1) To replenish the earth with a new order—man; (2) to subdue the earth to human uses; (3) to have dominion over the animal creation; (4) to eat herbs and fruits; (5) to till and keep the garden; (6) to abstain from eating of the tree of knowledge of good and evil; (7) the penalty—death. See, for the other seven covenants: Adamic (Gen. 3:15); Noahic (Gen. 9:1); Abrahamic (Gen. 15:18); Mosaic (Ex. 19:25); Palestinian (Deut. 30:3); Davidic (2 Sam. 7:16); New (Heb. 8:8).

In the O. T. the same Hebrew word (godesh) is trans. sanctify, consecrate, dedicate, and holy. It means, set apart for the service of God. See refs. following "Sanctify," Gen. 2:3.

²LORD (Heb. Jehovah).

(1) The primary meaning of the name LORD (Jehovah) is "the self-existent One." Literally (as in Ex. 3:14), "He that is, therefore the eternal I AM." But Havah, from which Jehovah, or Yahwe, is formed, signifies also "to become," that is, to become known, thus pointing to a continuous and increasing self-revelation. Combining these meanings of Havah, we arrive at the meaning of the name Jehovah. He is "the self-existent One who reveals Himself." The name is, in itself, an advance upon the name "God" (Eloah, Elohim), which suggests certain attributes of Deity, as strength, etc., rather than His essential being.

(2) It is significant that the first appearance of the name Jehovah in Scripture follows the creation of man. It was God (Elohim) who said, "Let us make man in our image" (Gen. 1:26); but when man, as in the second chapter of Genesis, is to fill the scene and become dominant over creation, it is the LORD God (Jehovah Elohim) who acts. This clearly indicates a special relation of Deity, in His Jehovah character, to man, and all Scripture emphasizes this.

(3) Jehovah is distinctly the redemption name of Deity. When sin entered and redemption became necessary, it was Jehovah Elohim who sought the sinning ones (Gen. 3:9-13) and clothe them with "coats of skins" (Gen. 3:21), a beautiful type of a righteousness provided by the LORD God through sacrifice (Rom. 3:21, 22). The first distinct revelation of Himself by His name Jehovah was in connection with the redemption of the covenant people out of Egypt (Ex. 3:13-17).

As Redeemer, emphasis is laid upon those attributes of Jehovah which the sin and salvation of man bring into exercise. These are: (a) His holiness (Lev. 11:44, 45; 19:1, 2; 20:26; Hab. 1:12, 13); (b) His hatred and judgment of sin (Deut. 32:35-42; Gen. 6:5-7; Psa. 11:4-6; 66:18; Ex. 34:6, 7); (c) His love for and redemption of sinners, but always righteously (Gen. 3:21; 8:20, 21; Ex. 12:12, 13; Lev. 16:2, 3; Isa. 53:5, 6, 10). Salvation by Jehovah apart from sacrifice is unknown to Scripture.

This name signifies Jehovah's abiding presence with His people (see Ex. 33:14, 15; 1 Chr. 16:27, 33; Psa. 16:11; 97:5; Mt. 28:20; Heb. 13:5).	The name is interpreted in the context. The memorial of redemption by blood.

14 And this day shall be unto you for a memorial; and ye shall keep it a feast to the LORD throughout your generations; ye shall keep it a feast by an ordinance for ever.
15 "Seven days shall ye eat unleavened bread; even the first day ye shall put away leaven out of your houses: for whosoever eateth leavened bread from the first day until the seventh day, that soul shall be cut off from Israel.

16 And in the first day there shall be an holy convocation, and shall be an holy convocation to you: no manner of work shall be done in them, save that which every man must eat, that only may be done of you.

17 And ye shall observe the feast of unleavened bread; for in this selfsame day have I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt: therefore shall ye observe this day in your generations by an ordinance for ever.
18 In the first month, on the fourteenth day of the month at even, ye shall eat unleavened bread, until the one and twentieth day of the month at even.
19 Seven days shall there be no leaven found in your houses; for whosoever eateth that which is leavened, even that soul shall be cut off from the congregation of Israel, whether he be a stranger, or born in the land.
20 Ye shall eat nothing leavened; in all your habitations shall ye eat unleavened bread.
21 Then Moses called for all the elders of Israel, and said unto them, Draw out and take you a lamb according to your families, and kill the passover.

22 And ye shall take a bunch of hyssop, and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the lintel and the two side posts with the blood that is in the bason; and none of you shall go out at the door of his house until the morning.
23 For the LORD will pass through to smite the Egyptians; and when he seeth the blood upon the lintel, and on the two side posts, the LORD will pass over the door, and will not suffer the destroyer to come in unto your houses to smite you.
24 And ye shall observe this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sons for ever.
25 And it shall come to pass, when ye be come to the land which the LORD will give you, according as he hath promised, that ye shall keep this service.
26 And it shall come to pass, when your children shall say unto you, What mean ye by this service?

27 That ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the LORD's passover, who passed over the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt; when he smote the Egyptians, and delivered our houses. And the people bowed the head and worshipped.
28 And the children of Israel went away, and *a*did as the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

The contest with Pharaoh: the tenth judgment; death of the firstborn.

29 And it came to pass, that at a Faith. vs. 21:28; Ex. 14:21,22; Gen.3:20; Heb.11:39.) midnight the LORD *b*smote all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, from on his throne unto the firstborn of the captive that was in the dungeon; and all the firstborn of cattle.
30 And Pharaoh rose up in the night, he, and all his servants, and all the Egyptians; and there was a great cry in Egypt; for there was not a house where there was not one dead.
31 And he called for Moses and Aaron by night, and said, Rise up, and get you forth from among my people, both ye and the children of Israel; and go, serve the LORD, as ye have said.
32 Also take your flocks and your herds, as ye have said, and be gone; and bless me also.
33 And the Egyptians were urgent upon the people, that they might send them out of the land in haste; for they said, We be all dead men.

34 And the people took their kneading troughs being bound up in their clothes upon their shoulders.
35 And the children of Israel did according to the word of Moses; and they borrowed of the Egyptians jewels of silver, and jewels of gold, and raiment:
36 And the LORD gave the people favour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they lent unto them such things as they required.

1 The Passover type of Christ our Redeemer (Ex. 12:1-28; John 1:29; 1 Cor. 5:6,7; 1 Pet. 1:18,19): (1) The lamb must be without blemish, and to test this it was kept up four days (Ex. 12:5,6). So our Lord's public life, under hostile scrutiny, was the testing day which proved His holiness (Lk. 11:53,54; John 8:46; 18:38). (2) The Lamb thus tested must be slain (Ex. 12:6; John 12:24; Heb. 9:22). (3) The blood must be applied (Ex. 12:7). This answers to appropriation by personal faith, and refutes universalism (John 3:36). (4) The blood thus applied of itself, without anything in addition, constituted a perfect protection Christ the bread of life, answering to the memorial supper (Mt. 26:26-30; 1 Cor. 11:23-26). To observe the first stage of the journey.

37 And the children of Israel journeyed from Ramees to Succoth, where they were preserved from the judgment upon the firstborn (Ex. 12:34-39).

39 And they baked unleavened cakes of the dough which they brought forth out of Egypt, for it was not leavened; because they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarry, neither had they prepared for themselves any victuals.

46 In one house shall it be eaten; thou shalt not carry forth ought of the flesh abroad out of the house; neither shall ye break a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall keep it.

48 And when a stranger shall sojourn to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised, and then let him come near and keep it; and he shall be as one that is born in the land: for no uncircumcised person shall eat thereof.

CHAPTER 15.

Redemption: complete (1) by blood; (2) by power. The song of the redeemed.

THEN sang Moses and the children of Israel this song unto the LORD, and spake, saying, I will sing unto the LORD, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he thrown into the sea.

2 The LORD is my strength and song, and he is become my salvation: he is my God, and I will prepare him an habitation; my father's God, and I will exalt him.

¹ Redemption: (Exodus type) Summary. Exodus is the book of redemption, and teaches: (1) redemption is the book of redemption, and is through a person (Ex. 2, 2, note; John 3, 16); (2) redemption is by blood (Ex. 12, 13, 23, 27; 1 Pet. 1, 18); (3) redemption is by power (Ex. 6, 6; 13, 14; Rom. 8, 2. See Isa. 59, 20, note; Rom. 3, 24, note). The blood of Christ redeems the believer from the guilt and penalty of sin (1 Pet. 1, 18) as the power of the Spirit delivers from the dominion of sin (Rom. 8, 2; Eph. 2, 2).

*A*ND they took their journey from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came unto the wilderness of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month, after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness:

3 And the children of Israel said unto them, Would to God we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the flesh pots, and when we did eat bread to the full; for ye have brought us forth into this wilderness, to kill this whole assembly with hunger.

4 Then said the LORD unto Moses, Behold, I will rain bread from heaven for you; and the people shall go out and gather a certain rate every day, that I may prove them, whether they will walk in my law, or no.

5 And it shall come to pass, that on the sixth day they shall prepare that which they bring in; and it shall be twice as much as they gather daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron said unto all the children of Israel, At even, then ye shall know that the LORD hath brought you out from the land of Egypt:

7 And in the morning, then ye shall see the glory of the LORD; for that he heareth your murmurings against the LORD: and what are we, that ye murmur against us?

8 And Moses said, This shall be, when the LORD shall give you in the evening flesh to eat, and in the morning bread to the full; for that the LORD heareth your murmurings which ye murmur against him; and what are we? your murmurings are not against us, but against the LORD.

9 And Moses spake unto Aaron, Say unto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come near before the LORD: for he hath heard your murmurings.

10 And it came to pass, as Aaron spake unto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, that they looked toward the wilderness, and, behold, the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud.

11 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

12 I have heard the murmurings of the children of Israel; speak unto them, saying, At even ye shall eat flesh, and in the morning ye shall be filled with bread; and ye shall know that I am the LORD your God.

13 And it came to pass, that at even the quails came up, and covered the camp: and in the morning the dew lay round about the host.

The manna: type of Christ the Giver and sustainer of life (John 6. 30-63).

14 And when the dew that lay was gone up, behold, upon the face of the wilderness there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoar frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said one to another, It is manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said unto them, This is the bread which the LORD hath given you to eat.

16 This is the thing which the LORD hath commanded, Gather of it every man according to his eating, an omer for every man, according to the number of your persons; take ye every man for them which are in his tents.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered, some more, some less.

18 And when they did mete it with an omer, he that gathered much had nothing over, and he that gathered little had no lack; they gathered every man according to his eating.

19 And Moses said, Let no man leave of it till the morning.

20 Notwithstanding they hearkened not unto Moses; but some of them left of it until the morning, and it bred worms, and stank; and Moses was wroth with them.

21 And they gathered it every morning, every man according to his eating; and when the sun waxed hot, it melted.

22 And it came to pass, that on the sixth day they gathered twice as much bread, two omers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

The Sabbath given to Israel; type of Israel's kingdom (Heb. 4. 8, 9).

23 And he said unto them, This is that which the LORD hath said, To morrow is the rest of the holy sabbath unto the LORD: bake that which ye will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe; and that which remaineth over lay up for you to be kept until the morning.

24 And they laid it up till the morning, as Moses bade; and it did not stink, neither was there any worm therein.

25 And Moses said, Eat that to day; for to day is a sabbath unto the LORD: to day ye shall not find it in the field.

26 Six days ye shall gather it; but on the seventh day, which is the sabbath, in it there shall be none.

27 And it came to pass, that there went out some of the people on the seventh day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the LORD said unto Moses, How long refuse ye to keep my commandments and my laws?

29 See, for that the LORD hath given you the sabbath, therefore he giveth you on the sixth day the bread of two days; abide ye every man in his place, let no man go out of his place on the seventh day.

30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna; and it was like coriander seed, white; and the taste of it was like wafers made with honey.

32 And Moses said, This is the thing which the LORD commandeth, Fill an omer of it to be kept for your generations; that ye may see the bread wherewith I have fed you in the wilderness, when I brought you forth from the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses said unto Aaron, Take a pot, and put an omer full of manna therein, and lay it up before the LORD, to be kept for your generations.

34 As the LORD commanded Moses, so Aaron laid it up before the Testimony, to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eat manna forty years, until they came to a land inhabited; they did eat manna, until they came unto the borders of the land of Canaan.

36 Now an omer is the tenth part of an ephah.

CHAPTER 17.

Redemption: (3) experience; eighth stage of the journey; thirst.

AND all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim; and there was no water for the people to drink.

2 Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the LORD?

3 And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said,

4 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim, among us, or not?

Redemption: (3) experience; the conflict with Amalek.

5 And Moses said unto the LORD, Choose us out men, and go out,

6 Behold, I will stand before thee there upon the 2-rock in Horeb; and thou shalt smite the rock, and there shall come water out of it, that the people may drink. And Moses did so in the sight of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

8 Then came Amalek, and fought with Israel in Rephidim, among us, or not?

9 And Moses said unto the LORD, Come down from heaven to die for the life of the world, (John 6. 35, 48-51). A "small" thing (Ex. 16. 14), having but the taste of "fresh oil" (Num. 11. 8), or "wafers with honey" (Ex. 31), it typifies Christ in humiliation as presented in Matthew, Mark, and Luke; "having no form nor comeliness; . . . no beauty that we should desire him" (Isa. 53. 2). But as such He must be received by faith if we would be saved (John 6. 53-58). To meditate upon Christ as He went about among men, doing not His own will but the will of the Father (John 6. 38-40), is to feed on the manna. This is, of necessity, the spiritual food of young believers, and answers to "milk" (1 Cor. 3. 1, 2). But Christ in glory, and the believer's present and eternal association with Him there, answers to "the old corn of the land" (Josh. 5. 11), the "meat" of Heb. 5. 13, 14, or Christ as presented in the Epistles of Paul. Cf. 2 Cor. 5. 16.

10 The rock, type of life through the Spirit by grace: (1) Christ the Rock (1 Cor. 10. 4). (2) The people utterly unworthy (Ex. 17. 2; Eph. 2. 1-6). (3) Characteristics of life through grace: (a) free (John 4. 10; Rom. 6. 23; Eph. 2. 8); (b) abundant (Rom. 5. 20; Psa. 105. 41; John 3. 16); (c) near (Rom. 10. 8); (d) the people had only to take it (Isa. 55. 1). The smitten-rock aspect of the death of Christ looks toward the outpouring of the Holy Spirit as a result of accomplished redemption, rather than toward our guilt. It is the affirmative side of John 3. 16. "Not perish"

11 Amalek, grandson of Esau (Gen. 36. 12), who was "born after the flesh" (Gal. 4. 22-29) and progenitor of the Amalekites, Israel's persistent enemy, is a type of the flesh in the believer (Gal. 4. 29). But the conflict with Amalek in chapter 17 sets forth the resources of the man under law, rather than those of the believer under grace. The man under law could fight and pray (vs. 9-12). Under by fire unto the Lord; it is a trespass-offering.

6 Every male among the priests shall eat thereof; it shall be eaten in the holy place; it is most holy.

7 As the sin-offering is, so is the trespass-offering: there is one law for them: the priest that maketh atonement therewith shall have it.

8 And the priest that offereth any man's burnt-offering, even the priest shall have to himself the skin of the burnt-offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the ^bmeat-offering that is baked in the oven, and all that is dressed in the fryingpan, and in the pan, shall be the priest's that offereth it.

10 And every ^bmeat-offering, mingled with oil, and dry, shall all the sons of Aaron have, one as much as another.

The law of the offerings: (5) the ^cPeace-offering (Lev. 3.1-17).

11 And this is the law of the sacrifice of ^dpeace-offerings, which he shall offer unto the Lord.

12 If he offer it for a thanksgiving, then he shall offer with the sacrifice of thanksgiving unleavened cakes mingled with oil, and unleavened wafers anointed with oil, and cakes mingled with oil, of fine flour, fried.

13 Besides the cakes, he shall offer for his offering ^eleavened bread with the sacrifice of thanksgiving of his peace-offerings.

14 And if he shall offer one out of the whole oblation for an offering unto the Lord, and it shall be the priest's that sprinkleth the blood of the peace-offerings.

15 And the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings for thanksgiving shall be eaten the same day that it is offered; he shall not leave any of it until the morning.

16 But if the sacrifice of his offering be a vow, or a voluntary offering, it shall be eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice; and on the morrow also the remainder of it shall be eaten:

17 But the remainder of the flesh of the sacrifice on the third day shall be burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of the sacrifice of his peace-offerings be eaten at all on the third day, it shall not be accepted, neither shall it be imputed unto him that offereth it: it shall be an abomination, and the soul that eateth of it shall bear his iniquity.

19 And the flesh that toucheth any unclean thing shall not be eaten; it shall be burnt with fire: and as for the flesh, all that be clean shall eat thereof.

20 But the soul that eateth of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, that pertain unto the Lord, having his uncleanness upon him, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

21 Moreover the soul that shall touch any unclean thing, as the uncleanness of man, or any unclean beast, or any abominable unclean thing, and eat of the flesh of the sacrifice of peace-offerings, which pertain unto the Lord, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

22 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

23 Speak unto the children of Israel, that offereth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

24 For the wave-offering before the Lord, and the breast, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

25 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast shall be Aaron's and his sons'.

26 And the right shoulder shall ye give unto the priest for an heave-offering of the sacrifices of your peace-offerings.

27 He among the sons of Aaron, that offereth the blood of the peace-offerings, and the fat, shall have the right shoulder for his part.

28 And the priest shall burn the fat upon the altar: but the breast rael, saying, Ye shall eat no manner of fat, of ox, or of sheep, or of goat.

24 And the fat of the beast that dieth of itself, and the fat of that which is torn with beasts, may be used in any other use: but ye shall in no wise eat of it.

25 For whoever eateth the fat of the beast, of which men offer an offering made by fire unto the Lord, even the soul that eateth it shall be cut off from his people.

26 Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

27 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

28 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

29 Speak unto the children of Israel, saying, He that offereth the sacrifice of his peace-offerings unto the Lord shall bring his oblation ^av.20.

ⁿ And he put the mitre upon his head; also upon the mitre, even upon his forehead, did he put the golden plate, the holy crown; as the Lord commanded Moses.

1 In the "law of the offerings," the peace-offering is taken out of its place as third of the sweet savour offerings, and placed alone, and after all the non-sweet savour offerings. The explanation is as simple as the fact is beautiful. In revealing the offerings Jehovah works from Himself out to the sinner (see Ex. 25. 10, note). The whole burnt-offering comes first as meeting what is due to the divine affections, and the trespass-offering last as meeting the simplest aspect of sin—its injuriousness. But the sinner begins of necessity with that which lies nearest to a newly awakened conscience—a sense, namely, that because of sin he is at enmity with God. His first need, therefore, is peace with God. And that is precisely the Gospel order. Christ's first message is, "Peace" (John 20. 19), afterward He shows them His hands and His side. It is the order of 2 Cor. 5. 18-21: first "the word of reconciliation," verse 19, then the trespass- and sin-offering, verse 21. Experience thus reverses the order of revelation.

2 The use of leaven here is significant. Peace with God is something which the believer shares with God. Christ is our peace-offering (Eph. 2. 13). Any thanks-giving for peace must, first of all, present Him. In verse 12 we have this, in type, and so leaven is excluded.

In verse 13 it is the offerer who gives thanks for his participation in the peace, and so leaven fitly signifies, that though having peace with God through the work of another, there is still evil in him. This is illustrated in Amos 4. 5, where the evil in Israel is before God.

24 And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying,

25 Take Aaron and his sons with him, and the garments, and the anointing oil, and a bullock for the sin-offering, and two rams, and a basket of sunleavened bread;

26 And gather thou all the congregation together unto the door of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Moreover ye shall eat no manner of blood, whether it be of fowl or of beast, in any of your dwellings.

28 Whatsoever soul it be that eateth any manner of blood, even that soul shall be cut off from his people.

CHAPTER 22.

The separation of the priests (Heb. 7. 26).

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying,

² Speak unto Aaron and to his sons, that they ^kseparate themselves from the holy things of the children of Israel, and ^lthat they profane not my holy name in those things which they ^mhallow unto me: I am the LORD.

³ Say unto them, Whosoever he be of all your seed among your generations, that goeth unto the holy things, which the children of Israel hallow unto the LORD, "having his uncleanness upon him, that soul shall be cut off" from my presence: I am the LORD.

⁴ What man soever of the seed of Aaron is a leper, or hath a running issue; he shall not eat of the holy things, until he be ^aclean. And ^bwhoso toucheth any thing ^{that is} unclean ^bby the dead, or a man whose seed goeth from him;

⁵ Or whosoever toucheth any creeping thing, whereby he may be made unclean, or a man of whom he may take uncleanness, whatsoever uncleanness he hath;

⁶ The soul which hath touched any such shall be unclean until even, and shall not eat of the holy things, unless he wash his flesh with water.

⁷ And when the sun is down, he shall be clean, and shall afterward eat of the holy things; ^dbecause it is his food.

⁸ That which dieth of itself, or is torn with beasts, he shall not eat to defile himself therewith. I am the LORD.

⁹ They shall therefore keep mine ordinance, ^elest they bear sin for it; and die therefore, if they profane it: I the LORD do sanctify them.

¹⁰ There shall no stranger eat of the holy thing; a sojourner of the priest, or an hired servant, shall not eat of the holy thing.

not eat of an offering of the holy things.

¹³ But if the priest's daughter be a widow, or divorced, and have no child, and is ⁱreturned unto her father's house, as in her youth, she shall eat of her father's meat; but there shall no stranger eat thereof.

¹⁴ And if a man eat of the holy thing unwittingly, then he shall put the fifth part thereof unto it, and shall give ^{it} unto the priest with the holy thing.

¹⁵ And they shall not profane the holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer unto the LORD;

CHAPTER 23.

The feasts of Jehovah: the sabbath and the feasts.

AND the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 2 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, Concerning the feasts of the LORD, which ye shall proclaim to be holy convocations, even these are my feasts. 3 Six days shall work be done; but the seventh day is the sabbath of rest, an holy convocation; ye shall do no work therein: it is the sabbath of the LORD in all your dwellings.

The feasts of Jehovah: (1) the Passover; Christ our Redeemer (1 Cor. 5.7; 1 Pet. 1.19).

4 These are the feasts of the LORD, even holy convocations, which ye shall proclaim in their seasons.

5 In the fourteenth day of the first month at even is the LORD'S passover.

The feasts of Jehovah: (2) unleavened bread. Memorial feast (1 Cor. 11.23-26; 5.6-8; 2 Cor. 7.1; Gal. 5.7-9).

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same month is the feast of unleavened bread unto the LORD: seven days ye must eat unleavened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall have an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

8 But ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD seven days: in the seventh day is an holy convocation: ye shall do no servile work therein.

1 The feasts of Jehovah. As given to Israel, these were simply seven great religious festivals which were to be observed every year. The first three verses of Lev. 23, do not relate to the feasts, but separate the sabbath from the feasts. 2 The Passover, vs. 4, 5. This feast is memorial and brings into view redemption, upon which all blessing rests. Typically, it stands for "Christ our passover, sacrificed for us" (1 Cor. 5.7). 3 The feast of Unleavened Bread, vs. 6-8. This feast speaks of communion with Christ, the unleavened wave-loaf, in the full blessing of His redemption, and of a holy walk. The divine order here is beautiful; first, redemption, then a holy walk. See 1 Cor. 5.6-8; 2 Cor. 7.1; Gal. 5.7-9.

4 The feast of Firstfruits, vs. 10-14. This feast is typical of resurrection—first, of Christ, then of "them that are Christ's at His coming" (1 Cor. 15.23; 1 Thes. 4.13-18).

5 The feast of Pentecost, vs. 15-22. The anti-type is the descent of the Holy Spirit to form the church. For this reason leaven is present, because there is evil in the church (Mt. 13.33; Acts 5.1, 10; 15.1).

6 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days: and ye shall offer a new dñeat-offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your hab-

itutions two wave-loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid ^aLit. meal. of the goats for a ^bsin-offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace-offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave-offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall do no servile work theron: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

23 The feasts of Jehovah: (4) the wave-loaves; the church at Pentecost, fifty days after the resurrection of Christ (1 Cor. 10.16, 17; 12.12, 13, 20).

15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days: and ye shall offer a new dñeat-offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your hab-

itutions two wave-loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer with the bread seven lambs without blemish of the first year, and one young bullock, and two rams: they shall be for a burnt offering unto the LORD, with their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings, even an offering made by fire, of sweet savour unto the LORD.

19 Then ye shall sacrifice one kid ^aLit. meal. of the goats for a ^bsin-offering, and two lambs of the first year for a sacrifice of peace-offerings.

20 And the priest shall wave them with the bread of the firstfruits for a wave-offering before the LORD, with the two lambs: they shall be holy to the LORD for the priest.

21 And ye shall proclaim on the selfsame day, that it may be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall do no servile work theron: it shall be a statute for ever in all your dwellings throughout your generations.

22 And when ye reap the harvest of your land, thou shalt not make clean riddance of the corners of thy field when thou reapest, neither shalt thou gather any gleaning of thy harvest: thou shalt leave them unto the poor, and to the stranger: I am the LORD your God.

23 The feasts of Jehovah: (4) the wave-loaves; the church at Pentecost, fifty days after the resurrection of Christ (1 Cor. 10.16, 17; 12.12, 13, 20).

15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days: and ye shall offer a new dñeat-offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your hab-

itations two wave-loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer unto the children of Israel: (3) Firstfruits; Christ risen (1 Cor. 15.23). 9 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, 10 Speak unto the children of Israel, and say unto them, When ye be come into the land which I give unto you, and shall reap the harvest thereof, then ye shall bring a sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest unto the priest:

11 And he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, to be accepted for you: on the morrow after the sabbath the priest shall wave it.

12 And ye shall offer that day when ye wave the sheaf an he lamb without blemish of the first year for a burnt-offering unto the LORD.

13 And the dñeat-offering thereof shall be two tenth deals of fine flour mingled with ^coil an offering made by fire unto the LORD for a sweet savour; and the drink-offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth part of an ephah.

14 And ye shall eat neither bread, nor parched corn, nor green ears until the selfsame day that ye have brought an offering unto your God: it shall be a statute for ever throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

15 And ye shall count unto you from the morrow after the sabbath, from the day that ye brought the sheaf of the wave-offering; seven sabbaths shall be complete:

16 Even unto the morrow after the seventh sabbath shall ye number fifty days: and ye shall offer a new dñeat-offering unto the LORD.

17 Ye shall bring out of your hab-

itations two wave-loaves of two tenth deals: they shall be of fine flour; they shall be baked with leaven; they are the firstfruits unto the LORD.

18 And ye shall offer unto the children of Israel: (5) Trumpets; prophetic of the future regathering of Israel (Isa. 18.3; 7; 27. 12, 13; 58. 1-14; Joel 2. 15-32).

19 Then ye shall speak unto the children of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, in the first day of the month, shall ye have a sabbath, a memorial of blowing of 2 trumpets, an holy convocation.

20 Ye shall do no servile work thereon; but ye shall offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

21 The feasts of Jehovah: (6) the day of Atonement (Heb. 9.1-16).

22 And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, c i.e. October; also vs.27, Isa.22.12; Jer.3.19; Ezk.7.16.

23 And on the tenth day of this seventh month there shall be a day of atonement: it shall be an holy convocation unto you; and ye shall afflict your souls, and offer an offering made by fire unto the LORD.

Jesus anointed by Mary of Bethany (Mk. 14. 3-9; John 12. 1-8).

6 Now when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the aleper,

7 There came unto him a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat.

8 But when his disciples saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste? 9 For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the poor.

10 When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me.

11 For ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not ^kalways.

12 For in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it ^lfor my ^mburial.

Judas Iscariot sells the Lord (Mk. 14. 10, 11; Lk. 22. 3-6).

14 Then one of the twelve, called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests,

15 And said unto them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for ⁿthirty pieces of silver.

CHAPTER 26.

The Jewish authorities consult to put Jesus to death (Mk. 14. 1, 2; Lk. 22. 1, 2).

AND it came to pass when Jesus had finished all these sayings, he said unto his disciples,

2 Ye know that after two days is the feast of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.

3 Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas,

4 And from that time he sought opportunity to betray him.

The preparation of the passover (Mk. 14. 12-16; Lk. 22. 7-13).

17 Now the first day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover?

18 And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep the passover at thy house with my disciples.

19 And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

The last passover (Mk. 14. 17-21; Lk. 22. 14-20, 24-30).

20 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve.

(Here read John 13. 2-30.)

21 And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall ^obetray me.

22 And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I? 23 And he answered and said, He that ^pdippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall betray me.

24 The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! ^qit had been good for that man if he had not been born.

Jesus institutes the Lord's Supper (Mk. 14. 22-25; Lk. 22. 17-20; 1 Cor. 11. 23-25).

26 And as they were eating, Jesus

¹ No contradiction of John 12. 3 is implied. The ordinary anointing of hospitality and honour was of the feet (Lk. 7. 38) and head (Lk. 7. 46). But Mary of Bethany, who alone of our Lord's disciples had comprehended His thirce repeated announcement of His coming death and resurrection, invested the anointing with the deeper meaning of the preparation of His body for burying. Many of Bethany was not among the women who went to the sepulchre with intent to embalm the body of Jesus.

² The order of events on the night of the Passover supper appears to have been: (1) The taking by our Lord and the disciples of their places at the table; (2) the contention who should be greatest; (3) the foot-washing; (4) the identification of Judas as the traitor; (5) the withdrawal of Judas; (6) the institution of the supper; (7) the words of Jesus while still in the room (Mt. 26. 26-29; Lk. 22. 35-38; John 13. 31-35; 14. 1-31); (8) the words of Jesus between the room and the garden (Mt. 26. 31-35; Mk. 14. 26-31; John 15. 16, 17); it seems probable that the high-priestly prayer (John 17. 1) was uttered after they reached the garden; (9) the agony in the garden; (10) the betrayal and arrest; (11) Jesus before Caiaphas; Peter's denial; (12) the trial before the Sanhedrin; (13) the condemnation; (14) the execution.

1 This judgment is to be distinguished from the judgment of the great white throne. Here there is no resurrection; the persons judged are living nations; no books are opened; three classes are present, sheep, goats, brethren; the time is at the return of Christ (V. 31); and the scene is on the earth. All these particulars are in contrast with Rev. 20. 11-15. The test in this judgment is the treatment accorded by the nations to those whom Christ here calls "my brethren." These "brethren" are the Jewish Remnant who will have preached the Gospel of the kingdom to all nations during the tribulation. See "Remnant" (Isa. 1. 9; Rom. 11. 5). The test in Rev. 20. 11-15 is the possession of eternal life. See, for the judgment, John 12. 31, note; 2 Cor. 5. 10, note; Ezk. 36. 26-28; Rev. 21. 27; 22. 1-5.

CHAPTER 14.

The Plot to put Jesus to death (Mt. 26. 24; Lk. 22. 1, 2).

After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread; and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

2 But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people.

Jesus anointed by Mary of Bethany (Mt. 26. 6-13; John 12. 1-8).

3 And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head.

4 And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?

5 For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.

6 And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.

7 For ye have the poor with you always, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good; but me ye have not always.

8 She hath done what she could; she is come beforehand to anoint my body to the burying.

9 Verily I say unto you, Wherever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her.

31 Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.

32 But of that day and that hour know no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

33 Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.

Watchfulness in view of the return of the Lord.

(Mt. 26. 14-16; Lk. 22. 3-6).

10 And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto them.

11 And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.

34 For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch.

35 Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, either in the evening or at midnight.

The Preparation of the passover (Mt. 26. 17-19; Lk. 22. 7-13).

12 And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the b sacrificed passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover?

13 Ard he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

14 And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples?

15 And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.

16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover.

The Last passover (Mt. 26. 20-24; Lk. 22. 14, 21-23; John 13. 18, 19).

17 eAnd in the evening he cometh with the twelve.

18 And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which feateth with me shall betray me.

19 And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I? 20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 *e*The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! *h*good were it for that man if he had never been born.

Jesus institutes the Lord's Supper (Mt. 26. 26-29; Lk. 22. 17-20; 1 Cor. 11. 23-26).

22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and *b*roke it, and gave to them; and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said unto them, *This is my blood of the *m*new *n*testament, which is shed for many.*

25 Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

28 *t*But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.

35 And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him.

36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee: take them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour?

37 And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.

1 Verses 20, 24 are not included in the report of the Olivet discourse as given by Matthew and Mark. Two sieges of Jerusalem are in view in that discourse. Luke 21: 20-24 refers to the siege by Titus, A.D. 70, when the city was taken, and verse 24 literally fulfilled. But that siege and its horrors but culminates. At that time at the end of this age, in which the "great tribulation" culminates. The city will be taken, but delivered by the glorious appearing of the Lord (Rev. 19: 11-21). Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus answered, Thou couldst have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: ^c therefore he that delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin.

38 And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. ^hHe came therefore, and took the body of Jesus.

39 And there came also ⁱNicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about an hundred ^jpound weight.

40 Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in ^klinen cloths with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury. ^lNow in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, where it was never man yet laid.

42 There laid they Jesus therefore because of the ^mJews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was night at hand.

CHAPTER 20.

The resurrection of Jesus Christ (^{Mt. 28. 1-10; Mk. 16. 1-14; Lk. 24. 1-43).}

1 Cf. Mt. 28. 9, "and they came and held him by the feet." A contradiction has been supposed. Three views are held: (1) That Jesus speaks to Mary as the High Priest fulfilling the day of atonement (Lev. 16). Having accomplished the sacrifice, He was on His way to present the sacred blood in heaven, and that, between the meeting with Mary in the garden and the meeting of Mt. 28. 9, He had away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we know not where they have laid him.

3 Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre.

4 So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came first to the sepulchre.

5 And he stooping down, and looking in, saw the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in.

6 Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the linen clothes lie.

7 And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by itself.

8 Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed.

9 ^fFor as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.

10 Then the disciples ^mwent away again unto their own home.

13 And they say unto her, Woman, why weepest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.
