

AUSTRALIA MUST TURN TO God's Law

Demonstrating the correctness and effectiveness of Divine Judgment

DEUTERONOMY 4

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations. . .

THE KEY: 2 Chronicles 7:14

“ If My People, which are called by My Name (the Christians), shall humble themselves (not humble the enemy), and seek My Face (My Law and My Will), and turn from their wicked ways (turn from their disobedience to My Law); then (after they do all that) will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin (their transgression of My Law), and will heal their land.”

“Sin is the transgression (breaking) of the Law.” 1 John 3:4

To cease sinning, Australia must turn and obey God's Laws.

The following pages provide examples of our National disobedience.

DEUTERONOMY 11

22 For if ye shall diligently keep all these commandments which I command you, to do them, to love the Lord thy God, to walk in all His ways, and to cleave unto Him;

25 There shall no man be able to stand before you: for the Lord your God shall lay the fear of you and the dread of you upon all the land that ye shall tread upon, as He hath said unto you.

26 Behold, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

God's Law A Blessing and a Curse

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commandments of the Lord your God, which I command you this day;

28 And a curse, if ye will not obey the commandments of the Lord your God, but turn aside out of the way which I command you this day. . . .

5 Behold, I have taught you statutes and judgments, even as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye do so in the land whither ye go to possess it.

6 Keep therefore and do them; for this is your wisdom and your understanding in the sight of the nations, which shall hear all these statutes, and say, Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.

7 For what nation is there so great, who hath God so nigh unto them, as the Lord our God is in all things that we call upon Him for ?

8 And what nation is there so great, that hath statutes and judgments so righteous as all this law, which I set before you this day ?

DEUTERONOMY 17

15 . . . Thou mayest not set a stranger over thee, which is not thy brother.

18 And it shall be, when he sitteth upon the throne of his kingdom, that he shall write him a copy of this law in a book out of that which is before the priests the Levites:

19 And it shall be with him, and he shall read therein all the days of his life: that he may learn to fear the Lord his God, to keep all the words of this law and these statutes, to do them.

Man's Law on Murder

In addition to the money lost to the citizens for feeding murderers, many murderers, upon release, commit robberies and assaults, and some kill again.

GOD'S LAW ON MURDER

The above is for first degree murder. Different provisions are made in Bible Law for killing in self-defence, to stop the commission of a crime, for accidental killing, and for killing in war. God requires execution of murderers, because "the blood it defileth the land; and the land cannot be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but (except) by the blood of him that shed it."

Our refusal to execute murderers has defiled our land.

Man's Law on Rape

Repetition of rape by former rapists is almost certain, as most are mentally defective.

GOD'S LAW ON RAPE

When those who violate God's Laws are punished according to God's judgments (punishments), the citizens enjoy justice, order, quietness, and peace. God says: "When My judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (ISAIAH 26:9)

THE ABOVE HAS ILLUSTRATED WHAT YOU KNOW TO BE TRUE.

The pages which follow provide a few examples of God's Laws, classified under specific captions. Those who are appointed to rule and judge in this land, being thus ordained of God Almighty, ought to study the WHOLE COUNSEL of God and "read therein all the days of your life" as commanded by God Himself in Deuteronomy 17: 15-20.

Man's Law on Theft

Repetition of the crime of robbery by released thieves is higher than with murderers!

GOD'S LAW ON THEFT

Thieves who have been punished according to God's judgments (punishments) rarely steal again, as they have had demonstrated to them that "crime does not pay." At the same time, by this example, others learn not to steal. "When the scorner (or disobedient) is punished, the simple is made wise..." Proverbs 21:11. Parents and teachers know that punishing one child for disobedience teaches all the rest not to disobey. Adults react the same way, just as God's Word says.

A HISTORY OF BIBLE LAW FROM ISRAEL TO US

Inasmuch as the Bible is the only true source of light shed upon the problems of human conduct, responsibility and government, and since this eternal Law is the foundation and guiding light of the legal systems of the Christian Nations of the West, we offer the following compilation of the Laws of the Christian Bible.

In reviewing the history of the Hebrews, we must begin with Abraham, the founder of the Hebrew race, and give consideration first to the Patriarchal Age. During this period of Hebrew history the family was the unit of government, and the father, the head of the family, was the authoritative ruler. In earthly life and daily relationships he was both lord and priest over his household. God Almighty imparted to the Patriarchs certain principles of righteousness governing the relationship of the people to God and to one another. Based upon these principles, the heads of families formulated rules and regulations for the conduct of the members of the household.

All laws by definition attempt to define morality by which government may rule justly. No law was ever made that could shake itself loose from its religious roots. Government under the Patriarchal Age (pre-Israelite era) was no exception. God Almighty was the invisible — but very real and powerful — King and ultimate Law-giver, and the Patriarch was His representative, or earthly vice-regent, responsible to apply God's Law to all areas of life. The members of the household were his subjects, responsible to execute and enforce God's Law under the leadership of the Patriarch.

After Abraham's grandson, Jacob, his sons and their families migrated to Egypt, God's people increased in numbers very rapidly. When the Israelites departed from Egypt under the strong leadership of Moses, they were a multitude of over two million people, bound together by racial and religious ties. As each of the 12 sons of Jacob had multiplied, they had become semi-independent tribes in their own right, ruled by tribal "princes" and religious rulers known as "elders." In the degree that Moses, the princes, elders and heads of families ruled the people by God's Law, to that degree did God Himself rule Israel as their unseen King.

Moses led Israel out of Egypt to Mount Sinai where they remained for nearly a year. Here God formally organized them into "one Nation under God" and gave them their first written Constitution, the Ten Commandments. Written by the finger of God upon two stone tablets, they were the standard by which all subsequent civil and religious laws were to be measured. To these Ten Commandments, God Almighty added the Statutes which defined the violation of the Commandments, and the Judgments which were the punishments that would correct the people if they disobeyed and maintain righteousness in the land . . . Almighty God said His Law was given for Israel's good and, if obeyed, would set them high above all Nations.

However, once the Israelites arrived in Canaan, the people forgot their God-given Law and "every man did that which was right in his own eyes." The people suffered politically, economically, socially and many other ways under the shifting laws of ambitious kings. God sent them prophets with warnings that it was their disobedience of His Holy Laws which had brought these calamities upon them. Few took heed . . .

Finally, God drove Israel out of Canaan into the Assyrian and Babylonian captivities several centuries before Christ. From these areas south of the Caucasus Mountains, large numbers of Israelites migrated onto the continent of Europe and were the ancestors of the white, Caucasian race.

500 years later, after the death and resurrection of Christ, His disciples carried the Scriptures to those dispersed Israel people in Europe and the British Isles, who were none other than "the lost sheep of the house of Israel" to whom He was sent. Thus, God again gave His Israel people opportunity to hear His Word, and to the degree that His Law was observed was the degree to which men lived in liberty, prosperity and equality of justice.

In the 15th and 16th centuries the printing press and the Protestant Reformation made God's Law available to all the people causing many to desire a government and life-style based upon these moral principles of Bible Law. That opportunity came in the "New World" called America. In 1776, after a period of Christian colonization, a new Nation was born seceding from the tyranny of man's laws. For the second time in all history the world watched in awe as Israelites formed "one Nation under God," a new Nation then firmly rooted in Bible Law which assured equality to all men under God's Law.

That new Nation provided such a favourable climate for liberty and prosperity that it rapidly grew into the most wealthy Nation in the history of mankind. However, like Israel of old, succeeding generations increasingly violated the Divine Law. In direct proportion to this setting aside of God's Law, their liberties have eroded and chaos has increased.

The Sovereign hand of Almighty God also directed the colonization of this Australia, an island "afar off", our wonderful land under the Southern Cross. This constellation is depicted on our National flag which proudly bears the Union of Jacob (Israel) flag of our Motherland wherein the Throne of David will be maintained until David's Greater Son, Jesus Christ, assumes it as "King of kings and Lord of lords." "For he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall He judge the world, and the people with equity". (Psalm 98:9)

Australia, too, has sinned by transgressing the Law of Almighty God. Trouble is on every hand. We are in the midst of evil all the day long. Divine judgment is imminent . . . There is only one solution. It is found in the Scripture. God said, "If you obey Me, I will bless you and give you prosperity; but if you disobey Me, I will bring you into debt and bondage to a world monetary system." We can only restore Righteousness in our Nation by studying God's Law and reaffirming it as the only foundation of our legal system.

The Holy and Just Law of God Almighty is our Christian Heritage and most precious possession. However, it is not enough to have it; it must be obeyed as well. To that end, we commend to you this Guide to God's Law and pray that God Almighty will bless you in Jesus Christ to understand it.
