Dear Mr McNair

Re : Identity of the 'Lost' 12 Tribes'

I thought I would drop you a line to thank you for the great Bible Study which you presented in Sydney on 11th March 1992. It was truly appreciated by all of us. In particular, I liked the new bits of information which I have never come across before.

I, too, am a great royalist. In fact, I had quite a bit to do with the Queen's recent visit to Australia and was quite fascinated by the entire splendid event (I work in the NSW Premier's Dept). There is no doubt about it, she is surrounded by an incredibly powerful aura - which suggest to me that she and others of the line of David may have angels protecting them?

I have a copy of your fantastic "Ascent to Greatness" and also have read your "Key to Northwest European Origins" - when will the latter ever be published as a book? Could you please send me a list of the references you used at your BS? I am particularly interested in following up with those ancient sources you referred to.

May I suggest the following references to you ? :

- "The Word" by Isaac Mozeson, Schaposky Publishers, New York in which this brilliant linguist traces the Hebrew origins of English!
- I also have in my possession the Phd thesis by Dr Blodgett with similar conclusions. It is titled Phonological Similarities in Germanic Between Germanic and Hebrew (would you like a copy?) . I have corresponded with him from time-to-time and you will be pleased to know that he is an Identity believer. He worked at the Southern Utah State University, but I have lost contact with him. He may still be there.
- "God's Frontiersmen" by Rory Fitzpatrick . It sure shows the Judahite component of the Ulster Scots and Lowlander Scots without the author really understanding that. It is from these people's mentality toward 'righteousness' that the Bible Law/Reconstructionist theology grouping appear to originate.

I, too, had come to the conclusion that the Ulster/Lowlander Scots descend from Judah. It is important that these people lead the tribes of Israel.

As I mentioned quickly to you on stage shortly after the BS, my research shows the same tendency among the Scots in Australia and South Africa to end up as leaders. When asked why this was the case, Robert Menzies replied that " they have a sense of continuity and the spirit of independence".

I also find it interesting that the peoples of south-west Ireland and the darker peoples of north-west and south-west Wales (ie the Silurians), wilder in nature, have a blood group matching exactly that of the brown/olive-skinned Canaanites dwelling turbulently around the Mediterranean. It is from these south-west Irish Phoenicians that the Sinn Fein descend. I am sure, however, that the bulk of southern Irish descend from Dan.

Have you researched the exact identity of each of the tribes? If so, I would appreciate you forwarding to me any pointers towards my research. We could swap notes if you so wished.

I have also researched extensively into the modern identity of the nations of Genesis 10 and would like to send you my 60 page paper on "True Origins of the Peoples of Eastern Europe" for comment.

I have enclosed a letter I received from Mr Morton some time ago which might interest you. I wonder if you could fill in the details to his statement that there are Levitical place-names in Wales.

I hope to hear from you soon.

All the best

Craig White.

PS The Whites descend from the McGregors (=son of vigilance or son of the watchful) and the Lamonts (=Lawgiver). What does McNair mean?
