Dear Mr. Armstrong and Members of the Thesis Committee:

Enclosed is my thesis entitled: NOW REVEALED--THE TRUE HISTORY OF THE EARLY CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

This is submitted for your consideration and (hopefully) approval as the final requirement to receive the degree of Master of Arts in Theology.

The material presented is not necessarily new to our thinking--but rather is a fairly thorough resume of the preparation for the gospel and the history of the Church in the first century.

I have called upon some material already presented by Dr. Hoeh, Dr. Dorothy, and others, but not generally material which has been printed--at least with this theme in mind.

In writing the thesis I tried to keep in mind a general audience of readers, rather than specifically directing it to Freshman Bible students in college. Should this presentation be later acceptable for publication, I felt this approach would allow easier editing for the PLAIN TRUTH or the GOOD NEWS--but if not suitable for the magazines could be more thoroughly done for the Bible classes and students in the college.

It has been rewarding for me to research and write up this time in Church history--I hope it will prove interesting and of value to God's Work.

Mr. McCullough and I hope to see you all at graduation time in Pasadena on or before Friday, May 26.

In Christ's Service,

Ronald Kelly
