Stefan Kube - Seventh Day Baptist Elder

I was privileged to be given a copy of Mr Kube's autobiography, Reaching Upwards, recently. I met Mr Kube in early 1996 when I was assisting Church of God (Seventh Day) Elder Richard Cress and his wife on their trip to Australia. I drove them to meet the Kube's at their home in the Blue Mountains and then to Wollongong to present a sermon to the United Church of God congregation. An outline of the sermon can be found online here. In an e-mail to me dated 9 June 2003, Elder Cress recalled this time:

"During visits to Australia, Charles visited with the Kubes in the Blue Mountains (where you so graciously drove me) and a NSW congregation pastored by Gordon Gibbs. Gordon subsequently left the sabbatarian movement and did embrace the charismatic movement. I think the Kubes still had some contact with him at the time I was there. I only talked to him over the telephone. I don't even know if he is still alive."

Mr Kube's autobiography is so interesting and contains insights and information that is rare and inspiring. The suffering of the Polish peoples under the Nazis and Communists was terrible, but God saw the Kube's through these terrible trials.

He and I kept in contact over the years and I received his Link newsletter until he passed away. You can find a summary sketch of Seventh Day Baptist history on their website and a lot of information and links on the Friends of the Sabbath site.
