

I need to explain further what I have. Most of what I have are sermons and a few bible studies. I have no "study" papers. Most of the lectures were not on theological subjects but relating to the College in some way. I do have several lectures given to the Ministers in the Ministerial Refreshing Program (MRP). I sent one to you already. Some would be appropriate, others would not since they were prepared for a ministerial audience.

The only one that might be used is entitled Love, Sex and Marriage.

From the sermons here is a list of possibilities:

Strive for Excellence
Faith to believe in troubled times
Faith to obey (Heb. 11)
What is the true gospel (from a 1/2 hour address)
Hallow God's name
Head & Helper in marriage.
Heaven
Hell
What is true holiness
Hypocrisy
Judging
The Law
Millennium
Patience
Peace
Progress
Keys to understand prophecy
What is sin
Our Christian warfare
Wisdom

They all would take editing on my part. A few are outlines without details which would have to be filled in.

I will try and find out from Gene Hogberg about a revised compendium. I doubt there is such a revision.
