Dear Mr McNair,

Greetings from 'down under'.

You probably don't remember me, but we had a chat when you were over in Sydney some years ago (probably 11 or so). We also corresponded briefly about our national origins. At this point in time, I thought that it may be worthwhile to forward the enclosed items to you for comment/input. I am sure that you will find them all doctrinally sound:

Paper	Comment
Assur and Nimrod in Conflict: Ancient Roots of Modern International Tensions?	Your view on the identification of Assur and Nimrod would be appreciated. Otherwise, any ideas whom they might be?
Assur and Israel – Contenders for the Birthright	Do you think that this speculation of mine is correct?
List of AC papers	This is a list of those I have been able to collect over the years. No doubt there are 100s of others. Any idea where I might be able to obtain them?
List of Useful Books by CoG members	Are you aware of any other such books?
List – Study paper outlines	Should you wish to avail yourself of any of these, please let me know.

You may also be interested in the various materials on my website www.originofnations.org and the book I recently had published on the non-Israelitish peoples, In Search of ... the Origin of Nations (see flyer enclosed).

Finally, some have expressed concerns that your book and other research you have undertaken over the years may not ever be published or distributed. So, I was wondering if you have any plans for publishing or distributing your research at all.

I recall Garth Wardrop years ago, and am still trying to find his books that were supposed to be published after he died about 1988, to no avail. Another contact of mine also died with his research becoming lost.

I trust all is well and look forward to your reply. Feel free to write, e-mail or phone me should you so wish.

Warm regards,

Craig White
